COUNTY NEWS.
A FINE BRASS BAND
AT THE Democratic Meetings.

An 8 piece BRASS BAND, from Baltimore, has been engaged to accompany the Democratic speakers on their tour through the county. The band will reach Leonardtown Friday morning and will be at...

CLEMENTS, Friday, November 1, at 10 a. m.

MORGANZA, Friday, November 1, at 12 m.

MECHANICSVILLE, same day, at 3 p. m., staying in that district all night.

On SATURDAY morning, November 2, will be at the Three Notched Board, stopping at...

TURNER'S STORE, at 9.30 a. m.

DIXON'S STORE, at 10.30 a. m.

KNIGHT'S STORE, at 12 m.

HILLVILLE, at 1.30 p. m.

HOLLYWOOD, at 3 p. m.

CALIFORNIA, at 5 p. m.

SATURDAY, between 7 and 8 p. m. the band will be in LEONARDTOWN and will play at a Democratic Rally to be held here on that day. All are invited to attend the meetings and listen to sweet music and the issues of the campaign.

Localities and Otherwise.

Miss Bessie Redman, of Valley Lee, is visiting her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. French, Baltimore.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher and wife and Mrs. A. E. Speelman are visiting their mother, Mrs. Laura A. Jones, Leonardtown.

Our issue of October 17th, instant, is exhausted and we cannot comply with the request of several correspondents to send them extra copies.

John E. Lacey, of the Lacey Creamery Company, Washington, D. C., has been visiting his brother-in-law, R. S. Jarboe, near Mechanicsville.

Harry Peacock has moved his barber shop from Lawrence's avenue next to W. F. Abell's store. If you want a good shave or haircut give Harry a call.

At least 18 persons were killed and a property loss of $500,000 was sustained by a fire in Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s furniture warehouse, Philadelphia.

Caleb Powers, ex-Secretary of State of Kentucky, was again convicted of alleged complicity in the Goebel murder and sentenced to life imprisonment.

The campaign is growing warm, but we are pleased that as yet there have been no personalities injected into it. Mud-slinging is not popular with the people.

Saul Levinson will be in Leonardtown November 4th, 5th and 6th and will do all kinds of repairing in watches, clocks and jewelry at his old place of business.

Miss May Cecil and Miss Dora Viett were callers at our office Friday last. We are always pleased to see our friends, particularly our lady friends. We hope they will come again.

Miss Birdie L. Readmond, daughter of L. N. Readmond, of Charlotte Hall district, was married in Baltimore, Monday, October 28th, instant, to Captain Marcellus Gattin, of Calvert county.

The Democratic District Meetings have been largely attended and the party is more closely united than we have ever seen it. We believe that a democratic victory in St. Mary's is assured.

The outpourings of dissatisfaction in the St. Mary's Democratic ranks have given place to a firm purpose of putting up a winning fight and our party is, we believe, united as it has not been for years.

Everything will depend on how you mark your ballot this year and even the most intelligent men are liable to make mistakes that may cause their ballots to be thrown out. Study the ballot carefully before you go to the polls.

The campaign is nearing its end and the candidates of both parties are going night and day. The life of the politician is not an easy one, nor always pleasant, but those who engage actively in politics appear to like the excitement of it.

The store of Henry Wehrheim in Britton's Neck was entered by thieves on Saturday night last and robbed of about $200 worth of goods. Entrance to the store was made by breaking the sash in the window. Among the articles taken were two cases of gum boots, a keg of whiskey and a lot of fine shirts. The common articles were thrown on the floor and left. The thieves are believed to have been dredgers. Mr. Wehrheim searched several of the dredge boats but found none of the goods. At the time of the robbery none was sleeping at the store, which is about half a mile from the dwelling.

Be Careful in Marking Ballots.

Republicans have been contending that the X mark opposite the names of candidates is not required to be wholly within the box. Let them mark as they please, but Democrats desiring to have their ballots counted should mark within the square space. In doing this they take no chances.

Two Democratic nominees for the House of Delegates to be voted for at this election: Charles Sterrett Gration and Thomas Lee Mattingly.

Morriano-French.
(Correspondence of the Beacon.)

Miss Elizabeth French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. French, 1404 N. Gilmer St., Baltimore, Md., was married Tuesday, October 28th, to Mr. James Clarke Morrison, of New York.

