

Saint Mary's Beacon COUNTY NEWS.

Localwise and Otherwise.

Spencer's wharf has been rebuilt and the Weems' steamers now make regular calls thereat.

The first night this year Capt. Joe Turner, of "Funnel Hill," put out his net, he caught 27 bunches of good size perch.

Senator Greenwell has a bill to increase the powers of the Tobacco Inspector but we do not know the features of the bill.

The many St. Mary's friends of Associate Judge George C. Merrick are pleased to see him again in Leonardtown. He is looking very well.

Delegate Mattingly informs us that he has been promised by the Fish Commissioner a liberal supply of game fish to turn out in the "Big Run."

Delegate Grason has introduced a bill to allow the taking up in Saint Mary's county of 5 acres of land for oyster planting instead of 2 as at present.

We are informed that the recent dry weather greatly improved the traveling over our county roads, but the rains will, no doubt, make them bad again.

In 1901 the first fish in the Leonardtown market were brought here by Joseph VanRyswick, March 21st. This year Theodore Latham brought in the first lot on Wednesday of last week, March 12.

Monday morning last, little Agnes, daughter of H. Barber Cawood, of Choptico, was accidentally run over by a buggy in the road near the Longwoods school. Fortunately, she was not painfully hurt.

The roof of the new Court House is said to have had leaks in several places, due to cracked slates. Jos. H. Milburn, one of our local builders, thinks the broken slates are due to contraction of the sheathing.

Communications must not reach us later than Tuesday evening. If received after that time we are obliged to hold them over for a week. The Beacon's forms are closed before the Wednesday's mail arrives.

Delegate Grason's Bill to amend the Liquor License Law of the county is intended to cure a defect in the Wilkinson bill that repealed the penalty clause and provided no penalty for failure to take out license.

The Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore Sun charges that Sydney E. Mudd is behind the almost solid Republican alignment against the Hagan Oyster Bill. It is nothing for Mudd to be charged with doing things.

Among the out-of-county visitors to Court we note: Gen. L. A. Wilmer, Adrian Posey, Esq., of La Plata; Phil H. Dorsey, P. G. Edelen, Julian Parsons, Claude B. Lloyd, J. Frank Smith, of Baltimore; H. H. Love, of Washington.

We are in receipt of a communication on "Dredging in the River" [Patuxent] to which "Oystermen of St. Mary's County" carefully omitted to sign his or their names as a guarantee of good faith. We have to know our correspondents or we do not publish their letters.

At Monday's meeting of the Trustees of the St. Mary's Female Seminary, Mrs. Lucy V. Maddox was deservedly complimented by a unanimous re-election as principal. The Board also adopted suitable resolutions upon the death of Miss Ruth Brimhall, late musical teacher at the Seminary.

We were delighted Monday last to receive a visit from an old time friend, Francis M. Neale, now of New York. Time has dealt gently with him and his sojourn in the metropolis has made no change in the pleasant, courteous ways that always characterized him as an ideal Southern Maryland gentleman.

The Potomac left Baltimore an hour behind schedule time and went to Rock Point for tobacco, reaching Leonardtown about 4 hours behind time. When the steamer reached here she is said to have already had on board over 100 hogheads of tobacco. There are not enough boats on the route to handle the freight.

Easter Play.—The children of St. Mary's Academy will render a play on Easter Monday evening. The proceeds will be applied to the erection of a much-needed addition. An interesting program has been prepared, which will be the means of presenting to parents and friends some idea of the musical talent and dramatic ability of their children. Gay songs, graceful attitudes, beautiful scenes attesting the industry and earnest efforts of the pupils, will afford pleasure and instruction to all interested in the welfare of the Academy. Dancing may be enjoyed by all the Terpsichorean devotees. Lunch, ice-cream and cake may be obtained at the usual price. Adults, 50 cts. Children, 25 cts. Doors open at 7.30 p. m. Curtain rises at 8 p. m.

Oyster Cases.—Last week Capt. Edgar Cullison, of the Local Oyster Police boat arrested Will Biscoe, Lee McKay and Will Shorter for having undersized oysters, and brought them before Justice Chas. A. Watts for trial. It was proven that the oysters had been taken from the two acre lots of the parties and the justice determined that they had a right to take the oysters from their private beds and discharged them.

