OMAHA MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE,
Saturday Evening, January 20.

The wholesale trade of the city for the past week was reported as moderate in the aggregate volume of business transacted, and in various lines of trade dullness was a prominent element, the extremely cold weather, together with the season of the year, undoubtedly had a retarding influence. Collections are reported as very slow, the farmers still holding their products for higher prices.

Coal dealers are doing an active business.

In provisions there was a weaker tone developed, and a material falling off in the transactions about the middle of the week, though now in fair demand and selling at last week's quotations

The receipts of hogs during the week were 125 cars, packers paying $5 85 for good, showing a decline of 5c.

Flour was quiet though firm and in sympathy with the advance in wheat. Other mill stuffs were in moderate demand at revised quotations.

There was less animation in groceries and a weaker tone prevailed in sugars and syrups, though firm at present quotations. Dried fruits and canned goods are in moderate request and firm.

Building materials of all kinds, tinners' stock and heavy hardware are quiet and steady. Nails are slow in movement at present, though firm, with anticipation of an advance as spring approaches.

Butter is slow and stock increasing. There is at present no indication of higher prices, though choice lots are in fair request on local account.

Eggs are in light supply, and the fresh article is in good demand.

Cheese is in fair movement and firm at quotations.

Poultry is scarce and meets with ready sale, the market having been scantily supplied since the holidays.

The demand for dry goods, boots and shoes, clothing and millinery goods continues light and prices slow; no important variations.

The local grain market is stronger, prices having advanced steadily throughout the week. See revised quotations.

Bran in fair demand and selling at $14 00; chopped feed, $17 00.
