Five of Omaha's fairest and most accomplished daughters chose practically the same time to announce their engagements. That of Miss Marie Hampton and Mr. Harry S. Disbrow was announced Monday, and that of Miss Marion Parsons and Mr. Dexter Corson yesterday. Today the following interesting announcements are made:

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dennis announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ann Elizabeth, to Mr. Robert Donald Neely. Both young people are very popular members of the Nebraska university set, Miss Dennis being a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and possessed of considerable artistic ability, and Mr. Neely is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mr. Neely is also a graduate of the law department of Northwestern university. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Meyer announce the engagement of their daughter, Minna, to Mr. Felix Schroeter of Berlin, Germany. For several months Miss Meyer has been the leading soprano in the opera company at Memel, Germany, and has been abroad for the last three years. She will return to Omaha in the spring to visit her parents and probably will be married in the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmidt announce the engagement of their daughter, Marie Grace, to Mr. Charles Sanford Hoffert of St. Joseph, Mo., formerly of this city. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the Sacred Heart academy of the class of 1913. Mr. Hoffert is city manager of the C. D. Smith wholesale drug firm of St. Joseph. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Entertain at Musicale.

The St. Helena Guild girls of Trinity cathedral will give a musical Tuesday evening, February 3, in the parlors of Jacobs Hall. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be devoted to foreign missions. The patronesses of the evening are to be Mesdames Byron Reed, F. D. Barkalow, Frank L. Howard, Philip Potter, C. C. George, Charles Keller. A delightful program in two parts has been planned. Mr. Ben Stanley, Miss Eloise West, Miss Adeline Jones, Mrs. George F. Johnston and Mr. H. H. Thomas will be the accompanists. The program for the evening consists of the following numbers: Solo, Miss Gertrude Miller, "Yesterday and Today;" mandolin quartet, Messrs. Homer Lawson, Glen Paxton, Lawrence Harrington, Smith; tenor solo, Mr. Vickery; piano solo, Miss Grace Slahaugh; soprano solo, Miss Adeline Jones, "Carmena;" mandolin solo, Miss Frances Potter, "Impromptu," by Abt; bass solo, Mr. Swanson; violin solo, Miss Madge West, "Meditation" from Thais; vocal solo, Miss Beatrice Tancock; solo on one-stringed instrument, Mr. Bridges.

Creighton Glee Club Concert.

The Creighton Glee club concert at the Brandeis theater Wednesday evening is the social event of the week. Many out-of-town guests will arrive to attend the concert and they will be extensively entertained.

Bishop Busch of Lead, S. D.; the Right Rev. M. F. Burke, bishop of St. Joseph; his niece, Miss Nellie A. Burke; Mrs. E. S. Garner, president of the Fortnightly Musical club of St. Joseph; besides Mme. Lucille Stevenson and Mme. Marie Von Unschuld, will be the guests of honor at these affairs. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Burkley will entertain at luncheon for Mrs. Garner and Miss Burke; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Thompson, luncheon for Mme. Lucille Stevenson, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, dinner party for the Right Rev. M. F. Burke. On Wednesday Mrs. Garner and Miss Burke will be Mrs. C. C. Allison's guests at luncheon, and there will also be a reception for Mme. Von Unschuld at the university. Mme. Von Unschuld will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Borglum.

Reservations for box parties have been made by President Eugene Magevney, H. V. Burkley, C. W. Hamilton, C. C. Allison, L. C. Nash, Rob Connell, Lawrence Bushman, Phi Rho Sigma and the Gamma Eta Gamma fraternities, which will decorate their boxes in the frat colors. The following have made reservations in the body of the house: Fred P. Hamilton, Frank T. Hamilton, A. V. Kinsler, A. Swartzlander, J. A. C. Kennedy, Miss Ruth Latenser, Captain Chester Wells, Captain Theodore Nelson, E. B. McDermott, Miss Evelyn Hopper, C. B. Dugdale, MacMillan Harding, H. Pritchett, Lloyd Thompson and numerous student parties from the various departments.