Lay Meeting.—Recording Secretary R. V. Belt has issued a list of the lay delegates who are to attend the Convention of the Laymen's Association of the M. E. Church at Grace M. E. Church, Baltimore, Friday, April 4th, proximo. On the list we find the following St. Mary's representatives:

Leonardtown Circuit.—William H. Jones, S. M. Jones.
St. Mary's.—John W. Jones, J. S. B. Sherman, J. T. Morris.

Continental Currency.—Tuesday last Justice George B. Dent brought us an "Eight Dollar Bill—Continental Money—that had been found in the closet of "Carthage House" now occupied by John B. Coppage, son of Judge William S. Coppage. This dwelling was built in 1771 and the note bears date of 1777. It is a little larger than an old fashioned ten cent note. Eight Dollars is printed on it in several places and on the front appears: "This Bill entitles the Bearer to receive EIGHT Spanish Milled Dollars, or the value thereof in Gold or Silver according to a Resolution of CONGRESS passed at Baltimore, Feb. 26, 1777. S. S. Coale R. Johnson.

On the same side is a printed seal with a harp circumscribed by the motto, MAJORA MINORIBUS. CONSONANT. On the back of the note is an undistinguishable picture and "Printed by Hall & Sellers 1777."

Mr. R. H. Garner, who has recently returned from a trip to Washington, is quite sick. We hope he will soon be around.
Mrs. C. A. Burch, of Milestown, has been called to Baltimore to see her mother, who is very ill.
We sincerely regret that Miss de Sarsure will soon leave the neighborhood.
Miss Helen M. Burch, who has been spending some time in Washington and Baltimore, has returned home.
The play "Who's Who," which will take place Wednesday, second proximo, promises to be a decided success.
Miss A. R. Burch, of River View, sprained her ankle quite badly some days since. It is the earnest wish of all her friends that she will soon recover.
The marriage of Mr. L. Claude Burch to Miss Jenkins, of Washington, which was to have taken place next month has been indefinitely postponed. "Y. K. W."

Rev. Father Caffoll.—There will be a High Mass on Easter Sunday at St. Ignatius' Church at 10.30 a. m. It will be celebrated by the Rev. B. Carroll, S. J. of the Rocky Mt. Missions. Fr. Carroll revisits his native county for the first time since he left home years ago to devote himself to the salvation of the Indians. The occasion of his visit will be made a gala day by his relatives and numerous friends. He has promised to speak of his work at St. Ignatius' Mission, Montana, the place spoken of by Senator Vest in the U. S. Senate as the only place in this country where real and lasting work for the Indians was being done.

A collection will be taken up at the close of the service for the mission which has been badly crippled since the refusal of the Government to co-operate. It is hoped that Fr. Carroll's appeal will meet with a generous response.
There will be a High Mass on Easter Sunday at St. George's Island and at Factory where services will be held also on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday at 8 a. m. It is hoped that Fr. Carroll will reach the county in time to hold services at St. Nicholas' on Holy Thursday, in which case the big bell will be rung. Services at St. Michael's on Holy Thursday at 8 a. m. and on Good Friday at 3.30 p. m.

Spring Millinery and Dress Goods.—For spring millinery, dress goods, lace, silks, trimmings, shoes, jewelry, men's and boys' shirts, neckwear, collars, &c., see L. A. Jones & Son.

By the display of New Goods and hustle you would know that A. A. Lawrence had just returned from Baltimore with a fine stock. He has bought low and will give bargains.

Circuit Court.—The March Term of the St. Mary's Circuit Court met Monday last at 10 a. m., Associate Judge J. Parran Crane on the bench. Henry C. Adams, Esq., was selected as Foreman of the Grand Jury and the panel was completed by drawing the following names: John W. Jones, Robert A. Clarke, E. L. Burroughs, Lea. T. Graves, Joseph V. Richardson, John S. Guyther, E. B. Harrison, J. S. Alvey, J. L. Peacock, J. Frank Goldsborough, D. C. Hodges, John E. Reintzell, Justus Ryder, Thomas F. Foxwell, J. Clem Cawood, Zach M. Fowler, James T. King, P. A. Gatten, Richard T. Medley, T. E. Loker.

