Election, Tuesday, November 5th, 1901.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

The Mass Meeting of the Democracy of St. Mary's will take place in LEONARDTOWN on MONDAY, October 14, 1901,

at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The people will certainly be addressed by

Hon. JOHN S. WIRT, of Cecil.

Hon. LLOYD WILKINSON, of Worcester.

Hon. ALONZA S. MILES, of Baltimore.

Don't fail to come and hear the grave and important issues effecting the best interests of the whole people discussed.

DEM. CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

If you believe the Democracy ought to win in this campaign the way to prove the faith that's in you is to show your belief by your work. Turn in and help to win.

Come out to the Democratic Mass Meeting, Monday, October 14th, instant. John S. Wirt, Alonzo Miles and Lloyd Wilkinson will speak and there are no more eloquent speakers in the State.

The two parties in the county went actively to work Tuesday last endeavoring to get the vote registered. If we are to judge from Tuesday's performance, the fight will be a sure enough one.

The Evening News, of Baltimore, ought to be extensively circulated by the Democratic managers throughout the counties of the State. Its course abuse of Mr. Gorman will do more to arouse the democracy and fair-minded people than anything else. "Abuse is not argument" in the country, and convinces no one who thinks. And we would be sorry to believe that it has any weight with the city readers of the News.

The writer has shown his belief in the justice of the new Election Law by his vote for it last Winter at Annapolis, and does not feel called upon to defend it now. Its operation will, in his opinion, demonstrate that it is a fair and just law, and one that will tend greatly to check bribery. If, as our Republican friends claim, they can teach every colored voter how to properly mark his ticket, then the law does not disfranchise any of them. And their solicitude over the illiterate white man is very uncomplimentary to him. For if the black man can be taught, why cannot a white man? They claim that the old law was eminently fair, yet people had to be taught how to vote under it and with it bribery was rampant. The Republican position seems to us quite a dilemma and their argument is forcible for its inaccuracy and lack of candor.

Washington Notes.

[BY NIXIE.]

While en route to Maine, Senator Hanna continued to deliberate at every stopping point that his faith in Mr. Roosevelt grew stronger hour by hour. No doubt Mr. Hanna still has his weather eye on the Ship Subsidy bill.

Some of the planks of the New Jersey Republican platform are so thin that they would pass for diaphanous.

The Senate Committee on Military Affairs will soon begin in earnest an investigation of the alleged hemp scandals in the Philippines, involving a combine in which certain Army Officers have been illegitimately interested. Nothing will retard the genuine pacification of the Filipinos more than sensational disclosures of dishonesty among the men who claim to be filled with the high purpose of regenerating the natives. The islanders may be woefully ignorant, according to American standards, but they are not imbeciles and can as readily identify hypocrisy as the Caucasian in uniform. Deceit once practiced on them will lead them to believe that the Americans are at heart insincere and avaricious, and it will certainly prolong their hostility to the newcomers.

Admiral Dewey's refusal to receive counsel representing Rear Admiral Sampson at the court of inquiry was eminently proper. While issues of the controversy are really between Schley and Sampson, technically, only the Navy Department and Rear Admiral Schley are parties to the investigation now in progress. Sampson has no right there unless he chooses to appear as a witness.

Although numerous alliances against the Democratic organizations in New York city have previously been made, few of them have succeeded in even temporarily caging the Tiger.

The trust spirit is still unchecked. It continues to ride rough-shod thru the avenues of business, crushing all opposition. Next on the programme is a patent-leather combination, which proposes to have a capital of nearly $100,000,000. By the time it has been thoroughly organized, Mr. Morgan may be expected to step forward and have a foot in it.

William J. Bryan's advice to Theodore Roosevelt not to become a candidate for a second term was apparently delivered in the most friendly spirit. There is certainly a deal of truth in the Nebraska's assertion that, to build sufficient strength for a renomination, Mr. Roosevelt must sacrifice his independence and bring complications into his administration. Nevertheless, it is quite apparent that the new Chief Magistrate is too ambitious to abandon the hope of further glorifying himself by building up an organization that will make him the central figure of the next Republican national convention.

