S. P. Round's Funeral.

The death of the late S. P. Rounds, president of the Omaha Republican company, ha attracted attention throughout the country and especially in this city where, although but among those who have recently arrived to aid in building up the city, was yet well and favorably known by our people. Yesterday a number of telegrams of regret and condolence from all parts of the country were received by the family, among them being one from Mr. Farquhar, chairman of the congressional house committee on printing, a man who, thirty years ago worked at the typographical, business for Mr. Rounds.

Yesterday afternoon, the Omaha Typographical union met, took action regarding the death of Mr. Rounds, and delegated a committee to attend the funeral.

In the evening there was a meeting of the Omaha Veteran Firemen's association at Chief Galligan's office to take steps to pay respect to the meemory of Mr. Rounds, who was one of the earliest volunteer firemen of Chicago as also a member of the National Firemen's association.

The funeral will take place to-day from the residence No. 2411 Farnam street. It will be partially under Masonic auspices. The services will commence at 1:30. The honorary pall bearers will be as follows:

Cadet Taylor, St., A. D. Balcombe, Mayor Broatch, W. F. Bechel, Thomas Swobe, John A. Creighton, Guy C. Barton, Judge Gustave A. Anderson, Alfred Sorenson, W. P. Coe, Joseph Teahon, E. L. Merritt, F. R. Morrrsey, ex-Mayor Boyd, John M. Thurston, C. V. Gallagher, C. S. Chase, J. H. Millard, Chief Galligan, Frank E. Mores, Benjamin H. Barrows.

The remains will be borne to Chicago, where they will be interred in Rose Hill cemetery. They will be met at the depot in the latter place by a delegation of the Garfield commandery K. T. of Washington. It has not been determined whether the funeral at Chicago will be held at the residence of Mrs. Kane, the sister of Mrs. Rounds, 40 South May street, or at the Masonic asylum. All of Mr. Rounds' children, five in number except Mrs. Charles H. Smith, of Denver, will be in attendance.

At a meeting held by the Pressmen's, Stereotypers' and Electrotypers' union, No. 82, the following resolutions of respect to the memory of the late S. P. Rounds were adopted:

Resolved, That this union, by its unanimous voice, adopted the following resolutions of respect to the memory of the late S. P. Rounds, and tender to the family its sympathy and condolence in this its hour of affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this union and published in the daily papers of this city, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family of the deceased; and

Resolved, That this union attend the funeral in a body.

There will be a special meeting of Typographical union, No. 190, on Tuesday, December 20, at 12:45, sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral services of the Hon. S. P. Rounds, an old and respected member. All are requested to attend. J. R. Lewis, Chairman.

The pressman and stereotypers will meet at the same place.

BENCH AND BAR.

The United States Court.

THE IRISH DARKEY REVIVED.

Henry Estabrook, attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Ward vs. Cochran, for the possession of twenty acres of land in the vicinity of the fort, and which was decided some two weeks since in favor of Cochran, has filed a motion for a new trial, and for a judgment in spite of the verdict. This is the case that excited so much interest on a count of the humorous testimony of Tim Flannigan, the eccentric darkey, who for twenty years has resided upon the disputed territory.

A LONG WINDED CASE.

And still the famous West Point Butter and Cheese case continues to exist. Alphonzo W. Blye, receiver of the Middleton National bank of New York, informed the court that he would leave in the morning for Syracuse, N. Y., his home for the holidays, and in consequence he asked that this case not be brought up until his return. Mr. Blye has been waiting for the butter and cheese company to file a motion to take the case before the supreme court of the United States.

A KNOTTY LEGAL QUESTION.

Judge Dundy is engaged in hearing an application for a bench warrant for the removal of Luther Owens and A. G. Holly from this state to Iowa, for refusing to obey a summons issued by the United States court of that state. The application involves an important legal question, upon which there has been much controversy, and which is of exceeding interest to the whole legal fraternity. That is, whether the United States commissioners of one district are vested with the power to subpoena witnesses from another district. Some eminent jurists hold that the United States commissioners of any district can order a writ or process to cause the attendance of a witness from any other district, while others claim their jurisdiction in this particular matter is circumscribed.

JUMPED A $5,000 BAIL BOND.

Deputy United States Marshal Allen left for Denver last night with E. S. Moss in custody. Moss, it will be remembered, was arrested at Papillion on Saturday last by Marshal Allen on a telegram from Denver, asking that he be apprehended. It has since developed that he is wanted for jumping a $5,000 bail bond at Denver. He was implicated in some culpable land transaction in Los Angeles, Cal., ran away from there, was arrested in Denver and released on bail. Then, as peviously stated, he came to Omaha, where he made arrangements to leave for New York. He went to Papillion on some business of his own, was followed there by Marshal Allen and arrested.

