RIVER NEWS.

The river is rapidly falling.

The steamer Modoc will be up tonight.

The Hoag came up from Portland at 6:30 last evening and after discharging her freight at this place, she proceeded on to upper river points.

Passenger steamer Altona came up last night from Portland with a good load of freight and an extra large passenger list. She took on 27 passengers for Independence and proceeded on to the latter city. Returning from Independence on schedule time this morning, she took on over twenty passengers for lower river points and left for Portland about 8 a. m.

The waiting room at the Altona dock is completed and the genial agent, F. J. Smith, will always be found ready for business. The waiting room is well patronized by the patrons of the company, being filled to overflowing both last evening and this morning. In the near future seats will be placed in the waiting room and will afford a seating capacity of about 25. It is probable that tickets will be sold at the office for upper and lower river points in a short time.

When Others Fail

Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating an appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c.

Next Monday Morning

AT 9 O'CLOCK

We inaugurate the biggest, broadest, most sweeping dress goods sale we've ever had. We have about 50 feet of wide shelving, four shelves high, jammed full of goods that are going to be sold at a price. We've had sales and sales, but this is THE sale of our business career. No reserve, nothing held aside, all goes, and the price in many cases are not one half. Watch our windows, save your dimes and pay us a visit. More announcements later.

T. Holverson & Co.

201 Commercial street.

CLEARANCE SALE.—Including dress goods and woolens of all kinds, to reduce stock before invoicing. This is worthy of your close consideration.

THE PALACE.

THE BIGGEST YET.—The grandest stock of handkerchiefs and mufflers of all kinds ever in Salem. At the PALACE.

PERSONALS.

Judge Munly, of Portland, was in town today.

Scott Bozorth came up from Portland this noon.

Hon. Phil. Metschan returned from Portland this morning.

Squire Farrar was a north bound passenger this afternoon.

G. W. Eppler returned to his home at Marion this morning.

A. R. Siegmund, of Klamb, above Mehama, was in the city today.

A. L. Brown, chief engineer of Salem Water company, is quite ill at his home with fever.

J. P. Robertson and family were passengers for Independence on the Altona last evening.

Rev. W. Kellaway went down to Portland on the Altona this morning in the interest of the Mission.

G. E. Davis went to Lincoln county, this morning, where his father, G. W. Davis, is interested in rock quarries.

Rev. A. A. Englebart went to Corvallis this morning, a substitute for Rev. I. B. Fisher, who was unable to go.

Miss Ruth Wallace returned this morning from East Portland where she has been visiting her uncle H. F. Wallace.

Supt. J. B. Early, of the deaf mute school, went to Portland this morning and will attend the teachers' convention.

Prof. Cochran, of the university, was a passenger for Portland on the Altona this morning and will be in attendance at the teachers' convention.

Rev. F. H. Gwynne was a passenger for Albany this morning where he will attend a special meeting of the Presbyterian church of that city.

D. B. Worthington, editor of the Klamath Falls Express, is in the city, superintending the printing of a fine New Year's edition of his paper.

Misses Fannie Cronise and Anna Tuthill came down from Eugene this afternoon and will visit with their aunt, Mrs. D. L. Fiester for a week.

Manager Koehler and Attorney W. D. Fenton, of the Southern Pacific, are before the state board of equalization, for a hearing on assessment of railroad property.

B. W. Johnson, editor of the Corvallis Gazette, was in the city today. He is one of the young men of this state who have broken away from the old Portland machine on the senatorship and has made a vigorous fight for a new deal.

Hon. Calvin Stanley, of Newberg, a member elect of the next legislature, is in the city looking for a place for himself and wife for the winter's session. Mr. Stanley is a merchant and is not in favor of much new legislation, but rather for repeal of some that now exists. He has fortunately no local appropriation to look after and hence will be free to give the people his best service and unbiassed judgment on important matters.

Hon. J. L. Calvert, of Hubbard, is in the city, and with other members yesterday visited the State Reform school and State Insane asylum. There were in the party, Representative Bridges, of Douglas, Representatives Craig, Moores and Barkley, of Union, and Senators Patterson and Gesner. Mr. Calvert expressed himself to a JOURNAL writer as favoring retrenchment, and will begin with abolishing useless commissioners and cutting down the wages of committee clerks.

