THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $7,908.74.

City Detectives Mike Dempsey and Tom Ormsby are doing most meritorious work in ridding the city of its superfluity of crooks and bums. These two brave officers seem to possess the powers of ubiquity, and they are accomplishing as much as any half dozen men on the force.

Mr. G. Pantaleoni, manager of the Westinghouse Electric Light company of Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city and is endeavoring to perfect arrangements for putting in an electric light plant at a cost of half a million of dollars. Local capitalists will be asked to assist in carrying out the scheme, so it is understood. If the project is successful an effort will be made to include South Omaha in the system. Mr. Pantaleoni is at present stopping at the Paxton.

Buried By His Friends.

All that remains mortal of Arthur Miles, the unfortunate young man who closed his eyes in death at the poor farm, are now lying at the undertaking establishment of Burket. Yesterday the body was moved from the farm by Mr. Burket, and reposes in a handsome casket secured by humane and considerate friends of the deceased. The obsequies will take place to-day.

Boston's Vicious Dog.

Boston Yumsum has been tarrying in the county jail for the last few days serving out a sentence for disorderly conduct. It now transpires that Boston is not the only disorderly part of his household, for a neighbor alleges that he keeps a disorderly and vicious dog about the premises, contrary to law and public safety. Consequently, a warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Yumsum, and as soon as his present term of servitude expires it will be served upon him.

A Jap With the Measles.

The various nationalities whose misfortune it is to have to depend on the charity of the country, and through force of circumstances are compelled to take up their abode at the poor farm, have been re-inforced by the presence of a Jap. This particular gentleman is laboring under a severe attack of the measles, and became a charge on the county by being sent adrift by a cheap circus company with which he was traveling. The patient is doing well under the treatment he is receiving.

Junior Sons of Veterans.

Twenty-two bright little boys, sons of old soldiers, met last Saturday afternoon at the Grand Army hall, 1316 Douglas street, to be drilled for the purpose of acting as a "guard-honor" to the Liberty car on Memorial Day. E. R. Satters, drum major of the Second infantry, an old soldier having served for twenty-eight years in the United States army, conducted the exercises and expressed himself as highly pleased with the drilling of the boys. The next drill will be at 1 o'clock on Saturday next. The parents of these young soldiers are earnestly requested to excuse their boys from school on Tuesday, May 29, for the purpose of attending a "dance drill."

Schmoock Burgled.

The room of August Schmoock, 2011 Burt street, was entered by thieves Wednesday night and considerable property carried off. Among the missing valuables Schmoock reports a silver watch and chain, one sack coat, one Prince Albert coat and vest, a pair of pants, and lesser articles. Yesterday the Prince Albert coat was found by Mr. W. H. Cramer on his front porch and turned in at the police station. Schmoock says he is certain the robbery was committed by a boy about eighteen years of age, whom he has seen on divers occasions about the place, and who has on a drab check suit.

AN INFANT PRISONER.

Locked Up in Jail With Her Foster Mother.

A middle-aged woman, comfortably clad, and dragging after her a girl hardly two years of age, was escorted to the county jail yesterday afternoon by Deputy United States Marshal Showalter, and with her infant charge was locked up in a cell. The name of the woman is Mrs. Dennis Lipps, and she is familiar to a large number of Omaha people. Her husband at one time was employed at Metz' brewery, but the couple have lived apart for a number of years. Of late years Mrs. Lipps has been living in Fremont, and it was from that place that she was brought yesterday. The United States grand jury has found an indictment against her for selling liquor without a license, and the authorities claim to have a good case against her. Mrs. Lipps denies the charge, and yesterday expressed indignation over the child being locked in a cell with her. She says she adopted the girl some time ago.

"DICK DEADEYE."

A Notorious All-Round Thief in Limbo.

George Howard, alias George Wilson, alias "Dick Deadeye," a notorious thug and thief, and a pal of the infamous Doug McGuire, was arrested Wednesday night at the corner of Sixteenth and Nicholas streets, by Sergeant Mostyn. He was gathered in on suspicion. Howard is well known here, as he has been sent to jail a dozen times or more, and a few years since was sent to the pen for a big silk robbery here. He is now wanted at Lincoln for grand larceny, and will be held until the authorities there can be heard from. His old side partner, Doug McGuire, is at present serving a term for highway robbery at Des Moines. "Deadeye" is a very smooth looking individual; small in stature, with a head of closely cropped red hair, pleasant, intelligent features, marred, however, by the loss of his left eye."

"You are wanted at Lincoln?" asked the court.

"At Lincoln, if that was the only place I was wanted I'd be happy," and he smiled in a knowing way.

He was remanded to his cell to await the action of the authorities at the capital.

HAZE'S VICTIM.

He Is Fined For Not Having a Thicker Skull.

Francis Carney, the man beaten up by Officer Haze, was before the police court yesterday morning and arraigned for drunkenness and resisting an officer. The great cuts in his head were bandaged up and in his bloody shirt and coat he presented a sorry picture. That he was fined $5 and costs is proof sufficient that the charge of resisting an officer was but meagrely substantiated, and truth of the whole matter is, he made no resistance whatever, and the clubbing he received was unjust and uncalled for. The efforts made by a morning paper to bolster up Haze's course is decidedly diaphanous and unwarranted by the facts in the case.

"This Way, Mr. Lowlow."

There was a gang of canvasmen belonging to McMann's 10 cent circus, whose tents are pitched at the corner of Eighteenth and Charles street, yesterday arrested for disturbing the peace. It seems that one George McCarty has been following the show from place to place with the avowed purpose of doing up Watchman Niles. Wednesday night he went to the watchman's tent and wanted to fight, but instead Niles called in a policeman and McCarthy was run in. He got fifteen days over the hill and $5 and costs by the way of good measure.

Mrs. Brown's Return.

Mrs. Richard Brown, whose disappearance several days since occasioned her friends such a vast amount of alarm, was found Wednesday in Prospect Hill cemetery, by Mrs. James Shields. Mrs. Brown was engaged in strewing flowers over her mother's grave, and had evidently left her home while laboring under an aberration of the mental faculties. She was perfectly calm and collected and gave a detailed account of herself during her absence.

Nipped in the Bud.

Is it not better to nip Consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, SANTA ABIE, the king of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by Goodman Drug Co., at $1, or three for $2.50.