SOLD WHISKY TO INDIANS.

Deputy United States Marshal Hepfinger came in from Rulo, Neb., yesterday with two prisoners in his charge. These were William Penney and Frank Abbott, and they were charged with having sold liquor to the Indians. They were arraigned and Penney pleading not guilty, was remanded to jail until next term in default of $500 bail. Abbott acknowledged the offense and was fined $1 and costs and sentenced to five days in jail.

District Court.

The arguments on a motion for a new trial in the case of William Morse, convicted of robbery, was overruled yesterday and the prisoner was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary by Judge Groff.

Judge Wakeley issued an order yesterday afternoon asking David Van Etten to show cause why he should not be disbarred from the practice of law in Douglas county.

Joseph Hipter filed a suit against Louis Cameneind yesterday and prays that the partnership existing between them be dissolved. Amongst other charges made by the plaintiff is the one that the defendant is a chronic drunkard, and when in this state insults the customers of the restaurant, thereby causing loss to the plaintiff.

John A. Creighton et al vs Victor Peterson. This suit is brought to obtain a restraining order that the defendant shall no longer till a certain parcel of land belonging to plaintiffs.

County Court.

THE KITCHEN BROTHERS SUED.

The greater part of yesterday was occupied by Judge McCulloch in taking testimony in the suit brought by Decorator Costa against the Kitchen Bros., of the Paxton- for paper hanging and decorating done in the hotel.

A FORCIBLE ENTRY CASE.

The matter of Edward L. Edson vs. J. L. Dugro, charged with forcible entry, was decided in a verdict of not guilty.

A JUDGMENT GRANTED.

Funk & Wagnalls were given a judgment in the sum of $123.53 against W. P. O'Neil.

JUDGMENT FOR THE DEFENDANT.

J. B. Reeve's suit against C. H. Walworth was disposed of by settling the costs on the plaintiff.

Police Court.

There were fifty-four cases before Judge Berka yesterday morning.

Tim Hickey, Felix McFarland, Frank Riley, Max Gretz, John Murray, Pat Kearney, H. L. Alpine, Belle Smith, Frank Flaerty, Jim Nelson, drunk and disorderly, from ten to two days in jail. John Elliott, abusing family, twelve days. George Pepper, fast driving $5 and costs. W. F. McGovern, fighting, $5 and costs.

Warren Arnold, the little thirteen-year-old boy arrested for shoplifting, at the dry goods store of S. P. Morse, was before Judge Berka, yesterday, and discharged. The article that he inadvertently picked up from the toy counter was valued at but six cents, and the judge was quickly convinced that there wasn't the slightest criminal intent about the boy's action.

Oliver Strom, for an attempt to take a prisoner away from Officer Bloom, was fined $25 and costs.

A Sweeping Deft.

The following challenge, which is sweeping and unmistakable in its import, will appear in next Saturday's Chronicle:

OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 19, 1887.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

Dear Sir—I accept Mr. Parmalee's challenge, excepting that I will make the match at 100 birds, instead of 50, as no records are ever taken from less than 100 birds. As he has not stated the date, I will name it, and give him forty-eight hours' notice.

Mr. Parmalee says I do my shooting with my mouth. He is certainly the one that has been doing the mouth work, when you consider that while talking with some of my friends last Tuesday night, in John King's place, Mr. John Thompson put up $100 as a forfeit for a match between Mr. P. and myself for from $500 to $1,000 a side, and Mr. P. was made to quit short. Now he even has the gall to go to the Chronicle headquarters and publish a very uncalled-for and ungentlemanly challenge, without putting up a cent. Everyone who knows anything about sporting matters knows very well that a challenge without some money in sight is no challenge at all. However, I have accepted it, and have placed $25 forfeit in the hands of the Chronicle management. Now as Mr. P. seems desirous of embarking in the match shooting business, and has made his brags that he will raise the devil with the whole Penrose & Hardin outfit, and has acted as ungentlemanly as possible, I hereby challenge him to shoot five matches with the members of the Penrose & Hardin team. One match at 100 live birds thirty yards rise, use of one barrel. One match at 100 American clay birds eighteen yards rise, national rules. One match at fifty singles and twenty-five pair blue rocks, eighteen and sixteen yards respectively. One match at 100 live birds, thirty yards, national rules. As is well known, I openly announced some time ago that I would shoot in matches, but as members of the other gun house seem to take advantage of this fact, I will declare my former announcement off, and throw our Penrose & Hardin team open and ready to shoot any kind of matches. We hereby challenge any team of four of any one organization in the world for any reasonable amount. We also challenge any man in the world to shoot an all round mixed match with shot gun and rifle. As there has been so much talk about the only and invincible Walter Canier, who was going to perform such wonders with the rifle, we hereby challenge him to shoot a match, 200 yards, strictly off-hand. We will shoot all these matches for $100 a side, as that sum seems to be Mr. P.'s favorite amount. Mr. P. says in his challenge that he, with a majority of the sportsmen, is anxious to see what I can do when pushed, Mr. P., with a majority of the sportsmen, as he erms it, thrown in, can get any kind of shooting game they want with me as soon as they are ready to come up face to face and put up their stuff, from a twenty-two eplibre rifle to a cannon.

