TURK CANNOT FILL HIS CONTRACT.

Scotch Wrestler Proves a Bulky Armful for Hadji Adali.

FARGO, N. D., June 9.—The principal event of the third and last day of the fire festival was the wrestling match between Hadji Aladi, the terrible Turk, and champion of the world, and Duncan A. McMillan, the well known Scotch wrestler, the Turk losing the match. Hundreds of sportsmen came from all over the state. The Oriental contracted to throw McMillan four times in one hour, actual wrestling time, catch-as-catch-can, and Graeco-Roman alternated. The Turk won the first fall in seventeen minutes, thirty-three seconds, the second in twenty-five minutes, thirty-seven seconds, leaving less than seventeen minutes for the next two falls, which he was unable to get. Both falls were by half-Nelson and half-strangle holds.

Chicago Stays by L. A. W.

CHICAGO, June 9.—By a vote of 28 to 1 the Associated Cycling Clubs of Cook county, in which are represented fifty cycling organizations of Chicago, decided to run all its races under sanction of the League of American Wheelmen, the National Cycling association getting the one vote. This is regarded as a decisive victory by League of American Wheelmen men, as it practically decides the control of racing in Chicago.

Sale of Thoroughbreds.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The twelfth annual sale of the Rancho del Paso thoroughbred yearlings, the property of James B. Haggin, was held today in the Easton company's sales paddock at Sheepshead Bay. KEYSER FOR GRAND MASTER bridge across the Niobrara river was purchased in Kansas City last week and will be here within a week, when the work will be commenced. The bridge will be made as a combination for both wagon and railroad. Mr. C. E. Barnes left Tuesday night for the Black Hills to purchase the ties, which will be laid immediately upon their arrival.

Pugilism at Perry.

PERRY, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—One of the liveliest events that has taken place in this vicinity for a number of years was a pugilistic contest in the city of Butte, the county seat of Boyd county, Wednesday night. Considerable rivalry exists between this place and the county seat over the fact that Perry will be the terminus of the Atkinson & Northern railroad, and as usual in new towns their differences must be settled by a bout with the gloves.

The opera house in Butte was secured and a good purse provided. All the prominent citizens of the place and vicinity were in attendance.

The principal contestants for the largest purse were Murray Mitchell of Perry and Joe Janry of Butte. At the end of the fifth round Colonel John G. Maher, the referee, who was in attendance at a term of the district court, announced in a neat speech that Murray Mitchell of Perry, having received the greater number of points by a large majority, was declared the winner, and hoped the audience would bear him out in the decision. Two other encounters of lesser note were indulged in, each time resulting favorable to Perry.

More Rain.

AUBURN, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—Another heavy rain fell here on Thursday night and small streams are overflowing their banks.

CREIGHTON, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—Another nice rain is falling here this afternoon. The ground is in the best condition possible. With the small grain prospects are very encouraging. Some of the farmers who thought it necessary to replant their corn now report two excellent stands on the same ground.

DOUGLAS, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—An abundance of rain is visiting these parts this spring. Corn is mostly plowed once and looks well. Oats and pastures are looking fine. Strawberries are ripening and are a fine crop.

Jury Fails to Agree.

AUBURN, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—The jury in the damage suit of Miss Grace McGrew against the city of Peru could not agree.

Great preparations are being made for a Fourth of July celebration in this city.

Our county commissioners are out in Gage, Jefferson and other counties looking at the court houses that they may be better posted before beginning the erection of a court house in this county.

Road Will be Built.

WAUSA, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—Representatives of the reorganized Yankton, Norfolk & Southern Railroad company spent last night in this city. They were on an inspecting tour of the old roadbed. An interview with W. A. Graham, chief promoter of the company, discloses the fact that sufficient capital is backing the enterprise to have the road in running order by the first of the year.

City Wins.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—For some time past the city has been attempting to collect an occupation tax from B. King, a nonresident of the city, who came here for the purpose of disposing of a lot of cheap jewelry at auction sale. The matter has been fought in the justice, county and district courts of this county and the city has won in every case.

