Saint Inigo's Items.

The cultivation of flowers appear to be a special gift of some ladies. A few have the space to observe the laws of harmonious contrast while others are content with unity and simplicity. All enjoy roses and pinks in their fairy beauty and odorous voluptuousness.

The entertainment which came off recently at the Villa for the benefit of the R. C. Churches, was a success pecuniarily, and as a few of the young men of the district periodically essay to keep alive at least one of the objects of Chivalry—a devoted attachment and inviolable fidelity to the female sex—we give the names of those who wreathed themselves with the laurels of victory: Oden B. Smith crowned Miss Mary Queen, of Charles county, Queen of Love and Beauty; Nonie Unkle crowned Miss Emma Wood, Ridge post office, first maid; Clarence Raley crowned Miss Lila Richardson, of St. Jerome's Neck, second maid; and Cleveland Raley crowned Miss Mable Tyler, of St. Inigo's, third maid. The rules of the tournament were strictly observed and the riding of the knights was commendable.

Mrs. Gertrude Kreuger and children, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dameron, Trappe.

Merchants seemingly do a brisk business. Mrs. A. S. Benville's millinery department is a great attraction for the ladies. Her sales frequently exceed her most sanguine expectations.

Melons are plentiful and they are tolerably cheap withal.

Mr. Carney, an actor in comedy, and Mr. and Mrs. Williams and children, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jarboe.

Anglers succeed fairly well, and trout the principal fish caught are large.

Hard crabs cooked and brought to purchasers command 10 cents a dozen.

No deaths have occurred in consequence of diphtheria. The excellent sanitary condition no doubt of homes have put a check to the spread of the disease.

Mr. G. W. Drury, constable, reports the prospect for large yields of corn throughout the district in glowing words. Tobacco is promising, i. e., no complaints are heard.

Mr. Charles Grason and family, of Grason's wharf, passed through Tall Pine recently. He is a lover of fine horses—and who is not?—and his bays are good travelers, their carriage reminding us of the beautiful animals which have much Arabian and Barb blood in them.

Hornets! Be sure whenever you have occasion to strike at them do not miss. Grated potatoes and sweet oil are the best applications to ease the pain and arrest the swelling of the stings of these insects in difficult painful wounds.

Our nearby postmasters Raymond Burch, John S. Jarboe, J. Forrest Freeman and John Forestell, Esqrs., are punctual in the discharge of their responsible duty.

Oh, look, what a beautiful creature! There it is hovering over a flower capturing the minute insects in it and sipping the nectarous juices. How we should like to have one of these birds of brilliant plumage ornamented with crests and tufts, but it would be a fruitless attempt to domesticate it.

Timely and copious rains, gentle not dashing ones.

There was preaching at Friendship M. E. Church 10th instant. After the sermon the minister introduced Mrs. Martin, of Washington, D. C., who gave a brief lecture on the evils of intemperance. She emphasized the fact that the cure for intemperance must begin at the heart. If the heart be changed, all is changed. The new man is a new creature—pure, true, kind and gentle. Mrs. Martin will lecture upon the important subject Thursday 14th instant. All cordially invited. The church is spacious and there are no reserved seats.

Major Wright and wife are stopping at Miller's wharf summer resort.

Morgan, was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury on charge of "carnally knowing and abusing Ethel M. Jarboe, a female child under the age of fourteen years." After Hammett was brought to jail the authorities were informed that an attempt would be made to take him out and lynch him, and Friday night Deputy Sheriff Mattingly and Lewis Vielt, took the prisoner to Cox's Station, Charles county, and from thence to Baltimore and lodged him in the City Jail for safe keeping. The authorities should be much commended for their prompt action.

George Harris is in jail on warrant of Justice Carpenter on charge of being a vagrant. Constable Long brought the prisoner to Leonardtown.

Tournament and Dinner.

