STOCKS—After the decided break in the stock market Tuesday, it was expected to show considerable feverishness. Hammond & Co. suspended operations at the packing house to-day owing to the scarcity of dressed beef steers. They will resume to-morrow as there are plenty on the road.

F. J. Clark has returned from Chicago.

The following parties had stock at the yards to-day: Bliss & Bliss, of Schuyler, 68 hogs; C. Borley, 52 horses; C. T. Ward, Rising City, 61 hogs; H. Gilmore & Son, David City, 99 hogs; F. Krept, Schuyler, 72 hogs; Morse Rogers & Co., North Bend, 75 hogs; Blackmore & Aldrift, Friend, 79 hogs; Gund & Christy, Wilber, 66 hogs; L. H. In a few days the receipts of cattle will be very heavy. L. R. Bolles & Co., of Ontario, Oregon, have purchased ten thousand head which have been consigned here, and will continue to buy throughout the season. Previous to this the Oregon stock have all been shipped to San Francisco or other points on the Pacific coast. The opening up of the Oregon Short Line will bring all this stock east, as the market advantages are far superior. Several thousand head are being rounded up near Mountain Home and will be shipped here from that point, commencing about the 25th.

The Big Horn Cattle Co. have from five to seven thousand head which will be shipped to this point.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

Fruits

Lemons—The quality of lemons is very fine for this time of year, and they continue in good demand. The market has declined, but is firm now, and with hot weather is very apt to advance again; New Verdelli, fancy, per box, $9.00@10.00.

Apples—Commission men are receiving large lots of the very finest of apples continually. Winter apples are going to be very scarce. Missouri reports only one-third of a crop; Michigan and Kansas will have none. There will be a full supply from New York state and Canada and although prices may be a little high, the fruit from those sections is so far superior that dealers generally will find more profit and satisfaction in handling this stock than the western apples in years of full crops; fancy eating, $3 00@3.75; cooking, $2 75@3 00.

Cranberries—Owing to heavy frosts in the spring the crop of cranberries will be quite short, particularly of the cheaper grades, but there will be a fair supply of Bell and Bugles and Bell and Cherries.

Cocoanuts—Per hundred, $5 50.

Bananas—Demand very light; some very good stock coming in for this time of the year; yellow, per bunch as to size, $1.00@3 50.

Peaches—As soon as California peaches will get too ripe to ship quantities of Delaware and Michigan peaches will be on the market. A few Arkansas peaches arriving which meet with fair sale at $1.00 per one-third bushel box.

Grapes—Grapes are raised in large quantities in this vicinity and there is a prospect of an abundant yield with correspondingly low prices.

California Fruits.

This delicious fruit is now at its best, and very reasonable in price, meeting with ready sale everywhere at good profits to the retailers.

Pears—Mountain Bartletts, $3 25@3.50; Winter Nellis, Beurre Diel, White Dovenne, E Beurre, Lawrence, Dutchesse, etc., $2 75@3 00.

Peaches—Late Crawford's, Lemon and Red Clings $2.00.

Plums—Per box, $1.75.

Prunes—$1.75.

Grapes—Per crate, Muscats, Rose of Peru, and Tokay, $2.00.

General Produce.

Cheese—Prices are lower than they have ever been at this time of the year, and a sharp advance is expected very soon; The recent cool weather helps to make an exceptionally fine quality of cheese, as good as is generally made in September. Fancy full cream Cheddars, 8½; fancy full cream flats, two in hoop, 9c; fancy full cream Young Americas, four in hoop, 10½@11c; brick cheese, 12½c; Limburg cheese, 10c; Swiss cheese, 16@17c.

Provisions—The market is steadily advancing, and will continue to do so for several months, as prices are very low yet. Lard, 40 lb cans, per lb, 7½c; do, 20-lb cans, 7¾c; dried beef hams, 14c; dried beef, 12c; corned beef, per bbl, 6 00; mess pork, per bbl, 13 00; ham, 11½c; breakfast bacon, 10c; clear side bacon, 7⅞c; dry salt sides, 7c; shoulders, 6c.

Beans—A great many beans are being raised in this state now, almost enough to supply the demand were they put in proper shape and cleaned well. Heretofore a great many beans have gone to waste or remained unsalable in hands of grower, country merchant or commission houses on account of their kinds, sizes, split beans and dirt mixed together and no way to separate them. H. P. Navy beans, $1.40@1 50; H. P. medium, $1 20@1 35; good clean, 90@$1.00; inferior, 50@75c.

Eggs—The market is improving and better prices are expected before long. Shippers should carefully candle all eggs before shipping; no use to pay express charges on rotten eggs, as commission men have to candle them again on arrival and throw out all bad ones. Eggs, fresh, candled, 9@9½c.

Butter—A little firmer and better feeling exists in this line, and choice table butter is in fair demand. Low grades still have to be sold to packers at low prices. Choice table, 13@15c; good, 10c; fair, 6@8c.

Poultry—Chickens in fair demand at quotations: Chickens, spring, per doz, 2 00@2 25; chickens, old, per doz 3 00@3 25.

DIMENSIONS AND TIMBERS.

Commencing on August 20 the prices on lumber will be increased $1 25 above the present list of prices. This raise is due to the increase of freight rates 5c per hundred. The prices even at this rate will be strong as there is a raise at most manufacturing points, caused by the prospect of a heavy trade and a comparatively small supply.