H. A. PENROSE.

A BURGLARY.

William Willard is Arrrested and Bound Over.

The saloon of Henry Feight, at 109 Farnam street, was burglarized at an early hour yesterday morning. The thief gained ingress through the cellar window, and went up he stairway into the saloon and restaurant. Among the articles carried off was one silver coffee urn, valued at $75; hot water urn, $35; spoons, knives and forks, $16; cigars, $12; liquors, $15. Circumstances caused the proprietor to suspect on eWilliam Willard, and he was arrested yesterday by Sergeant Moysten and lodged in the central station. When arraigned he waived examination, and was remanded to jail in default of a bond of $1,200.

THE CHIEF WILL INVESTIGATE.

Willie McDowell Alleged to Have Been Kidnapped from Kansas City.

On Saturday last Chief of Police Seavey received a letter from a Mrs. Joseph McDowell of Kansas City informing him that her little son, Willie, was kidnapped over a year ago, and that she had received information that the child was with a Mrs. Minnie O'Hearne in this city. The chief at once investigated the case. He found the residence of Mrs. Minnie O'Hearne, alias Slattery, at the corner of Twelfth street and Capitol avenue, and also the boy, who is about six years of age. Inquiry of Mrs. Slattery developed that the urchin was in her keeping by the request of his parents, and that there was nothing like abduction in the affair. The boy was somewhat confused and contradictory in his answers to interrogations by the chief, and deported himself generally as if he were in mortal fear of some one. Mrs. Slattery stoutly disclaims any dishonest motives and invites the fullest investigation.

More Trouble for Van Etten.

Attorney David Van Etten, whom a committee of lawyers have recommended for dismissal from the bar, now gains still more notoriety on the charge of embezzling money belonging to Henry Butts. Butts had failed in business, and all the property he had left above what the law allowed him was worth $170. This was turned over to the charge of Van Etten, as assignee, who appropriated all of it to his own and sued for $30 more, on the ground that his fee for handling the $170 was $200. Butts was not as easily gulled as Van Etten seemed to think he was, and he entered complaint against the swindler. Van Etten was arrested and given a lengthy hearing before Judge Berka yesterday, and there being overwhelming evidence of his guilt he was bound over in the sum of $1,000 to appear before the district court.

Inasmuch as the Stockyards company have done so much to attract the cattle trade to Omaha, they might do one thing more, and furnish the estimated receipts for each day. It would be appreciated by both buyers and sellers, and could easily be done with the assistance of the railroad companies.

The frauds unearthed at East Liberty were the subject of much gossip yesterday, and more than one shipper understood for the first time how he lost money in former days. It seems that it was customary to change cattle left in the pens over night for animals of a much poorer grade, and while the shipper would be supplied with the number of head he had left, the animals would not be the same. The thieves are said to have cleared many thousands of dollars by the scheme.

The Wire Ropes to be Stretched To-day—New Cars Received.

It was a busy day with the Omaha Cable Tramway company yesterday, inasmuch as several fine cars have arrived and the great coils of cable have been unloaded.

The new cars which have reached Omaha from the factory in New York are six in number. Four of them are close carriages, while two of them are designed for use in summer. They are models of elegance. It is a fact that their equals have never been seen west of New York. Not only this they are very large and will comfortably seat thirty people. Each car has a stove.

The cable will be stretched through the tube to-day. Mr. Tucker, superintendent, states that at least eight teams will be required to do the work. The cars will be running by the first of next week.

From the Frying Pan Into the Fire.

Officer Cullen tackled two colored crooks, Ben Mitchell and Harry McGovern, in the alley between Farnam and Douglas streets and had a lively experience with them. The officer thought he had them all right when suddenly they broke away from him and dashed up the alley. Cullen started after them. After repeatedly calling them to halt, he pulled his revolver and shot three times at them. This did not bring them to a stop, however, and they would have escaped had they not run into Officer Bloom's arms as they were emerging from the alley into Tenth street.
