MINISTER DECLINES LOCAL CHURCH CALL

It was with sincere regret that the congregation of Idlewild Presbyterian church learned of the decision of Dr. J. Layton Mauze, of Huntington, W. Va., to decline the call recently extended to him by the church. Dr. Mauze preached Sunday morning and evening at Idlewild church, and was greeted by large congregations at both services. Those who heard him were greatly impressed by his marked ability in the pulpit and pronounced him a great preacher.

In announcing his decision not to come to Memphis at this time, Dr. Mauze told the members of the official board at the close of the evening service, that while Idlewild church offered a larger field and greater possibilities for good in many ways than his church in Huntington, and that he was greatly attracted to the people of Memphis, yet in view of the fact that the Idlewild congregation is just undertaking the erection of a new building, he was unwilling to mark time while these operations were in progress. Wishing to make his work count to the utmost, he said that he thought it wise to remain at his present post, where his church is splendidly equipped and where his work is well organized and making great progress.

The pulpit supply committee is arranging to supply the pulpit with an able minister until the congregation makes another choice and extends a call to another minister.

Holiday Rush Hits Ellis Island Office

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The Christmas rush of immigrants and other persons anxious to spend the holidays on American soil, reached its height Sunday when eight trans-Atlantic liners arrived with more than 12,000 passengers. Half a dozen large liners are expected to arrive during the week.

Dr. Ayres Will Address Lions

Dr. J. C. Ayres will be speaker of honor at the regular weekly luncheon of the Memphis Lions' club, to be held Tuesday noon, at the Hotel Gayoso. While no subject has been announced, it is understood he will talk on simple rules for preservation of good health.

A nomination committee will be appointed Tuesday, the nomination and election to take place early next year. The attendance prize for Tuesday's meeting has been donated by W. C. Reinhardt, of the Reinhardt Music Store, Inc.

SOCIAL CLUBS MUST PAY TAX ON DUES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Every social club which fails to collect and pay over taxes required on dues and fees from its members, is liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000, according to revised regulations issued today by the bureau of internal revenue. In addition to a penalty of 50 per cent of the tax is imposed when a return filed by a club is found to be false or fraudulent.

Under the new regulations returns from clubs together with the amount of the tax is required to be in the hands of the collector on or before the last day of the month following that for which it is made. Each club must make a return every month, whether or not taxable dues have been collected. If a club is held not taxable the bureau said it is not required thereafter to make a return as to its status under the law unless it changes its character, but revenue collectors are required to inquire into their status from time to time to ascertain whether they have become taxable.

SPAIN CUTS SWEDEN.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 20.—Spain has given three months' notice of the termination of the Spanish-Swedish commercial convention. This has been in operation since 1899.

BOLTON SMITH WILL TALK TO ROTARIANS

Memphis Rotarians will gather for a Yuletide luncheon at the Hotel Chisca at 12:15 Tuesday. While they are preparing for joyous holidays with everything the heart could wish, it is appropriate that they should devote this lunch hour to hearing something of the other side of the picture, as it exists in the war-stricken countries of Europe.

The speaker will be Bolton Smith, who has just returned from an extensive trip abroad. He is a keen student of economics, and his address will be one of the features of the winter meetings.

Following his talk, Rotarians J. F. McSweyn and Walk C. Jones, captains of the teams which tied in the attendance contest last week, will draw to decide which team is to split the 50-gallon drum of Polarine donated by Rotarian J. T. Massey.

President E. R. Barrow has named two nominating committees to select tickets for the annual election which is scheduled for next month. Committee No. 1 is composed of Bob Schuyler, chairman; Palmer Brown and Herbert Jordan. Committee No. 2 is composed of Lewis D. Fort, chairman; Leslie Thornton and Milton Binswanger.
