The bill to bond the county to raise funds to pay for the new Court House was passed by the House of Delegates last Thursday.

The Dispatch boat Dolphin in sounding near Porto Rico found bottom after 4,662 fathoms of wire (over five miles) had been run out.

The Sea of February 1, says that on the 31st, ultimo, at Germania Hall, "Charles E. McElderry, colored, known as the St. Mary's County Bully," and Wesley Ward, colored, fought three rounds to a draw."

The fight was under the auspices of the Eureka Athletic Club.

Delegate T. Lee Mattingly has introduced the bill to authorize the marking of the boundary between St. Mary's and Charles counties.

The commissioners, named in the bill to lay off the line, are Jos. F. Morgan, Esqr., of Leonardtown, and S. Cox, of Charles county.

In the U. S. House of Representatives, the committee on Claims have agreed upon a favorable report upon Representative Gibson's bill providing for payment of supplies seized during the Civil War.

Among the items we note, $5,703 to Henry R. Walton, administrator John Walton. St. Mary's county ought to be paid for the Federal occupancy of its Court House.

The steamer Potomac left Baltimore at 5 a. m., Sunday morning last, the delay being due to time occupied in repairs to her steering gear.

On the trip down she did not touch at St. George's Island or any of the Virginia landings. She reached Leonardtown about eleven o'clock Sunday night and having landed her freight laid over at Abell's wharf until Monday.

Death of Mrs. Hammett.—Died at the residence of her niece, Mrs. William McCluskey, Brookland, D. C., on Wednesday, January 23, 1902, Mrs. Elizabeth Hammett, aged 73 years, relict of the late Alexander Hammett, of St. Inigo's, St. Mary's county, and a sister of Mr. J. R. McCarthy, of this county. Comptroller's Report.—We are indebted to Comptroller Joshua W. Hering for a copy of his report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1901.

The report shows, among other things, that the total receipts of the tobacco warehouses were $79,223.62 and the expenses were $77,521.20. The report of Enoch B. Both pumps were frozen and no water being available to extinguish the blaze the fire soon gained such headway it could not be checked and the dwelling was burned to the ground. The insurance on the dwelling and furniture was $5,000, and Mr. Lee says this amount will not cover the loss.

Kind Words.—In inclosing us two dollars to pay on his subscription our good friend, C. B. Bailey, of McKeesport, Pa., writes: "I can scarcely realize that the BRACON has visited me 104 times since I last wrote you, yet regularly and silently it has brought me each week the news of home, noting the joys and sorrows, the successes and disappointments of those I yet consider friends and neighbors."

"I suppose the floodtide of prosperity the country is enjoying is making the old home county 'blossom as the rose.' While it is true our city only recently has emerged from the throes of a general strike, yet every mill and factory are now working full time, and the wage-earners are all getting fair compensation for their services. Our merchants report the finest trade in the history of the city. We only have one complaint—smoke and dirt—but, smoke and dirt mean business, and hence we are happy. With kindest regards, I am, C. B. BAILEY.

Entertainment at Charlotte Hall. (Reported for the Beacon.) Editors of Beacon.—The inclemency of the weather of Monday, January 29th, last, deprived many persons of the chance to enjoy a most pleasant evening at the Charlotte Hall School Entertainment. Those who braved the elements were well paid, so they said, for their pains. The program consisted of a short but lively minstrel show with W. S. Jarboe, middleman, and Wm. Steffey and Morgan Anderson on the ends. The "gags" flew thick and fast and created much merriment. Percy Benson gave a good impersonation of "How Abe broke up the Meeting." The music of this part of the program was under the capable management of Miss Janie Petherbridge. Soloists, William Steffey, Charles Thomas, Charles Bounds and Charley Gantt.

Part II, "Wanted a Valet," a black-face farce, added impetus to the happy spirits set flowing by the minstrel show. The cast was as follows: McGinty, old man dissatisfied with his servant, C. A. Shreeve. Dick, his servant, T. Miller. L. Lewis, applicant, W. Smallwood. Geo. Washington Congo, applicant H. H. Hellen.

All who took part in this breezy little piece acquitted themselves with credit.

Part III, "A Rice Pudding," a witty comedy in two acts, concluded the evening's fun. This play has a good plot, simple and faithfully carried out and possesses besides some literary value. It is full of amusing situations, entirely probable, with coarseness conspicuously absent. Miss Elizabeth F. Shaw as Mrs. Richards "in grandmother's gown," by her rendition of the character, proved that histrionic talent is not to be found only on the professional stage. Her work showed careful study, graceful and faithful execution. Miss Mattie Harrison made a charming Miss Richards; so much so that there is no one of those present who would not eagerly seek an opportunity of seeing her again in that character. Miss Ellen O'Shaughnessy, the Irish cook and maid of all work, suffered no loss of dignity and ability to take care of herself in the hands of Miss Janie Petherbridge. Her impersonation of this difficult part had ample reward in the applause that greeted her efforts. Mr. J. D. Nock put on the clothes and style of Dr. Traite and transformed himself completely into that bright and entertaining young physician, Mr. Richards, whose wife is, to his great discomfort, constantly being taken for his daughter, could see himself as others see him in the impersonation given by Mr. Chesley Gantt.

Indeed, a truthfully good word could be said of each and every one who took part in this entertainment, but space will not allow us to particularize further. Dancing (for one hour) followed the performance. Mrs. M. B. Freeman, at the piano, assisted in entertaining the audience between the acts.

The mid-winter examinations at Charlotte Hall School have just concluded to the satisfaction, we hope, of both professors and students.

The papers indicate that the Board of State Aid and Charities has reported adversely upon the applications of Charlotte Hall School and St. Mary's Seminary. We cannot believe that our representatives from Southern Maryland will allow these institutions to suffer. The one, founded on the spot where the flag of civil and religious liberty was first unfurled to the world, the other, originating in the days when the colonies were fighting for those liberties. Both are by their work worthy of all the aid the State has given them or can give them.

Capt. William F. Chesley is erecting a Saw and Grist Mill just over the Spring Hill at Charlotte Hall. He says we shall hear his whistle in a few days. Yours truly, GREEN per SMOXES.

We sincerely hope the Legislature of Maryland will not inflict upon the people the iniquity of a Compulsory Education Act.

The Pigeon Shooting that was to have been given at River Springs, on February 8, has been postponed to some future date owing to the inclement weather.

Mr. Wheeler Got rid of His Rheumatism.—"During the winter of 1898 I was lame in my joints, in fact all over my body that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. Wheeler, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by Greenwell & Drury, Leonardtown, Md.

The new firm solicit the patronage of the public. A. G. BURROUGHS, Z. T. JOHNSON, LOCUST RUN. Morgansza, P. O. Jan 9, 02—m

KICK A DOG
Kick a dog and he bites you. He bites you and you kick him. The more you kick the more he bites and the more he bites the more you kick. Each makes the other worse. A thin body makes thin blood. Thin blood makes a thin body. Each makes the other worse. If there is going to be a change the help must come from outside. Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh. A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St. New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.
