The race open to morrow.

The Rugged Table opens this week at the residence of E. E. Ford.

Rev. J. B. Sanff, of Toledo, O., occupied the Baptist pulpit yesterday.

P. J. Gallagher has sold a short horn colt to L. M. Apleworth, of Crescent township, for $100.

The postponed May pole party of the Bluff City hose company is to be held this evening at Dohany's.

Peter Smith and Della Robinson were arrested Saturday night by Officer Warner for disturbing the peace.

For an excellant line of summer suitings call on Nugent & Smith, Nos. 7 and 9 Main street.

Be sure and attend the strawberry festival and quadrille party, given by the Catholic ladies at Dohany's opera house next Tuesday evening.

Arrangements should be made for some more of those open air concerts, such as was given by the juvenile band in the park Friday evening.

Rev. Mr. Lemon, late pastor of the Baptist church here, supplied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church yesterday.

Miss Harris, the wonderful pianist, of Chicago, played the organ at the Congregational church yesterday, and very acceptably.

The ladies of the Central church have a strawberry and ice cream social to-morrow evening, at Rev. P. F. Bresee's residence.

Deputy Marshal White run in a man Saturday bearing no less a name than that of Tom Hughes, the charge being vagrancy. How are the mighty fallen.

Another Iowa newspaper man has been captured by Cupid, H. P. Albert, of The Audubon Sentinel, having been married to Miss Heffelmyer, of Stuart.

The ladies' aid society of the Baptist church will give a social Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Chas. Keith, corner of Tenth street and Fourth avenue. All are invited.

A young man giving his name as Walker was arrested on circus day for filching silk handkerchiefs from the pockets of those in the crowd. Two were found in his possession, but no money.

Herman Alhers, of Minden, charged with assaulting Christian Ball, of the same place, waived examination before Justice Abbott yesterday, and will elude the action of the grand jury.

C. R. Quaint, who is nearly blind, and who was quite blind drunk, got off without paying a fine, his physical infirmities touching the judge's sympathies.

George F. Wright's son, aged about twelve, had a narrow escape from a serious accident Friday evening while riding his pony. He was thrown off, and the pony fell on him, stunning the boy, but luckily breaking no bones.

One of Creston's worthy citizens was in the city Saturday, searching for three runaway boys, of whom his was one. They had followed the circus along the road, with the enthusiastic ambition of becoming canvasmen.

The names of Mrs. Capt. Demuting, Mrs. Frank Daninger, and Mrs. G. R. Gilmore, are added to the committee of ladies on decoration day arrangements, and Mrs. Frank Pusey has been made chairman of the committee.

An alarm from box 26 yesterday afternoon, was caused by a fire at Sam Theodore's house, corner Ninth street and Second avenue. A defective flue was the cause. The roof was partly burned. Small damage.

The circus parade Saturday caused the sidewalks along Broadway to be fairly packed with people, it evidently requiring several adults to care for one child. At the corner of Main and Broadway it was so crowded that those having business at the banks had to get in by the rear doors.

There were a large number of crooks who visited the city Saturday, evidently drawn hither by the presence of Robinson's circus and the crowd. There were six confidence men who came in on one train. The officers were on the alert and little of the expected plundering has been reported.

In the district court Saturday the case of Colmore Smith, charged with assault with intent to kill, was commenced and will probably be concluded to-day. Smith will be remembered as the old man who created such a sensation last summer by meeting his divorced wife on the street and attacking her with a revolver.

The trustees of the hospital association have put forth a call urging the people to contribute money that the necessary grounds and buildings may be purchased and running expenses met. Rev. Mr. Lemon has been appointed to solicit funds for this worthy cause, and there should be a prompt and generous response. Of all things, Council Bluffs needs a hospital.

Opening of Summer Styles of French Pattern Hats and Bonnets, Wednesday and Thursday, at Bliss'.

Iron in a colorless state and Peruvian bark, combined with well known aromatics, make Brown's Iron Bitters the best medicine known.

SPEEDY STEEDS.

The Spring Meeting to Open To-Morrow.

There is a lively time at the driving park and a larger or finer gathering of speedy horses has never been seen in this part of the west, thus giving every promise of a great success for the meeting which opens to-morrow.

In company with Mayor Bowman, who is also secretary of the driving association, a Bee man on Saturday took a look over the stables and peeped at the horses, exercises upon the track. Among the noticeable features are the great number of horses and horsemen there gathered, the excellent showing of fleet running horses, and the unusual proportion of promising two-year olds. There are over fifty running horses and thirty or more trotters and pacers.

P. H. Butler, of Silver Lake, Kansas, arrived Saturday with three fast ones, Cape Charles, a bay gelding by Cape Race, who is entered in the running race for the association stake and also in the brewers' stake; Dave White, and Find Out, by Bergard.

W. M. Arnett, of Sharon, Ills., has also a fine stable, including the chestnut filly, Elda Arnett, by Colondan, out of Queen of Diamonds; a bay filly, Alice Murphy, out of Eclipse, by Jim Murphy; a sorrel filly, Lizzie Esther, three years old, out of Carrie Esther, by Colondan; and two two-year olds, Josie, a bay filly out of Eclipse by Lappidem, and one of Lida Welch, by the same sire.

William Brady, of Peoria, Ill., has two fast young horses; one a bay gelding three years old, by Amadis, dam Lady Washington, the other, "Little Joker," a four year-old bay gelding, by the same sire; dam, Ella Hawkins.