Graders Ready for Work.

ALLIANCE, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—The Cushing & O'Keefe outfit came in today and is being hauled out to its camp on the B. & M. route up the Platte river. They have seven miles of heavy work between Alliance and the river. Mr. Cushing was a member of the late firm of Mallory & Cushing, contractors, and was at one time mayor of Omaha.

Liederkranz Elects Officers.

WEST POINT, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the West Point Liederkranz, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Ludwig Thiempke; vice president, Herman Kloke; corresponding secretary, Joseph Kaup; financial secretary, J. Pscherer; treasurer, Theodore Plum.

Water Works Contract Awarded.

NORTH BEND, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—Bids were opened last night by the city council for putting in a water works plant here. Contracts were awarded to the Fremont Foundry and Machine company at $6,250, and engine and pump were awarded to Morse, Fairbanks & Co. of Omaha for $1,450.

Corn Needs Sun.

WEST POINT, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—Farmers are busily cultivating corn. Early planted corn looks well, but is in need of dry, warm weather. The constant rain of the last ten days has soaked the ground thoroughly and placed it in a condition to withstand a great deal of drouth.

Old Settlers' Reunion.

DOUGLAS, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—The old settlers' reunion and picnic of Otoe county was held yesterday at Palmyra. An immense crowd was on the grounds. Congressman-elect Burkett spoke in the morning and Paul Jesson of Nebraska City in the afternoon.

Man Fatally Injured.

ALLIANCE, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—An employe of McShane & Co., graders, fell from a loaded wagon today and one wheel passed over his chest and shoulders, crushing him frightfully. He cannot recover. His name is not known.

Printer Commits Suicide.

NORFOLK, Neb., June 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Van Varage, a printer aged 19, committed suicide here this afternoon by taking carbolic acid. Ill health was the cause. His mother resdies in Madison, this county.

West Pointers Deemed Unworthy.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 9.—The following cadets from the fourth class were found deficient and discharged from the Military academy: E. F. Fryer, New Jersey; George Mason Lee, Virginia; P. A. Donsmore, Michigan; H. F. Strong, Massachusetts; Carl Boyd, Georgia; Richard P. Williams, Arizona; William H. Horton, Tennessee; J. F. Franklin, Tennessee. Young Lee is a son of General Fitzhugh Lee and Williams is a son of the late Brigadier General Williams, who died recently in Havana.

Pabst Favors Honest Beer.

CHICAGO, July 9.—In his testimony before the senatorial committee which is inquiring into the pure food question, Captain Fred Pabst of Milwaukee said a national law covering a government inspection of beer would be a very good thing, as it would protect the honest manufacturer and the honest consumer.

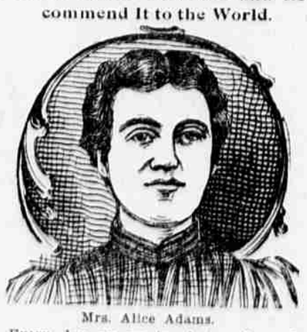
FOR PELVIC CATARRH

I Have Tested Pe-ru-na and Recommend It to the World.



Mrs. Alice Adams.

Every day we receive letters from the women like the following. Tried the doctors and failed; tried Pe-ru-na and was cured.

Mrs. Alice Adams, Fairchance, Pa., says: "I suffered five years of untold agony. I tried all the doctors I could hear of, and all the good they done me was to make a large bill. I have taken eighteen bottles of Pe-ru-na. I have tested its merits; I know its virtues. I can recommend it to the world. It has cured me; why should I not praise it to all? My friends look at me with astonishment. They want to know what has made such a remarkable change in my looks. I tell them I used Pe-ru-na and followed Dr. S. B. Hartman's instructions."

Miss Minnie Armstrong, a well-known New York newspaper woman, says: "I cannot speak too highly of Pe-ru-na for insomnia and nervous prostration." Miss Armstrong's address is 25 W. 117th street.
