ROURKES DROP A SHORT ONE, 2 TO 1

Des Moines Wins Contest Called in Seventh Inning Because of Rain.

INGERSOLL UPON THE MOUND

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Lee Tannehill came very near beating his recent teammates in the opening game of the series between Des Moine and Omaha here today, when he scored in the third inning on his own double and a two-bagger by Schliebner.

As it was, rain put an end to the conflict after Omaha had completed the first half of the seventh, with the count 2 to 1 in favor of the league leaders. Rain fell at intervals during the entire game.

Ira Thomas, scout for Connie Mack, was in the grandstand during the game. He did not see any stellar playing because of the slippery field, although both Ingersoll for Omaha and Mogridge for the Boosters put up an excellent brand of pitching. The Rourkes started a lifesized rally in the third that ought to have given them a safe lead. After Tannehill had scored on Schliebner's double, Ingersoll bunted to Mogridge. By a quick throw to second Schliebner was touched off the base and the double on Ingersoll was completed at first. Smith field for the third out.

Again, in the sixth inning, a double play spoiled the visitors' chances for a circuit of the bases. Ingersoll singled, but Smith hit to Ewoldt at third, who completed the circuit by way of trapping Ingersoll at second. Des Moines rushed across a brace of runs in the fifth, just enough to nose out a victory.

Ingersoll issued Sawyer a free pass to first. Ewoldt bunted to Ingersoll, who tried to catch Sawyer at second, but made a poor throw. Both men were safe. Each man was advanced a base on a wild pitch. Graham singled to center, scoring Sawyer. Mogridge forced Graham at second, Breen to Krug. Ewoldt scored on the play. Hunter forced Mogridge at second, Ingersoll to Krug. Bills filed out to R. Breen. Two runs, one hit, no errors.

Carter's Option on Cincinnati Club is Allowed to Lapse

PASADENA, Cal., Aug. 16.—Warren N. Carter, trustee of South Pasadena, announced today that he would not exercise the option he holds to purchase the Cincinnati National League Base Ball club. The option expires today. Mr. Carter said, however, that he expected to go to Cincinnati next week, but refused to say whether he would endeavor to renew negotiations to participate on different terms.

Mr. Carter dictated the following statement:

"Mr. August Herrmann has been notified that my option on the Cincinnati club, expiring today, will not be exercised. I expect to leave for Cincinnati in a few days."

Mr. Carter was asked if he would seek to renew negotiations to purchase the club on different terms, when he returned to Cincinnati.

"I will have nothing to say on that point," he replied.

Cardinals Put Ban on Sale of Soda Pop to Bleacherites

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.—To prevent the recurrence of pop bottle attacks on umpires at the local National league ball park, such as was made from the bleachers against Umpire Byron in the game with Chicago yesterday, President Schuyler P. Britton of the local Nationals announced today that henceforth no soda water would be sold to the bleacherites.

The sale of soda will continue in the grandstand as the fans there did not participate in the attack on Byron. Although hundreds of bottles and vegetables were hurled at him the umpire escaped uninjured.

Detroit Takes Both Ends of Double-Header from Indians, Six to Two and Three to One.

BOLAND NEARLY GETS RECORD

CLEVELAND, Aug. 16.—Detroit took both games from Cleveland today, 6 to 2, and 3 to 1. Nto a hit was made off Boland in the second game until there were two out in the ninth inning. Then Ben Paschel, a recruit from Alabama, batting for Pitcher Hagerman, singled cleanly over second, robbing Boland of a no hit game. Gambaganss' two errors, both muffs of thrown balls, gave Detroit all of its three runs. Cleveland's one run was scored by Chapman, who was hit with a pitched ball, stole second, took third on a passed ball and home on a bad throw by Bush. Walker's one bad inning gave Detroit its victory in the first game. Score:

BOSTON, Aug. 16.—In scoring the only run of today's game, the last of the local series with Washington, the Boston Americans accomplished the feat of defeating the Senators in all of the eleven games played between the teams at Fenway park this year. The pitchers' battle between Wood and Gallia this afternoon was notable for the latter's fine pitching and his even more brilliant support by Milan. Hooper's triple, one of the two local hits, and Scott's sacrifice fly scored Boston's run at the outset. Score:
