OMAHA.

Tuesday Morning, May 29.

LOCAL ENTITIES.

—Bishop O'Connor will speak on "Capital and Labor," at St. Philomena's cathedral next Wednesday evening.

—Two departments of the U. P. shops were shut down yesterday to allow the friends of Mr. Tracy to attend the funeral of his little son, which took place at 1 o'clock yesterday. The procession was one of the largest ever seen in the city and the more sad on account of the terrible manner in which death came.

—The inscription on the Jefferson square fence reads: "No dogs allowed here, and nobody allowed to climb trees." Cows, hogs, etc. are permitted to roam around from morning till night, and to keep ladies and children out of the square. The city might as well rent the square to some stock man or milk rancher, and so derive a handsome revenue.

—Mr. U Frederickson, of the firm of Frekerickson & Co. was Sunday united in marriage to Miss Anna Kosky, a young lady from Pleasant Hill, Mo., who is well known in the city, and has many friends who will be happy to learn of the union. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Freese, of the German Lutheran church, at the bride's uncle's Mr. Albert Nast, corner of Seventeenth and William streets, and was attended by only a few very intimate friends. The happy couple will have the good wishes of their many friends.

—A special car arrived on the Denver train over the U. P. yesterday, its passengers consisting of Gen. T. E. Sickels, Mrs. Chas. A. Whiting, Mrs. D. B. Lee, Miss Grace Atkins, Miss Helen Atkins, Miss Evelyn Ames, Miss Anna Lee Ames, Miss Rosalie Sickels and Messrs. Edwards Roberts and C. M. Baker. Gen. Sickels was formerly chief engineer of the Union Pacific, and has been on a trip to Colorado Springs and other points in the centennial state. They stopped over at the Millard until the afternoon train east.

THE GERMAN THEATER.

Brilliant Success of the Famous Soubrette, Miss Anna Wagner, in "Our Otto."

Sunday evening, despite the inclemency of the weather, quite a large and enthusiastic crowd gathered at the German theater to witness the presentation of "Our Otto."

The principal attraction was, no doubt, the first appearance in Omaha of the celebrated soubrette, Miss Anna Wagner. It was also the opening night of the summer season, and it must be very gratifying to the Dramatic club that they met with such a grand success. Mr. Jean Baureis sustained the leading part in the play Schwanebeck, and he won well deserved applause on all sides for his masterly personation of the character. Miss Anna Wagner as Otto attracted much attention and her acting was freely criticized by all present who pronounced her an actress of the first order whose figure and face are eminently suitable for creating a good impression on an audience even as critical as that usually assembled in Turner Hall. The remaining parts were all well sustained but space does not permit a more elaborate notice.

SAD SUMMONSES.

Judge Doane and His Wife Called to Idaho.

Death of Robert Shorrock at Kalamazoo.

Hon. Geo. W. Doane and wife Sunday received a telegram from Hailey, Idaho, announcing the dangerous illness of Mrs. Doane's brother, Mr. Will Greenhow, who is well known in this city, where he resided for some time. A couple of years ago he went out to Hailey, and has been among the few who made money in that country. The nature of his illness was not stated, but the summons was so imperative that Judge and Mrs. Doane left for his bedside yesterday, the overland train being held a few minutes to enable them to get away without delay. It is to be hoped the result of Mr. Greenhow's illness may prove less serious than anticipated.

DEATH OF ROBERT SHORROCK.

A telegram was received yesterday morning by Mr. J. E. Webb, for many years connected with the Bee job department, announcing that his son-in-law, Mr. Robert Sharrock, was lying very ill at his home in Kalamazoo, Mich., and requesting his presence at once. Fifteen minutes later a second dispatch came that he was dead. Mr. and Mrs. Webb left on yesterday's train for Kalamazoo to attend the funeral.

The deceased was for several years employed in the various job offices of this city where he was well known as one of the most efficient printers in this city. For the last year he has been foreman of the Kalamazoo Telegraph, where he was much thought of by his employers and many friends. The sympathies of all will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Webb and to Mrs. Shorrock in their sad bereavement.

THE SALOON BUSINESS

A Tax-Payer Enters a Protest.

To the Editor of The Bee:

OMAHA, May. 28, 1883.—Yesterday being Sunday, as I passed Mr. B. Shannon's saloon on Tenth street, I saw a notice put up on the front of the saloon which was as follows: "The side door is open. By order of the marshal. Boys, step in and pay."