The ceremony, which took place at Bethany M. E. Church, was performed by Rev. Harry D. Mitchell, pastor. The bride entered the church leaning upon the arm of her father. As they appeared at the vestibule door, where the ushers met them, the organist struck the first keys of Lehengrin's wedding march, which was softly played as the bridal party marched to the chancel rail, where they were met by the groom and best man. There she was given away by her father. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns.

The bride was attired in a gown of white mousseline de soie, over tulle trimmed with Duchesse lace and ribbon, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Nellie Waters, French, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink mousseline de soie over pink silk, trimmed with ribbons. She carried La France roses.

Mr. Taylor Morrison, a brother of the groom, of Piedmont, W. Va., was best man. Miss Mary Ellen Harryman, cousin of both bride and groom, was flower girl. She wore white mousseline de soie and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The ushers were Messrs. William A. Klipstein and Clarence Oddie, of New York; John G. Bartrane and Harry B. French, a brother of the bride, of Baltimore. The groom, best man and ushers wore in full morning dress. Dr. B. G. Harryman, a cousin of the bride, presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left on a trip North. After sailing around for a number of months they will make their home in Chicago.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Taylor L. Morrison, Piedmont, W. Va.; Mrs. W. W. Shultice, Westport, Md.; Miss Edith Morrison, Piedmont, West V.; Congressman A. A. Blakney, Md.; Miss Bessie Redman, Valley Lee, Md.; Miss Martha Blakney, Savage, Md.; and Miss Sidney Wheeler, of West Va. The bride received more than a hundred beautiful and useful presents, the most of which are cut glass and silver.

SUSPENDED.

A High Compliment to Mr. Dent.

The following high compliment was paid our County Treasurer, J. Marshall Dent, by the President of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland:

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, FIDELITY AND DEPOSIT COMPANY OF MARYLAND, BALTIMORE, Oct. 22, 1901.

Mr. J. Marshall Dent, Treasurer St. Mary's county, Leonardtown, Md.—My dear Sir:—I was very much pleased to learn through an auditor of this Company, who recently examined your office, that you are making such a good record as Treasurer and collector of taxes.

He reports that you have collected and reported for all of the taxes for 1900, and that you have collected a large proportion of the 1901 taxes. This company stands ready to guarantee you at all times. We keep a complete list of assessors in this State who are prompt in their collections, and whose records are well kept. You stand at the head of this list. The people of St. Mary's county are fortunate in having such an official as guardian of their finances. With best wishes, I am

Very truly yours,
EDWIN WARFIELD, President.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S 'POSSUM' HUNT.

Let others sing their love songs, but I sing of the fight we made 'gainst our 'Possum' On that bright October night.

We marshalled all our forces, Boys and girls and 'possums' and Jack, and every one we catch our 'possum' Ere we turned our faces back.

Then we heard the dog's deep baying, And we reached him with a rush, For we were sure we had our 'possum.' And every one we catch our 'possum.' And every one we catch our 'possum.'

Nothing there but rods and briars, And a deep hole in the ground, Possibly the home of muskrat. But no 'possum' there was found.

Once again we journeyed forward, Across the stream and o'er hill, Till we found ourselves confronted By the dark and silent rail.

Plunging boldly in the forest, Jack redeemed himself for fair, As he pointed up a grapevine. For we found our 'possum' there.

Then we caught another 'possum,' Two subscribers caught a skil, Showing that he deemed his duty But to find, and then to kill.

Shall I ever forget the pleasure Of the great evening's fight, Forget the laughter of the damals And their glances warm and bright.

No, for in my heart's deep centre, There will linger ever more, Memories of our walk o'er hill top And by the dark bay's silent shore.

An Editorial Dilemma.

An editor of a little county paper in this State runs an inquiry department in connection with his journal, and it has proven to be quite a popular feature with the subscribers. Recently, however, he got his answers mixed with disastrous results.

Two subscribers asked the following questions: 1. How can an orchard be protected from a plague of grasshoppers? 2. What is the best method for getting twins safely through the trouble of foetling?

To the horror of the editor the numbers denoting the answers became mixed and appeared in the paper like this: 1. Give a little castor oil and rub their gums with constrictors. 2. Cover them with straw and set fire to them. The little pests, after jumping about in the flames a few minutes, will not be in condition to cause any further trouble.—Spokane (Wash.) Outburst.
