WHAT'S WHAT FOR EASTER

This demure little turban is pronounced just the thing for Easter wear. The crown is covered with posies in that lovely shade of cerise pink that Paris favors. The crown is small and rests close to the head. The ribbon fancy is the color of the flowers, quite tall and slender. In the favorite manner of the up-to-date hat it slants to the back, although it would be equally fashionable if it were in front, or at either side—the main thing is its tallness and slenderness, and the dash it gives to the hat.

GOVERNOR LISTER FAVORS THE BILL FOR THE ABOLISHMENT OF CAPITOL PUNISHMENT IN THAT STATE

United Press Service

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 15—Capital punishment is wiped off the statute books of this state, with the assurance that Governor Lister will sign the Goss bill. The measure, which originated in the house, passed the senate by a bare constitutional majority of 22 to 17, three senators being absent.

DAISY HAYDEN IS GIVEN MEDAL

CLIFFORD SEVITS AWARDED SECOND UPP MEDAL—WINNER IS THE THIRD FROM FRESHMAN CLASS IN FIVE YEARS

Reciting Lockport Express' beautiful selection, "No Room for Mother," in a manner that brought out all the beauty in the piece, and showed a careful study, Miss Daisy Hayden won the first prize in the Klamath county high school declamation contest last night, the gold medal awarded by Frank M. Upp.

The second Upp medal was won by Clifford Sevits. His rendition of "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," was highly creditable.

The other contestants made splendid showings, and their work was highly commended by the judges, County School Superintendent Fred Peterson, Mrs. W. T. Forrest and Dr. A. Grant Evans.

CALIFORNIANS TO FIGHT HUERTAITES

GOLDEN STATE MEXICANS START FOR SONORA TO CAST THEIR FORTUNES WITH THE CONSTITUTIONALIST FORCES

United Press Service

LOS ANGELES, March 15.—With Nogales, Sonora, as their objective point, 120 Southern California Mexicans quietly organized here into a well armed, effective command, are moving eastward today to cast their fortunes with the constitutionalists who are fighting the Huerta forces in the Mexican border state. The filibusterers, according to authentic reports, slipped quietly away from Los Angeles on various trains, only a few of the party purchasing railway tickets direct to Nogales, Ariz. Each trooper armed and equipped himself.

POPE LAUDS THE AMERICAN VIEW

CIRCULAR LETTER, ADDRESSED TO BISHOPS OF THE WORLD, SAYS THAT HERE IS IDEAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

ROME, March 15.—In an encyclical, or circular letter, of world-wide interest to the Catholic church, which was issued today to all the bishops of that denomination, Pope Pius X. refers to the United States as the ideal country for religious freedom.

In the message sent from the Vatican today the pontiff rejoices over the abolition of the anti-Catholic clause from the oath administered to reigning royalty in England.