Dennis Smith and J. Sam'l Spalding being the first two names on the Petit Jury list were added to the Grand Jury in lieu of Jerry Wrightson and J. W. Henderson who failed to answer. Judge Crane charged the Grand Jury explaining the duties and dignity of Grand Jurors and congratulating the jury and the county upon the few violations of law it would be called upon to investigate, stating that it would have no heinous crimes to consider and that there was not and had not been for some time past a criminal in our county jail.

Tuesday, Court met—Judges Merrick and Crane on the bench. First case of interest was No. 5, Criminal Continuance, State vs. B. B. Love, charged with keeping a gaming table. Tried by Jury. Verdict, guilty. Motion for new trial. In the afternoon, No. 7, Criminal Continuance, State vs. B. B. Love, charged with selling whiskey to minors, was tried before the Court. Judgment, guilty.
Court adjourned for the day.

The Y. M. C. Association of the school held its public meeting which was well attended. The meeting was presided over by Mr. V. C. Trice, who opened the meeting by a prayer. Other speakers of the evening were Major C. G. Jarboe, Messrs. W. T. Jarboe and Chesley Gantt. Mr. Trice chose as his subject "The Greatest Discovery in The World" Major C. G. Jarboe spoke mainly on the uses of Y. M. C. A., organizations in this county. Mr. W. T. Jarboe took the subject, "Individual Responsibilities." It was very ably discussed. Mr. Gantt (the president) who took the subject "Temptation as his text, greatly surprised the audience by his manner in which he delivered his address. It really charmed the audience. Mr. Gantt who is the son of the Rev. Mr. Gantt of the Eastern shore, is a freshman. As soon as he came he showed his ability in handling religious services, and in less than a month was elected the president of the Y. M. C. A. He is highly respected among the cadets. He is a cousin to our honored principal Major G. M. Thomas.

The cadets of the school as well as the faculty are sorry to hear that cadet Lieutenant J. C. B. White of Co. B. is not going to return after Easter. His absence will greatly be felt by the military department especially by Co. B. of which he is a member. In going he has our best wishes for a future of success.

Every afternoon the boys are seen on the campus playing ball, and each doing his level best to get on the first nine. At a meeting of the Athletic Association last week, Prof. J. F. Fenwick was elected coach of the 1902 baseball team and Prof. J. F. Coad, manager.

When the train leaves Charlotte Hall next Friday the 22nd it will be crowded with the cadets each bound for his respective home.

Dies On Visit To Baltimore.
Miss Ruth L. Brimhall, of Minneapolis, Minn., a teacher of music at St. Mary's Seminary, near Bromes' wharf, in St. Mary's county, died suddenly at 5.15 o'clock Sunday morning at 605 North Calhoun street, the home of Officer William S. Neenan, where she had been visiting for the past week.

She had been seriously ill only since Friday, though she was in delicate health when she came to the city Saturday one week ago. Dr. Julia V. Downes, who resides in the house, prescribed for the young lady, but she continued to grow worse until Sunday night, when her condition became alarming. Dr. Wm. Dulany Thomas, Dr. Charles L. Runsey and Dr. Cora Belle Brewster were summoned, but were unable to save the patient's life.

Miss Delma Leonora Newman, a daughter of Officer Newman, is a teacher of elocution at St. Mary's Seminary, and when, about two weeks ago, Miss Brimhall expressed a desire to go to Baltimore for the twofold purpose of consulting a physician as to her health and seeing the production of "Ben Hur" at the Academy of Music Miss Newman volunteered to secure accommodations with her parents during her stay here.

Miss Brimhall arrived in Baltimore last Monday night and went with members of the Newman household to see "Ben Hur." She complained of not feeling well and when she spoke of returning to the seminary by the boat which left Baltimore Tuesday afternoon her hosts persuaded to spend the remainder of the week with them. On Friday she became seriously ill of stomach trouble.

