ILLEGAL FOR HUSBAND TO STEAL FROM WIFE

CHICAGO, May 28. (By International News Service.)—It is impossible, legally, for a husband to steal from his wife, it was ruled by Chief Justice Robert E. Crowe, of the criminal court here. The ruling was handed down as the result of indictments charging confidence game, larceny and embezzlement, obtained by Mrs. Seymour Cohen against her husband, a Chicago attorney. She alleged he had taken $41,102 worth of stocks and bonds from her.

POLITICAL "MACHINE" CAST SIX VOTES

ATLANTA, Ga., May 28 (By International News Service.)—Talk about political machines!

Look what happened in Precinct No. 1239, Appling county, in electing a justice of the peace.

The result was certified to the secretary of state and showed the following:

Six votes were cast.

One vote was that of the retiring justice. The second vote was that of the candidate for the place. The third, fourth and fifth votes were those of the three election managers.

Now the capitol attaches want to know who was the sixth voter.

MARRIAGES

SCOOBA, Miss.—Miss Severa Boyd and Ernest Graham, both of Porterville, were married at the bride's home. The bride is a recent graduate.

SCOOBA, Miss.—Miss Clara Beasley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beasley, and Loyd Williamson, employe at the Kemper bank, in Scooba, were married by the Rev. J. T. Abney, pastor of the Methodist church, at the home of the bride, five miles west of Scooba, on Tuesday afternoon.

SEARCY, Ark.—Robert T. Harville, of Augusta, and Mrs. Minta Watkins Sharp, of Searcy, were married here Thursday at the home of the bride, by the Rev. T. Y. Ramsey, pastor of the First Methodist church. This marriage unites two of the most prominent families in Arkansas. Mrs. Sharp is the granddaughter of the late Judge Jesse N. Cyperl, who was a member of the constitutional convention of 1874, and was for 16 years circuit judge of the First judicial circuit, and the daughter of W. M. Watkins, president of the Bank of Searcy, and one of the largest hardware, furniture and dry goods merchants in the county. Mr. Harville has large mercantile, banking and railway interests in Augusta, Ark., and is connected with the family of Judge Joseph W. House. Out-of-town attendants were: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Foster, of Helena; Archie House Harville, of Little Rock, and Emmerson House, of Memphis.

The Dead

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—Mrs. Fannie Scruggs Matthews died at the city hospital Thursday. She was a member of one of the old and prominet families of this section, and was the widow of E. R. Matthews, for many years clerk of the city of Huntsville. She is survived by four sons, J. Waddy Matthews, of Atlanta; E. R. Matthews, of Huntsville; Erskine Matthews, of San Francisco, and Frank Matthews, of Denver.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss.—Word was received here Wednesday by John Sykes, farmer, that his sister, Mrs. Mattie Boone, wife of William Boone, of Jackson, had died suddenly in that city, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Boone is remembered here as Miss Mattie Sykes. She was connected with the Sykes family, who have long been prominent in the county. She leaves a husband, several children and a brother.

NEW ALBANY, Miss.—J. A. Norris, 69 years old, member of the mercantile firm of Norris Hardware company, of this place, died at his home Tuesday of paralysis. Mr. Norris was for years one of the most reliable and substantial of this county's citizens, and a member of the Baptist church for 52 years. He is survived by his two daughters, Mrs. W. L. Sadler, of Tupelo, and Mrs. R. E. Rowland, of this city; by his sons, Robert Norris, of New York, and William Norris, his partner in business, and by his wife. Burial took place today.

DOESN'T SPEAK ENGLISH, EARNS $124 IN WEEK

BOSTON, May 28 (By International News Service.)—He came to this country only a few years ago, and has not yet mastered the English language. He found work with many of his compatriots in what had been a sweatshop until they were legislated out of existence. He is a bushelman, which means that he presses newly made clothing. He showed his week's pay envelope and the money. In one week, without overtime and not too hard work, he received for salary $124.60.