The tournament and church dinner at Newtown on Monday, August 11th, were successful in spite of the severe storm which passed over the Neck in the late afternoon. Nine knights rode in tournament as follows: 1. Bernard Guy, Knight of St. Clement's Bay. 2. Oswald Payne, Star Spangled Banner. 3. Henry Bailey, Cattle Boy. 4. Gibson Russell, Sacred Heart. 5. Harry Redmond, Oakley. 6. Gussie Bailey, Morganza. 7. Earnest Johnson, St. Joseph's. 8. Hollaud Herbert, Would if I Could. 9. Joe Davis, Curtis Bay. Bernard Guy won the first prize and crowned Miss Noema Hayden as Queen of Love and Beauty. Oswald Payne won the second prize and crowned Miss Elsie Hammett. Henry Bailey—riding for Edgar Russell—won the third prize and crown. Gibson Russell won the fourth prize and crowned Miss Ethel Martin.

The Rev. C. S. Lancaster delivered a very eloquent charge to the knights and the Hon. T. Lee Mattingly kindly consented to give the beautiful coronation address in place of Derby A. Lynch, Esq. The gross receipts amounted to $238.25. The expenses will be in the neighborhood of $75. The thanks of the congregation are extended to the gentlemen of the committee and to the ladies who worked so zealously for the success of the festival.

Tournament at St. John's.—The tournament and dinner at St. John's on Wednesday, August 6th, was a great success. The address to the knights was given by Mr. A. D. de Barrill, of Drum Point, Calvert county. The coronation address was given by Rev. Wm. J. Richley in his own inimitable style. Nine knights entered the contest. Claude Thompson, knight of Silver Shower, crowned Miss Addie Wible, Queen. Stanley Johnson, knight of St. Joseph's, crowned Miss—Martin 1st Maid. Edgar Russell, knight of Cattle Boy, crowned Miss M. Hobb 2nd Maid. Claude Thompson, besides the other honors, won the gold medal as champion knight of St. Mary's county. The Pastor's thanks are extended to the managers of the festival as well as to the members of the Ladies' Guild who worked so nobly. The gross receipts were $325, and the expenses about $85.

St. Joseph's.—The great mission at St. Joseph's, given by Fathers Semple, Pittar and Cryan, closed with solemn ceremonies on Sunday last, August 10th. The sermon on "Perseverance" was given by Father Pittar; the renewal of Baptismal Vows and the Papal Blessing by Father Semple. On account of illness Father Cryan was unable to take part in the closing exercises. During the mission 1300 persons received the Sacrament of Penance—1200 went to Holy Communion. The deepest gratitude on the part of Pastor and people are due to the missionary Fathers who have conferred such a great favor upon St. Joseph's congregation. Sincere thanks are hereby offered to the ladies and gentlemen who extended genuine Southern Maryland hospitality to the good Fathers during their stay with us.

Sad Deaths.—Aubrey Richards died at the residence of his father in Leonardtown Friday, August 8th. He was a bright and interesting child aged about 2 years and 6 months. On Sunday morning, Myrtle Hayden died. She was a daughter of Jerome Hayden of Washington and with her mother was on a visit to the families of Mrs. Gladys Dillow and Mr. Charles E. Richards; She was about 13 years old and the pride of her parents.

The other members of the stricken family are, we are informed, doing well and will, we hope, soon be completely restored to health.

Fathers Pittar and Cryan, who conducted so successfully the missions at St. Joseph and Sacred Heart Churches, spent Monday at the Villa and promised to return to Washington to begin a mission at St. Nicholas, after which a mission will be given at St. George's, Valley Lee; at St. Michael's, Ridge, and at the Villa from Aug. 30th to Sept. 3. The Delinquent for September.—The first instalment of Mrs. Barr's new love story, Thyra Varrick, appears in the "Delinquent" for September, and judging from this first chapter it will hold the reader's attention to the end by its fine characterization, beauty of thought and animation and spirited action. It is superbly illustrated. The second section of the House that Jack and Jill Built tells about the old-fashioned garden and how it was made, and the pictures are delightful. An interesting paper on Julia Ward Howe lovingly called the grand old woman of America, also appears in this number. There are two spirited short stories by well known writers, innumerable articles on fancy work and domestic interests; stories and pastimes for children, window gardening, home entertainment, etc.