The stable of C. F. Armstrong, of Mobile, Alabama, is also a noticeable one. He has Effie H, a fine bay mare by Pat Maloy; dam, Rudolph, who will make interesting for the others in the brewers' stake race. He has also Eva A, a promising four year-old, also of Pat Maloy's get, dam Nora. She is a great jumper, but met with an accident at Memphis, from the effects of which she is just recovering. He also has a fine three year-old by Damon, dam Pauline Sprague.

M. E. Owens, of Charles City, Ia., has his chestnut mare, Mary P, and Blush, a fine filly.

Eggleston & Fisher, of Shenandoah, have four here, Cal. Heburn, Atwood, Atchison, and a two-year old chestnut filly, which is entered for the Bluff City cup stakes, and which has no name but will surely win one.

William Welch, of Camanche, Iowa, has a four-year-old bay filly by Lever, Leonard Arnett by Colondan, out of the Queen of Diamonds.

S. E. Butcher, of the same place, and who is known far and near among turfmen, has Ella Rowett, by Uncle Vic, out of Mononia, entered for the brewers' stake; also Cora B., by Jim Murphy, first dam Gypsy Girl.

H. A. Legg, of Minneapolis, is visible also with his chestnut mare Flydance, promising to capture the association stake.

W. J. Scales, of Sibley, Iowa, has his Auroleus, a six year old stallion; La Belle N., who is entered for the association stake; Tutor, a fine four-year old mare, and Dominie, a six-year old mare, who is a wonderful hurdle horse.

C. S. Bailey is here with Wildfellow, a fine gelding owned by D. N. Arbuckle, of Princeton, Mo., who is entered for the association stake.

J. DeLong, is here with the stable of Sennings & Co., Moberly, Mo. He has Bengeo, a four-year old mare, Ruth, Minnie K., a three year old, and three fine two-year olds, Liggins, Maitie K., and Piney.

Ira Platner, of this city, has his "Homestretch" by Ozark, dam Lottie Moon, also "Dawn of Day," by same sire out of same dam, and Council Bluffs, by Vandal, dam Irene Hardin by imported Geneoso.

Mr. Riggs has the stable of William Mulkey, of Kansas City, including the brown mare Rosebud, by imported Lemantine, dam by Lexington, Flandora, by imported Harington, dam Inveary, and Slipper, by McCreary, dam by King Lear.

A glance at the trotters shows also some speedy and promising ones.

C. R. Clark, of Madison, is here with his bay mare Kitty Fisher, formerly Nellie C., who is entered in the 2:30 and 2:25 classes.

Low Glenn, of Mt. Pleasant, has his Big Soap, showing some good speed and liable to come to the front in the 2:25 race.

Chas. Phillips, of Mt. Pleasant, has his Loafer here, and also a promising mare, a half sister of Big Soap.

M. E. McHenry, of Davenport, has three horses here. George W., Jr., entered in the 2:50 class; Bertie S. a fine black mare, entered in the 2:40 class, and Akbar, the latter owned by J. S. Gilmore, of Rock Island.

L. O. Turner, of Janesville, Wis., has Dutch Girl and Maud H. here, both rather speedy mares.

Dr. Wade Cary, of this city, has his black mare Lorene ready to make it lively for those in the 2:50 race.

A number of other horses, notably those from Denver, will be here before the meeting opens.

The pacing race will probably go now, there being here Belle Mahone, owned by Mr. Thompson, of Winterset; Cyclone, owned by J. S. Taylor; Tom Shoemaker, by Dan Anderson, of Robinson, Kas., and Wisner's Jerry Owen. This will make a lively race indeed, and one of the most interesting events of the meeting.

The free for all, which did not fill, will probably be reopened as Loafer and Little Sioux are here, and it is thought that two more will enter. In fact there seems no end of the sport promised.

Tabor's Father-in-Law.

Ex-United States Senator Tabor, of Colorado, passed through this city Saturday, on his return from the funeral of his father-in-law, Peter McCourt, of Oshkosh. The funeral was one of the most imposing which Oshkosh ever beheld, although Mr. McCourt six months ago was a poor tailor. He had formerly been very successful in business, but in his declining years had lost his property, and again taken up the needle. After his daughter had married Tabor, the latter bestowed on him a $10,000 house and a fortune of $150,000 which he had just commenced to enjoy when death came. The funeral was a very costly affair, and the parade was but little in keeping with the modesty of the man whose remains were thus laid at rest, but yet the rich son-in-law would have been censured as niggardly had he done less.

GOOD!

Good goods tell the story of our very large trade.

PICKING POCKETS.

One Victim Loses Some Cash and a Big Check.

Among those who attended Robinson's circus Saturday was Mrs. S. Sult, who, with due caution, fearing that thieves might enter the house during her absence, took her money with her.

While in the crowd, she thinks in the side-show, she was relieved of her purse, which contained about $35 in cash and a certificate of deposit for about $400. No clue was got to the thief. Payment of the check was, of course, stopped at once, but the thief can hardly be enjoined from using the cash.

A Case not Beyond Help.

Dr. M. H. Hiedsiek, Kenawee, Ill., advises us of a remarkable cure of consumption. He says: "A neighbor's wife was attacked with violent lung disease, and pronounced beyond help from Quick Consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one half dozen bottles she was about the house doing her own work. I saw her at her worst and had no idea she could recover."

Our New Loan and Improvement Co

Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Peaks; secretary, I. R. Leavy; treasurer, Col. Beebe, and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street. jan.27-1y
