cution, as the French lovers say, crying "Vive Radama!" The first minister, who has married the Queen in the morganatic manner, was so elated at having saved the Queen by his exertions, that he got drunk, and so far forgot himself as to insult Her Majesty, who called her guards and had her consort arrested. He was sentenced to death, and only saved by the earnest entreaties of his friend Mr. Ellis. The Queen has made one of her sons Prime Minister.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW YORK AND THE VICINITY.

THE DECLINE IN GOLD has suddenly undermined the calculations of speculators, and there is a fair prospect that the tumbling in prices will soon culminate in a crash that will carry joy to the hearts of consumers. It was truly refreshing to witness the dismay with which the "bears" beheld the gold quotations of Saturday. Their faces became frightfully elongated, and it were safer to stir up a nest of partridges than to ask one the price of gold. Of course they clung to their high figures like a frightened ostrich to an earthen trough; but fate was against them, and the prices had to come down. Buyers, however, were very scarce. They very sensibly concluded that, as sellers had grown fat on the rise in prices, it might have a good effect to bring them down to fighting weight again, and accordingly let them alone, book, easily holding over for still lower figures. The usual denizens of Wall street were absent or jubilant according to whether they had bought "shares" or "shorts." The survivors of those—the old veterans—were running around to buy tobacco for "Grant's Chariot," and accordingly were extremely obliging and civil. The figures touched 200. One of the chief supports of the movement by selling short seems to have been delivered on Friday. It is said to have commenced at 205¼, and packed in 10 per cent on the half million of gold. As might be supposed, the gold subject was a fruitful source of conversation on Saturday evening and Sunday. On the street, in hotels, stages, cars and theatres, it invariably was the chief topic of conversation. At one of the popular places of amusement in the Bowery, "the last quotation" was announced from the stage and elicited a rapturous burst of applause. In fact, nothing since the announcement of the exemption of the city from draft has caused more general good feeling. A rumor in Philadelphia on Saturday that Grant had achieved a great victory at Petersburg, sent gold down to 197, under a force of excitement and patriotism.

COLLECTOR DUTTON AND THE BONDED WAREHOUSES.—The fact has been already reported that the Collector has commenced a reform movement relative to bonded warehouses. On Saturday he issued an order reducing the rates of storage thirty-three and one-third per cent. This is an important change, and in view of the extravagant rates existing was greatly needed. It ought to tend to diminish the prices of imported articles to an extent equal to this reduction. Assistant General Hooker visited Collector Dutton at the Custom House on Saturday at one o'clock, and was cordially received.

A METHODIST MINISTER ON THE WAR.—A prominent minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, while conversing with a gentleman yesterday, was asked "why he did not allude to the war in his sermons on the recent national Fast and Thanksgiving days?" "Because," he replied, "I am opposed to the object of the war. Understand me, I am not opposed to the war if waged to put down this rebellion. My no means. On the contrary, I am in favor of prosecuting it until the rebels lay down their arms and submit. But I am opposed to fighting for the negro. I hate slavery as much as any man can do, but when it is permitted by the Constitution of the United States, I must not try to overthrow it. My first duty is to my God, my next to support the Constitution of the United States, and until that Constitution is altered, I am clearly opposed to any movement whatever which has for its object the overthrow of any one article, any one line, or any one word therein."

A GRAND JUBILEE.—It will be remembered that a "Committee on the State of the Nation" was appointed at the meeting held at Union Square, in June last, in honor of General Grant. This Committee met on Saturday, and appointed Sub-Committees to wait upon the Mayor and Common Council, to request that the proper steps be taken for a grand celebration in honor of the late Union successes.

A SHERIDAN SALUTE.—In accordance with instructions from the War Department, a salute of one hundred guns was fired yesterday, at Fort Columbus, in the harbor, in honor of Sheridan's recent victory.

MAIL FOR THE WEST GULF SQUADRON.—The U. S. Naval Supply steamer Bermuda, Vol. Lieut J. W. Smith, will sail from the Philadelphia Navy Yard on Wednesday, 28th inst. Prepaid letters and packages sent to Osborn's Bureau of Naval Information, No. 2 Dey street, New York City, before noon Tuesday, will be forwarded by the vessel. No express charges beyond Philadelphia.

U. S. TRANSPORT ARROW.—The transport Charles Phelps, while proceeding through Bell Gate yesterday morning, was accidentally run on the Hog's Back by a freight pilot. Assistance was sent to her. The crew of a small flat-boat, it is stated, were relieved. She will probably come off with damage to the last mentioned.