PLEASANT PARTY.—Misses Florence Evelyn and Ada Bigger, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bigger, entertained a host of their young friends Thursday afternoon at their spacious home on the South Salem hill. Nearly fifty children had a most enjoyable time.

SOCIAL.—The ladies of the Relief Corps will give a 10 cent social next Saturday evening, at the home of Joshua Smith, at 405 High street. All are cordially invited to attend, and a good time is promised.

REVIVAL SERVICE.—An Evangelistic service will be held in the First Congregational church of this city beginning Monday, December 31 at 7:30 p. m. Rev. U. F. Clapp, an able and successful evangelist, will lead the service.

TWO HEADS—Are better than one in some instances but one head is sufficient to see that G. W. Johnson & Son sell the best of clothing at lowest prices.

The E. D. Holman Undertaking company of Portland has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state.

OREGON PACIFIC PROSPECTS.

Hon. J. D. Daly Interviewed on the Sale.

Hon. John D. Daly was in Salem yesterday and talked with a JOURNAL writer about the sale of the Oregon Pacific, the extension and reconstruction of which railroad he is probably as vitally interested in as any man in Oregon.

He has no investments in the property, but as a resident of what is now Lincoln county since fourteen years past has the welfare of that region deeply at heart. He was one of the engineers in charge of the original surveys of the line and was connected with the road until 1884. He has since followed its checkered career, its ups and downs, to the present critical period, having also helped make all surveys of proposed extensions. Last year Mr. Daly was chosen to represent Lincoln and Benton counties in the legislature, since which time he has given almost his undivided attention to the revival and rehabilitation of the once prosperous Oregon Pacific railroad. In regard to the recent sale and confirmation that is to take place on January 3, before Judge Fullerton, at Corvallis, Mr. Daly said:

"Judge Fullerton will not confirm the sale if there is serious objection on the part of holders of labor claims. There is no apparent possibility of collecting labor liens unless the sale is confirmed. There is no chance of collecting such claims when the costs of repeated advertisement and sales and accumulating attorney fees are increasing more rapidly than the property can ever meet. The property is decreasing in value. It will be worth less next year than this year. In its present condition it is depreciating very rapidly, because of the inability to maintain repairs that are necessary out of present earnings. The men living along the road, if sale is confirmed, will be employed immediately and men holding claims will be given preference over others not holding claims or who have not been swindled. If the old laborers kick on this sale the buyers do not want it.

"The Salem writer who says there is no assurance that the buyers will not take up the iron and remove it to Astoria, to build their proposed line there, does not know what he is talking about. The state would enjoin such an attempt, and besides the iron will not pay for removal if a man got it for nothing.

"Without a big investment the road is insolvent. It will take millions of dollars to put it on a paying basis. If the present sale is not confirmed the extension of the road eastward will be abandoned. The road cannot be operated at all much longer without capital being put in.

"To shut down the road means to close up Lincoln county and Yaquina Bay to the rest of the world to the east of it, and to deprive settlers on the Santiam of all outlet or hopes of a livelihood for years to come.

"I have personal assurances of the most reliable character from Messrs. Bonner and Hammond that they will immediately proceed to improve the property. They say they will not spend a dollar to settle the labor and material men's claims. They do not want to get the road by a trick or by any sharp practice, but by process of law. Neither do they wish to get the property without the goodwill and from the full consent of all connected with it. I am positive that these men will and must spend a million dollars within a year to put the road on a paying basis. If the sale is not confirmed I do not like to say what will become of it." Mr. Daly took the overland train to have consultation with the creditors of the road.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.—A very pleasant Christmas entertainment was enjoyed by a about eighty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in Depot addition to Salem. A very interesting program was rendered as follows: Chorus composed of Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Croft, Mrs. Bean, Misses Brown, Gambol, Fisher and Mr. Ray Fisher; recitation, Ida Parker; recitation, Herbert Gambol; chorus; recitation, Walter West; chorus; recitation, Frankie West; duet, Mice Mattie Gambol and Mrs. Herbert Huston; solo, Mrs. Hoffman accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Bean; recitation, Van Parker; chorus. After the program the children formed in line and marched around the tree at which to the delight of all present Santa Claus, who was admirably personated by Mr. W. L. Brown, made his appearance and proceeded at once to dispose of gifts to those present from the large and well filled Christmas tree. When the guests left, some after 11 o'clock, they were all loaded down with presents and happiness.

