OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Monday Evening, March 8.

General Markets.

EGGS—The market is very weak. Sales are being made at 10@11c.

BUTTER—No new features have been developed in the market, and values remain about steady at former quotations. Very choice country rolls sell fairly well, but the demand for the medium and poorer grades is exceedingly light. A greater portion of the receipts of medium and inferior grades is turned over to the butter packers where it is reworked and shipped to eastern markets. The city trade will take nothing except the best grade, only the very choicest grades of table butter will bring top prices. Choice rolls are quoted at 13@16c; fair to good, 8@10c; inferior, 4@6c; creamery, in 1 lb bricks, 30c. Country shippers by handling their butter with more care so that it will present a better appearance on its arrival to market, would realize better prices in many instances.

Turkeys are not very active at 8@9c; heavy turkeys weighing 18 to 20 lbs or more do not sell as well, 7c being about the average price. There are no geese coming in, and no demand. Choice ducks are quoted at 9@10c.