Now, we read in section 6 chapter 21, on page 70 of the city charter, that no person or co-partnership of persons so licensed shall keep open his or their saloon on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, nor on week days between the hours of 12 o'clock at night and 4 o'clock a. m., nor during such time sell, barter or in any manner dispose of any malt, spirituous or vinous liquors to the disturbance of the peace and tranquility of the city; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be fined not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

In section 14 of chapter 61 of the general laws of Nebraska, we find on page 70, "Every person who sell or give away any malt, spirituous and vinous liquors on the day of any general or special election, or at any time during the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of $100."

We see on page 78 of the city charter, chapter 24, sections 4 and 5, whose duty it is to see that the laws are properly enforced.

I wish to say no more at present. I leave the matter with the public for them to draw their own conclusions.

Hinda Rose, Wild Flower and Benita are entered in the Chicago races, which begin July 14th. The two year-olds will trot in the different meetings next fall for colt stakes. The car left last evening for Lincoln, Ill., where the horses are to be until the opening of the Chicago races.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

A Contest Between Chas. Specht and Cleves Bros.

The Board Refuses to do Business Longer With the Architects.

Miscellaneous Business of Less Important Nature.

A special meeting of the board of education was held last evening, at which there were present Messrs. Copeland, Specht, Points, Gibbon, Livesey, Hall, Secretary Connoyer and President Long.

President Long stated that the object of the meeting was to consider the plans for the new school buildings and hear the report of the committee on buildings and property on same.

A communication was read from Mr. Specht, of the board, in regard to a proposed alteration in the plans known as "plans No. 1," and detailing the fact that he had been forcibly ejected from the office of Cleves Bros., the architects; that he believed they were trying to force a fraudulent claim on the board, and calling for a committee of investigation.

Mr. Connoyer proposed that a committee of three be appointed to investigate the matter.

Mr. Specht stated that the matter could be investigated in this meeting, and that he had appointed Mr. Copeland to act as his counsel.

Mr. Copeland concurred, and asked Mr. Livesey to make a statement of the facts.

Mr. Livesey made a statement, and thought the whole matter was a private and personal one, and not one for the board to settle.

Mr. Hall moved to go into committee of the whole to investigate the subject, which was carried.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

Mr. Copeland asked first for a statement from Mr. Livesey, who said that upon their visit to Cleves Bros. they found that some changes had been made. Mr. Specht objected to receiving any plans but such as had been accepted by the board, upon which he was violently ejected by the Cleves Bros.

Dr. Parker asked that the architects have a chance to defend themselves.

Mr. Specht made a statement in regard to the changes made in the plans and Mr. Connoyer also made a statement as to the action of the committee on buildings and property endorsing said changes.

Mr. Specht went into a detail of the changes made and the difference it would make in the cost of the building.

Mr. Hall suggested that the object of this investigation was to ascertain if a member of the board had received treatment at the hands of the Cleves Bros. which was an indignity to the board, and that their statement should be heard.

Mr. Cleves told his side of the story, which was to the effect that Mr. Specht had wanted certain changes to allow him to make bids through his brother-in-law. He said Specht blew cigar ashes on the plans and swore a little, and he was thereupon fired out.

Specht pronounced the statement of Mr. Cleves a broad face lie and declared that he had made no attempt at any time to obtain work from the board. He denied all that Mr. Cleves said and said it was an insult to the whole board, upon which the licking he got reflected.

Mr. Specht called for plans No. 1, which he claimed would show how many windows were cut off and that the board would lose $10,000 if the changes were adopted.

Mr. Long saw no changes made, except those endorsed by the board.

Mr. Copeland thought the point was that a member of the board, acting in his official capacity, had been insulted, and he was in favor of dropping their plans and dealing with some one who would respect the board. Its high disapproval should be stamped on their action. Both sides of the case had been presented, and he thought it plainly proven that the assault was unprovoked, and it was the plain duty of the board to take notice of it.

Mr. Hall moved that the committee rise and report that the conduct of the Cleves Bros. was such that the board deem it inexpedient to do any more business with them.

Mr. Connoyer reviewed the case and said Cleves Bros. had been instructed after the fuss to make out their details and that he thought as long as the board was responsible for the plans anyway they should use them.

Mr. Specht excitedly began an explanation of the plans and was called to order by Mr. Long, as the question at issue did not depend on their merits.

