RESCUE ANGEL IS ACCUSED

Charles Davis Stands Charged with Stealing from an Unconscious Man.

A case will be tried in Justice Altstadt's court today in which it is designed to test the right of a man while engaged in having a fit upon the street to immunity from having his pockets picked. The case is that of the state against Charles Davis, and the complaining witness is G. L. Brotherhood of 306 North Fifteenth street.

Mr. Brotherhood alleges that he is subject to fits and that the spells come upon him without warning. While he is in the throes of a spasm he is unconscious. Last Saturday while pruning some trees in front of his house he fell in one of these paroxysms, and when consciousness returned a policeman and a man named Charles Davis were standing beside him. The officer asked him to count his money, which he did and found it to be $1.40 short.

Officer Story, who made the arrest, says he appeared upon the scene just as Davis had extracted the $1.40 from Brotherhood's vest pocket. "There was $19 in another pocket," he added, "that Davis didn't get, probably because I came too soon."

Davis maintains that he had no designs against Brotherhood further than to resuscitate him, and denies that he took the money.

NOT ENOUGH TO GO AROUND

Hardware Jobbers Encounter Shortage of Barbed Wire—Cannot Fill Orders.

Jobbers of hardware are complaining of the impossibility of supplying the retail demand for barbed wire. One wholesale house of Omaha made a contract with an eastern mill last fall for the delivery of large amounts of wire in February, March and April. May 1 one-half of the amount to have been delivered in February had been shipped to Omaha and since that time the mill has sent no more of the goods.

At the same time the demand from the interior of the state for barbed wire has increased beyond the expectations of the house and had the order of last fall been filled according to contract they would now be out of stock, as the orders which the house has not been able to fill have been in excess of quantity contracted for.

READY FOR GORDON TRIAL

Hearing of Former Police Judge Comes Before Council Today.

At 10 o'clock this morning the city council will convene to hear the charges which have been preferred against Police Judge Samuel I. Gordon. The hearing was postponed several weeks ago that Councilman D. T. Mount might attend the trial. Mr. Mount returned from Kansas Monday and all the members of the council will be present at the hearing.

In discussing the Gordon case yesterday, City Attorney W. J. Connell said: "There is nothing new in the case. Everything was in readiness when the hearing was set originally. It will take at least three days to try the case and it may be prolonged for a week."
