Al. Hickman has a splendid new lathe and is now prepared to do all kinds of fine watch repairing.

The new residence on west Gaines now under construction by C M Joineor is going to be quite tasty.

Mrs T R Gilbert returned last Saturday from an extended visit to relatives and friends in the "lone star state.

C. M. Joiner, who lately visited Hot Springs on account of rheumatism, is gradually getting well.

A fresh stock of Christmas goods at W G Bills store on East side of square.

Now, Children, hang up your little stockings and get to bed early so as to give old Santa a fair show.

Geo. Mester will open a hotel in the new building just east of rail road crossing on East st. He is now in Cincinnati for furniture.

You mus n't miss the public instalation of the officers of Mimosa lodge next Saturday night at the Opera house.

Highest price paid by W G Bills for eggs, butter and chickens.

A reward of 25 cents if offered for Jo. B. Schade's hat lost off the train between here and Columbia. See Len Simms.

You had better fix yourself to "interview" the tax collector. He had some hand bills printed at this office lately and will be around to see you all shortly.

Mr. Pine Rogers, the handsome and accomplished salesman at C. M. Joiner's, will leave us Christmas day to take a position at Athens Ala.

The Crowson cotton mills which have been idle for some months will go into operation soon under the management of the live and wide awake firm of Dustin & Dunn.

There was a little fistic matinee on the square one night last week in which a frontispiece or two was "illustrated with cuts" all of which was settled for next morning with the recorder.

Don't fail to read what we said last week about a visit to Schade & Son's stove and tin House. We feel that it is good enough to repeat this week so you will find another place in this issue.

[illegible] this paper on s[illegible] now [illegible] but as good time to pay any We need [illegible] and we have been very patient but our account must be closed up and that shortly. Don't forget this o[illegible] put it off.

A Horrible Accident.

Last Thursday near the home of Wm. Moore in the 10th district, a fearfully shocking and fatal accident befel the oldest son of Wr. Moore. The young man was engaged in loading a log on a wagon when the chain holding the log snapped and it rolled back in such manner as to catch his head between the log and a stump crushing it and producing instant death. Albert was a bright and promising boy and it is a sad and crushing blow to his parents to give him up especially in this shocking way. They have our deepest sympathy.

A visit to the Stove and Tin House of SCHADE & SON.

We visited the Stove and Tin House of that live business firm Schade & Son on the west side of the square Tuesday of this week and found as fine a line of goods as can be seen south of Nashville.

The stove department has in it everything to suit any and all sorts of customers, from the complete kitchen range down to the little step stove for a family of two. Heating stoves in all styles and prices and of the very best make. The thing that strikes the buyer is the cheapness and goodness of these stoves.

As to tin ware you can get everything you want from a pie pan to a dish basin.

A look at the lamp goods is enough to convince any one that he need go no further to get just what he wants in the way of a lamp from the fine parlor article to a little hand lamp.

Glass ware in abundance and of superior quality.

Now listen! If you want real nice, cheap Christmas goods toys and presents go to Schade & Son

☞ If you want to make your wife a nice Christmas present get her one of the new cooking stoves with all the nice vessels and things that go with it. Go around and see for yourself.
