Provisions Rule Fairly Active But Excessively Nervous—A Falling Off in Cattle Receipts—General Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—Field, Lindley & Co. are supposed to have sold about 2,000,000 bushels of their wheat yesterday through a new set of brokers. Trades with this firm which have been open for weeks were settled up this morning. As Field, Lindley & Co. have represented the California clique which has been cutting a great figure in wheat on the bull side the discovery this morning that open trades were settling up made the feeling very weak indeed. It is not believed the Californians sold all their wheat, and it is not believed that it could have been sold if it wanted to without a break. But of the 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 bushels which Field, Lindley & Co. held, the theory is that half was sold yesterday. Wheat was tolerably active, but unsettled and irregular. Offerings more than kept pace with the requirements and the inside figures of the day were the closings, being a shade under the latest quotations of yesterday. Consols were reported off a few points and prices crept up, but a denial of the rumor whittled off the advance. Most of the trading was of a local scalping nature. There was no war news, and it was the general impression that there was a good deal of unloading. At the close the feeling developed was one of weakness. May started at 83⅛c, and after bobbing between 83⅛@84⅛c closed at 83⅛c. February closed at 77⅞c. March sold at 77⅞@78¼c and left off at 77¾c. April closed at 78⅝c. June sold at 85⅛@85⅜c and closed at 85⅛c. Corn exhibited a moderate amount of life and possessed more independence than for some time past. Liverpool and New York were unfavorable to holders, but there was no special pressure to sell by longs. Shorts tried to force prices lower, but there appeared to be a liberal supply of scattering orders to buy at 40⅛c for May and prevented a break below that figure. The whole range for May was 40⅛@40⅞c and the close at 1 o'clock was 40⅝@40⅞c. Longer futures were quiet. June closed at 41⅜c and July at 42⅛c. Provisions were fairly active, but excessively nervous, particularly for pork, which received the most attention. Trade, however, was chiefly between several big local speculators, who bought early and sold later. One speculator is said to have dumped 50,000 barrels of May pork between $12.62½ and $12.82½. Last sales were at $12.67½@12.70. Lard was steady with moderate trade at $6.65@6.67½ and $6.67½@6.70 and closed at $6.65. Short ribs were in fair demand at $6.47½@6.52½ and closed at $6.50 for May.

2:30 p. m.—On the afternoon board wheat and mess pork were steadier and a shade better. Wheat, February, sold at 77@77¼c, March at 77⅝@77¾c, May at 83⅝@83¾c, June at 85¼c, closing at outside prices asked. Corn, February, 35½c, March 35⅝c, April 35¾@35⅞c, May 40⅛@40⅜c, June 41⅜c. Oats, February, 25⅛c, March 25⅝c, May 30@30⅛c. Mess pork, February, $12.45, March $12.50, May sold at $12.65 and closed with the highest asked. Lard, February, $6.42½@6.45, March $6.50, May $6.65 bid.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—Under a light run and a heavy falling off in numbers as compared with last week, salesmen felt justified in asking more money for their cattle, but buyers, as is usual when the run is light, held off and waited. Trade ruled rather slow until near noon, when there was a fair market and just a turn better in prices on stock that suited the shipping and dressed beef trade. Buyers claim that prices were higher, yet few salesmen were willing to admit that claim, but all agreed there was a stronger feeling, with here and there a lot that sold for a shade more money. Butchers' stock was in good demand, with fancy cows and heifers making money if bought right in the country. There is a brisk demand for stockers and feeders, with a slight upturn in prices. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.35@5.00; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.00@4.40; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.40@4.00. Stockers and feeders, $2.50@3.90; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.75@4.00; bulk, $3.15. Through Texas steers, $2.80; bulls, $2.00.

HOGS—The market opened with buyers asking an advance of 5@10c, and a few early sales were made at that advance, especially in certain divisions, while in other parts of the yards there was no up turn at any time. Later, however, there was a sharp down turn all around, with the general market closing with all the advance lost and many of the late arrivals unsold. During the boom in the morning a few fancy heavy sold at $5.00@5.15, and some fancy light at $4.80@4.95, but at the close these sorts, and in fact all others, could have been bought 5@10c lower than the above quotations. The average run of packing sorts sold within a range of $4.75@4.90, and common $4.50@4.60; Yorkers, $4.80@4.90; T. and B. sort, $4.95.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Friday, Jan. 28.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

EGGS—The receipts were fairly liberal today and the prevailing price for strictly fresh stock was 25c. Yesterday the market took a little spurt and in some instances single cases were sold as high as 27c or 28c.

POULTRY—Chickens are in fair demand, but the receipts are not heavy. The bulk of the best stock is going at 8c. There are very few turkeys in, but the demand is also light. A few have sold in a small way at 9@10c. Geese and ducks are going at 9@10.

BUTTER—The receipts are a little more liberal and the market is easier. An occasional sale of very choice or fancy butter made at 19@20c, but the choicest is selling mostly at 16@18c; fair to good, 14@15c; common, 10@15c.

CHEESE—Full cream cheddars, single, 14c; full cream flats, twins, 14c; Young Americas, 14c; fancy Swiss, 15@16c; imported Swiss, 25c; Limburger, 13c; brick, 14½@15c.

POULTRY—Poultry is not bringing quite as good prices as a week ago. The market is glutted with turkeys and there is very little sale for them at any price; 8c is about the outside for the best stock while a great deal of it is selling for 7c. Chickens are in fair demand at 8c for the choicest stock while good stock is selling as low as 7c. Geese and ducks sell at 8@9c.

GAME—The market is overstocked with small rabbits. Jack rabbits are also in liberal receipt but aside from that there is very little game coming in. Prairie chickens, quail and venison are out of season and it is contrary to the law for dealers to handle them. The law has never been very strictly enforced, and a good many dealers handle them after they are out of season: Ducks, Mallard, per doz, $1.75@2.00; ducks, Teal, $1.25@1.50; ducks, mixed, $1.25; geese, $2.50@3.00; Brants, $2.00; Jack rabbits, $3.00; small rabbits, 50@60c.

POTATOES—There are no new features in the market. The trade is limited almost entirely to the sale of small lots from the store. Choice stock from store, small lots 60@65c.

VEGETABLES—Beets, carrots, parsnips and turnips are quoted at 50c. Horse-radish roots $4.00@4.50 per bbl.

APPLES—The apple market is firm and stocks on hand are light; Choice Missouri stock per bbl, $3.75@4.00; Choice Michigan stock per bbl, $4.00.

ONIONS—Home grown stock, per bu, $1.00@1.40.

CELERY—Choice stock, per doz, 40@45c.
