PRIME PAPER—4@5 per cent.

GOVERNMENTS—Dull and steady.

EXCHANGE BILLS—Quiet and unchanged.

STOCKS—To-day stocks were extremely dull and altogether featureless. The apathy was increased by the uncertainty that hung over actions by the meeting of the presidents of trunk lines, who were in session. Prices were steady at the opening, and in some cases there was a slight advance. This was followed by a decline of ¼ to ½ per cent, when the lowest prices of the day were made. Closing prices are from ¼ to ⅝ per cent higher than yesterday for a number of the active list.
