Fishing Point News.

(Correspondence of the Beacon.)

The farmers here had exceptionally good weather for harvesting their wheat and hay crops.

Miss Bertha Jones, daughter of Mr. J. W. Jones, left last week for an extended trip to Philadelphia, New York and Long Island. She will spend the greater part of her time with her cousin Mrs. Jennie L. Graves, of Patuxent, Long Island. We hope that Miss Bertha will return greatly improved in health and looking as beautiful and attractive as in the past.

Thursday last Mrs. Frances Magill, wife of Judge E. M. Magill, of Fishing Point, fell and broke her right arm just above the elbow. Dr. Hodgson rendered the medical assistance. Mrs. Magill is an industrious, energetic lady and has our sincere sympathy.

Messrs. Albert and Hugh Collier, of Baltimore, are visiting their uncle, Mr. J. W. Jones.

Mrs. Edward Walker is visiting her father Mr. Adam S. White.

Miss Genevieve White is home spending her vacation. She has no pains or expense to improve and make his property at Fishing Point valuable and convenient. The new artesian well which is over three hundred feet has an elegant flow of cool crystal water.

Ode to the Glorious Fourth.

Hail glorious day to the nation's heart so dear, Immortal heroes lost to every sense of fear. With heart and hand united did proclaim Sweet liberty in an infant country's name. Hail glorious lights adorning history's page, Thy fame echoes through every clime and age. Hail to the chief unrivaled in the lists of fame, Who came and saw and conquered in dear Freedom's name. Hail starry banner, grand emblem of the free, Triumphantly proudly floating o'er land and sea. In defiance boldly in thy every stripe spoke, And Freedom's darling sons remove oppression's yoke.