OREGON PACIFIC MATTERS.

Sale Will Undoubtedly Be Confirmed and the Road Go Ahead.

Special to THE JOURNAL:

CORVALLIS, Dec. 28.—Sheriff D. A. Osburn yesterday filed his return on the sale of the Oregon Pacific but no objections to the confirmation have yet been made. It is the general impression that it will be confirmed, but the court should not be misled by the flourishing reports going the rounds of the state press. Booner, the purchaser, has not given out here positively that the eastern extension would be made, but that is the only reasonable conclusion that the people can come to from the investment of $100,000 in an enterprise paying expenses of operation only.

The bid of $100,000 will pay only a very small per cent. of preferred claims against the receiverships. After deducting taxes, $50,000 and some $10,000 or $15,000 lawyer fees and court expenses now incurred. Judge Fullerton is expected to sit here on next Thursday, for the purpose of hearing objections, if any, and confirming the sale.

POPULIST CONFERENCE.

Meeting of the Committee in a Tangle.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—A conference of the national committee of the People's Party began today with an attendance of over 200. The meeting was called to order by National Chairman Taubenreck, and immediately proceeded to the discussion of the advisability of holding sessions in secret.

Debate developed a tangle out of which the gathering pulled itself after nearly two hours discussion, by resolving itself into an informal conference, with Mr. Taubenreck in the chair, Secretary Turner, of the national committee, was made secretary of the conference. Upon motion of General Weaver, the chair was directed, after some aimless debate to appoint a committee of five upon credentials and another of ten upon address.

Another Forgery.

EUGENE, Or., Dec. 28.—Another very bungling forgery has been taken into custody in this city, the mania seeming to have become contagious. A young man presented a check at the at the First National bank for $100 this afternoon, purporting to have been drawn by E. H. Ingham, a grocer, and in favor of H. C. Kelsay. Cashier Eakin did not think the check was genuine, so questioned the young man as to how he came by it. He said Mr. Ingham had given it to him a short time before. As Mr. Ingham is in California, and the purported signature not very good, the cashier took the young man and delivered him into the hands of Sheriff Johnson. He at first claimed Kelsay was his true name, but later acknowledged that his true name was John Gay, and that he resides in the country a few miles from the city. He had an examination this morning. He is about 21 years old.

The Peace Commissioner.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 28.—The peace commissioner of Chang Ying Hue has left Tien Tsin for Cue Foo, and is expected here January 6, when he will join the peace commissioner Shao Yao Tien, and go to Tokio. Shao Yao Tien was formerly governor of Formosa and offered a schedule of rewards to be paid to the Chinese who took Japanese soldiers dead or alive. On this ground it has been asserted that the Japanese would refuse to receive him as a peace commissioner.

Damages Wanted.

SAGINAW, Mich., Dec. 28.—A capias has been issued on complaint of Mayor Mershen for the arrest of the Rev. William Knight, pastor of the First Congregational church, who has been most vigorous in bringing accusations of dishonesty and incompetency against the city officials. Damages of $5000 are asked for.

Denies The Charge.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—At a special meeting of the council last night, Alderman Powers denied that he had solicited a $25,000 bribe for 40 aldermen, to secure the defeat of the pending cigarette ordinance. The matter was left to a committee of five to be appointed by the mayor.

Warrant for a Juryman

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—W. B. Hopkins, foreman of the jury before whom Banker Steele, of Paynesville, was tried for alleged forgery, today swore out a warrant for the arrest of L. Hunter. The warrant is the outcome of the charge that the Steele jury had been tampered with.

The Call to Be Sold.