Mr. Gibbon spoke briefly and expressed his opinion that there was some personal matter in all this trouble, though he did not know what it was. The board should not be drawn into a personal quarrel.

Mr. Livesy, who saw the fight between Cleves Bros. and Mr. Specht, said that it was an insult to the board.

Mr. Specht reiterated his assertion that the original plans had been cut all to pieces, that they could not be carried out for less than $23,000 while as reduced they would cost $16,000.

The motion to sever business relations with Cleves Bros. was then carried, and on motion the committee arose and reported accordingly.

Mr. Points called attention to the charge made that one of its members (Specht) had, contrary to law, offered to become a party to furnishing material for the new building, and he thought a committee should be appointed to investigate the conduct of Mr. Specht. He was of the opinion that there was something personal at the bottom of this whole matter.

Mr. Parker read a copy of an affidavit made before Judge Brandes, December 18th, 1882, in which Mr. Wakefield, the lumber man, stated that in the spring Mr. Cleves called and asked what commission they would pay for any business sent him by their firm.

Mr. Connoyer stated that he and another committee member had been authorized by Mr. Specht to make the necessary alterations in the plans of Cleves Bros. He said the threat had been made on the street before the row that Cleves Bros. should not have the plans for the school building. He denounced the introduction of the affidavit as an outrage.

Mr. Points impugned the motive of the parties whose names appeared in the affidavit, and said Mr. Specht had been working ever since the plans were presented to have them rejected.

Mr. Copeland asked, as a matter of information, if the plans of Cleves Brothers had ever really been accepted.

The secretary read from the record to show that the plans had been adopted, and Mr. Copeland raised the point that no perfected plans had ever been before the board, upon which Mr. Hall presented the legal point that their acceptance had depended upon the action of the committee on buildings, and that the board was not bound by anything, unless a contract had been made.

The question being upon the motion of Mr. Hall—which was to adopt the report of the committee—it prevailed.

The secretary reported that the board of education had been sued by M. Hartigan, Esq., for $200 and dollars and the secretary was on motion authorized to employ an attorney to defend.

It was moved that the secretary be authorized to advertise for the construction of the buildings on Delaware and King streets for which the plans were furnished by Dufrene & Mendelsohn and Mr. Parker announced that the same building be duplicated on Seventeenth and Leavenworth streets.

The first part of the motion was adopted, and Dufrene and Mendelsohn authorized to modify their plans to suit the state on Leavenworth and Seventeenth, and report by Monday next.

A resolution was adopted giving Dufrene and Mendelsohn four per cent for the plans and superintending of the building.

The secretary was authorized to buy a lawn mower, and have the grass cut on the high school lawn.

It was resolved to employ Mrs. Welch as janitor for the room occupied by the board.

The purchase of fifty music books for use in preparing for the closing exercises of the schools was authorized.

The committee was instructed to have the walk on Dodge street repaired.

Mr. Parker reported as to the cost of three lots in Biggs & Hill's addition—$1 600 was the least they could be secured for. The three lots would be 120 by 116 feet in size, and are located on Douglas and Twenty-eighth street. The committee was authorized to pay $1 500 for the lots if they could get them at that rate.

THE POLICE RECORD.

The Usual Monday Morning Docket.

Judge Boneke's court was fairly busy yesterday, though none of the offenders were charged with anything very serious.

Two boys arrested as vagrants were sent out of town.

Two suspicious characters were held for further examination, one fine was paid for drunkenness and three men answered to the charge of disturbing the peace, one being discharged, one committed and one fined out of town.

The authorities are at a loss to know what to do with the notorious Eva Lloyd, who is in the county jail on a charge of shooting with intent to commit murder. "Doc" Richards, the man whom she shot at, did not show up to prosecute her, and is supposed to have left town. As there were no other witnesses, this will probably knock the bottom out of the case. To an officer who conversed with her Sunday she said she shot to kill "Doc" and then intended to kill herself. She promises to leave town if she is released.

The case of the hack drivers charged with obstructing the U. P. depot platform is set for 2 p. m. Thursday.

In a quarrel between two boys at The Republican office James Kane struck Fred Zweifel and inflicted a wound above one of his eyes. Kane was arrested but on account of the fact that Kane supported his mother by his work, Mrs. Zweifel withdrew the charge against him. Zweifel will be laid up for several days as it is.

Some boys have been smashing windows and doing damage in various ways on South Thirteenth street, by ball throwing. One indignant citizen captured the ball and left it at police court for the owner to call for.