Dr. L. D. Brimhall, a brother of the dead teacher, wired yesterday that he would come to Baltimore for the body. Miss Newman is yet in ignorance of the death of her friend, but her father sent her a letter last night conveying the sad intelligence.

St. Inigo's Items. (Correspondence of the Beacon.)
The word appearance, carries with it the suggestion of unreality. It is the duty of a correspondent to communicate facts—real occurrences. Although we have not attained to the power of remembering with surprising search and accuracy we seldom forget the gist of what is communicated to us, and we bear in mind the teaching of the Golden Rule and essay to clothe what we pen with the robe of unselfish charity. How pleased we are to learn that teachers try to know themselves. To know how to rule ones self is to know ourself, and is not this wisdom?
The expectations of farmers relative to the weather have been realized. The sun and wind have dried the ground sufficiently to enable them to prepare their tobacco beds and do needed work such as repairing fences, &c.
The unvarying laws of nature are seen in the gradual development of a few of Flora's beauties. Look! why the buds of fruit trees are beginning to swell, and before many weeks daffodils and the Guelder Rose (snowball) will greet us with their welcome presence.
Rumor has it that immediately after Lent several marriages will take place, and we trust that the wives may never merit the exclamation of "How shiftless!" from Aunt Priscilla.

Merchants do a fairly good business, and they sell a considerable quantity of miscellaneous merchandise for cash or its equivalent.
Fish, such as herring, are plentiful, and we are thankful that our antipathy is not so great as was that of Erasmus who became feverish when he saw a fish.
What a noise! The high-pressure engines used hereabout by millers are heard more or less during the day and infrequently until 10 p. m., then they are like the letter "h" in rheumatism.
Some gardening has been done despite the moist weather.
Doctors find work to do. We ask, who of our friends may say, "I have health;" not one, we venture to reply. It may therefore correctly be said that life is a negative rather than a positive quality of existence?
Wheat is beginning to assume an emerald hue. Some rye is seen and it is growing well.
We believe with Autony Arnauld that the soul is not passive in perception, but active. It is endowed directly by the Creator with the power to perceive. The land was covered with snow for some weeks and the crops named are benefited. As a sentient rational creature we perceive the improvement in growth, and we join with our friends in returning thanks to Him who is the source of all blessings.
We notice that Mr. Thomas Fenwick has shipped his tobacco and Mr. Stephen Bean has done the first ploughing.

The season is rapidly nearing when persons will don their bicycling attire for outing. The late lamented Joseph Allston, if our memory be not at fault, introduced the bicycle to the citizens of St. Mary's and his feats in riding surprised and delighted his many friends.
Drummers occasionally pass this way and they betray anxiety to sell groceries, medicines, boots, shoes and, well, many nice things galore.
No peddlers are seen with their heterogeneous articles.
Dress makers are kept busy engaged cutting and basting, and Milliners never tire of trimming hats with (artificial) marguerites, mari-golds and feathers of variegated colors.
There was Mass at St. Michael's Church 16th instant, and Rev. Father Tynan did not fail to impress his hearers with the miserable condition of souls who fail to escape the second death. How Satan mutters and trembles in the deep dark dungeon of the pandemonium whenever good men speak. The road to hell has not been closed, and souls continue to be captivated by the clat of carnality.
We observe that the condition of roads is improving, but we fail to see traces nearly parallel to the same.
AZANA.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.—New stock. Fine quality. Low prices.

The Spring Season is coming in Leonardtown, and so is the low prices at Milliner's Store. I will sell my line of shoes and clothing at cost until the last of March, so now is your chance to get good bargains. Come and see for yourself. Winter goods at 20 per cent. below cost. Winter hats 50c. off of each dollar.

Repairing Neatly Done

Never thought of such a sign for a medicine did you? Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body has to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it.

These poor bodies wear out from worry, from over-work, from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and all of the old ones are racked from long usage.

Scott's Emulsion fixes all kinds. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft bones hard, thin blood red, weak lungs strong, hollow places full. Only the best materials are used in the patching and the patches don't show through the new glow of health.

No one has to wait his turn. You can do it yourself—and the bottle.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample.