Entertain at Musicale.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kelly held their third "4 o'clock" on Saturday afternoon at their studio-residence, 209 South Thirty-fifth avenue, the occasion being a students' musicale and conversazione, with a social cup of tea. The students who sang were Miss Grace Northrup, Miss Greta Lane and Miss Vera Ione Beats.

Miss Grace Northrup displayed a lovely mezzo-soprano voice in her thre selections, which were, "Shepherds Cradle Song" (Somervell); "Mighty lak' a Rose," (Nevin), and "At Parting" (James H. Rogers).

Miss Greta Lane's high lyric soprano voice was delightful in "Thoughts Have Wings" (Lehman), "Sing, Smile, Slumber" (Gounod)), sung in French, and "The Cuckoo," by Lesa Lehmann.

Miss Vera Ione Beats thrilled the auditors with her fine dramatic soprano voice in "Goodbye" (Tosti), "Her Rose" ((Whitney Coombs" and "A Summer Night" (Goring Thomas). Miss Beats was a pupil of Mrs. Kelly last year.

The next "4 o'clock" will be in the nature of a lecture-recital on "Two Famous Song Writers, Schumann and Schubert," at the Young Women's Christian association, Saturday afternoon, February 7, when Mr. Kelly will give the lecture part of the program and advanced students will sing the illustrations.

This lecture-recital will be give nin two parts, the second part to be announced later. Part one will occupy all the time of the date mentioned. There is an entire change of program and of soloists at these affairs.

Dyck-Lausterer Wedding.

One of the pretty weddings of the season was that of Miss Lillie Lausterer and Mr. Athur Dyck, which took place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents. The Rev. Mr. Ostertag of the German Evangelical church performed the ceremony. Miss Betty Downs sang "Oh, Promise Me," and the bridal party entered to the strains of the Loheringrin wedding march played by Miss Rose Hornsby.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with an overdrape of white chiffon and pearls. Her veil was held in place by lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Hedwig Bastian was maid of honor and was gowned in gray chiffon and carried pink roses.

Miss Lizzie Dyck, sister of the groom, was bidesmaid and was gowned in pink charmuese and also carried pink roses.

Mr. Frank Dyck, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a large wedding supper was served to sixty guests.

Mr. W. F. Stoecker and Mr. J. M. King were the toastmasters.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyck will be at home after February 16 at 2610 Wirt street.

Miss Helen Stuhldreirer was ring bearer and carried the ring in a cala lily.

Develop Your Bust

50c Package FREE to Any Woman Who Wants a Beautiful Figure

Women need no longer be humiliated and embarrassed because they are thin, flat-chested and not developed, for science has found a simple way to give the beautiful curves of a perfect figure. To prove this, let us send you free of charge a 50c package that will show you how easily the bust can be developed from two to six inches and become full plump and firm. This discovery, that is of such vital interest to all this women, is the result of long study and investigation by a leading woman physician, who in seeking to overcome the defects of her own figure without the use of "pads" or forms, discovered a happy combination of tissue-building elements that increased her bust some four inches, made her arms round and shapely and her neck and shoulders plump and symmetrical.

This formula of Dr. Catherine Kelly's is a real discovery on far different lines from the ordinary figure developing treatment, and this explains its almost uniform success.

Dr. Kelly not only gained a beautiful form by her own Formula, but used it successfully with many of her patients. Women this is a personal message from a physician of your own sex, and all we ask is the opportunity to show you without any expense on your part, that Dr. Kelly's Formula can give you a better figure, beautiful complexion and improve the general health. Send the little coupon and 10c for expenses, and a 50c treatment will be mailed at once in plain package. Write us today. DR. KELLY MEDICAL CO., Dept. 132, BA, Buffalo, N. Y.