While organized labor lost a fortune in its battle with the Steel Trust, Mr. Morgan's combine has not suffered materially, if reports from the headquarters of that concern are to be relied upon. It is semi-officially stated that the net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation during the past six months have amounted to $51,000,000 and that a dividend will soon be declared on both classes of stock issued by the company.

When a trust has grown so powerful that it can inflict an almost fatal blow upon a great branch of union labor and make half a hundred millions at the same time, the situation has become serious and Americans will appreciate the gravity of the political problem involving this phase of capitalistic economy. Unless decisive steps are taken to regulate the evil, the octopus will have, within the next decade, so involved the working classes in its far-reaching tentacles that the feudal system will seem a veritable Elysium by comparison.

Thus far Mr. Roosevelt is practically an unknown quantity even among the leaders of the party that placed him second to Mr. McKinley at the last Republican national convention. It is expected, however, that within the coming two months the new President will be compelled to declare himself on the leading issues of the hour. Whether he will prove to be more subservient than even Mr. Hanna had hoped for is a matter of interesting speculation at the present time.

Earl Li Hung Chang has once more recovered. Now that there is a growing prospect of comparatively friendly relations between China and the powers, he feels almost convalescent. When matters looked dark and threatening, the earl was scarcely expected to recover. Bret Harte knew his individual when he wrote that "For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, the heathen Chinese is peculiar." Earl Li is a superb diplomat, but he has all the characteristics of his race nevertheless.

Of late, Hawaii has had more than her share of political turmoil and internal brawling. Now comes the report that Governor Sanford B. Dole has resigned and that the official notice of his retirement is en route to Washington. There is a strong opposition to the gubernatorial incumbent in certain quarters and efforts have repeatedly been made to smirch his official character. It is not to be forgotten, however, that the present Governor has accomplished a great deal for his country, that he has been a reliable executive officer and that his successor, if Mr. Dole has resigned, is likely to be more or less of an experiment as well as the representative of a faction that has stirred up affairs in the Pacific islands repeatedly since they passed into the control of the American Nation.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Greenwell & Drury, Leonardtown.

Have you a guarantee of life? If not, then take a policy in the Equitable and provide a means for your widow to raise and educate the children in the event of your death.

Special Notice to Ladies.
Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Morgan left for Baltimore and New York a few days ago to buy fall and winter goods. Miss Grace Wilson, who had charge of the millinery and trimming department last spring, will join them in Baltimore, and will select all the millinery, such as ladies' hats, trimmings, &c. It will be remembered that Miss Wilson is a professional, having worked for two years at Mrs. Armstrong's on Lexington street, Baltimore, and later in the private trimming rooms of Armstrong, Cator & Co. Miss Wilson will return with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and take charge of their millinery. She will have a fall and winter opening the first three days of our season, namely, October 14th, 15th, and 16th. Every lady customer will be presented with a souvenir of the opening. The public cordially invited.—adv.

Came Near Dying.
"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awaking a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I do on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and of for them my grateful thanks and say, 'God bless you and the splendid medicine you make.' This remedy is for sale by Greenwell & Drury, Leonardtown.

A Pitcher's Experience.
Mr. Philip Dawson, who has distinguished himself during the last season by his brilliant pitching for the crack amateur team of Washington, D. C., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to recommend your L. L. Liniment. For the past season I have been pitching for the Riggs' National Bank Baseball Team and have had more or less trouble with my arm, but find great relief in rubbing thoroughly with this liniment, which strengthens the overtaxed muscles. It is also very useful for sprains and bruises."

All athletes or others who take violent exercise can find like relief, for Mr. Dawson's experience is that of thousands who, during the past forty years, have used L. L. Many an overtaxed muscle or strained sinew would be quickly cured by the prompt use of this liniment. So often sore and aching feet have but to be rubbed with it to obtain instant relief. For Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, Swellings, all complaints where an external application is required, for Man or Beast, it is unsurpassed. The Stockman's Friend. Avoid substitutes. Price 25 cents.