PRICE [illegible]—Murder in Howard Street.—On Saturday afternoon, Sarah Bennett, a colored woman, quarrelled with another female at No. 85 Howard street, and the latter assaulted Hilows, but were separated. Subsequently, however, they met in the [illegible] and Sarah Bennett's [illegible] in the hands of the people, when a fight ensued. Officer Whitney [illegible] Coroner Wilde held an inquest yesterday.

Shot in a Low Dive.—At about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, a fight occurred between Henry Pinselson, of No. 61 Bowery, and Daniel Powell, a [illegible] Pinselson's house, and Mr. Hosdon was shot in the [illegible]. Powell was arrested by Officer Higgins, of the Fourth Precinct, and taken before Justice [illegible], by whom he was held.

Alleged Counterfeiters.—On Saturday evening, Peter M. Mahon and Thomas Grant were arrested, charged with attempting to pass counterfeit bills on the New Ipswich Bank, of New Ipswich, N. H. They were taken to the Second Police Office Station, and on the person of Grant a spurious $5 bill was found. The accused were taken before Tombs, Where they were committed by Justice Hogan.

Fatal Quarrel.—Philip Devereux and Thomas Connolly, who, it is said, were in their cups, fought in Water street, near James, on the night of the 20th inst., and Connolly went home apparently not seriously injured; but he subsequently found himself suffering from the blows which he had received, and he was taken to the New York Hospital, where he died. Coroner Collin held an inquest.

The Weehawken Homicide.—Michael Buckley surrendered to Coroner Ranney, on Saturday, as the person who on Sunday, the 18th inst., killed Daniel Schmidt, at Weehawken. It was reported that Buckley attacked the deceased, and that he had no provocation; but it appears that Buckley was in charge of the grounds whereon Schmidt's party were dancing at the time of the shooting. Buckley has been liberated on bail.

Found Dead.—A well dressed man of about 45 years of age, was found dead on the Battery yesterday morning. Coroner Collin, who held an inquest, found on the person of the deceased a letter addressed to Dr. S. Osborne, Health Officer at Port Jervis, which letter was written by John William, of Darien, Walworth county, Wisconsin. There was nothing in the appearance of the corpse to awaken suspicion.

Stabbing.—At one o'clock yesterday afternoon, two men named Philip Canning and Thos. Flynn, got into a difficulty, when Flynn drew a knife and stabbed Canning in the breast. The wound is considered dangerous. Flynn was locked up.

BROOKLYN.

EXTENSIVE FIRES.—DESTRUCTION OF THE BROOKLYN WHITE LEAD WORKS.—THE CATHOLIC CHURCH OF THE ASSUMPTION GREATLY DAMAGED, AND SEVERAL BUSINESS INJURED.—An extensive fire broke out yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, in the Brooklyn White Lead works, which company occupy the block bounded by Washington, Adams, Front and Water streets, and consists of several brick buildings and a number of wooden sheds. The flames grew rapidly and commenced at both the structures, including stables, warehouses, [illegible] the space occupied by the [illegible] company, and the houses in the adjacent streets, which they swept. The fire spread to the corroding shed standing in Water st, and then extended to the other buildings within the block which were of wood, and all were destroyed. The establishment contained a large amount of materials prepared and unprepared, to the value of over $200,000, a great portion of which was destroyed. The engines and boilers were saved, as were also the horses in the stable. In the apartment where paints are ground, the paint is kept in pots, being prepared by putting in a certain quantity of vinegar and acid, which is covered up with tar. The fire, it is supposed, was caused by spontaneous combustion. It may have been produced by other causes. A strong northwest wind at the time, and blazing firebrands fell upon the roofs of a number of houses for several blocks distant. The church of the Catholic Church of the Assumption, corner of York and Jay streets, was set on fire. The congregation was engaged in evening prayer, and Father Fearon, fearing approach of the flames, advised them to leave, and all retired safely, without injury. The altar, [illegible] were removed in the Sacristy, together with the papers, were taken out safe. The roof, but everything else was either burned or totally damaged. The walls [illegible] by water, as was also the [illegible] organ in the church. The insurance [illegible] amounts, covered by insurance, several policies in Hope, Tallman and Prospect [illegible] were saved. The [illegible] were speedily extinguished. The damage occasioned was slight.

DESTRUCTION OF A PACKING-BOX FACTORY.—The Packing-box manufactory, occupying Nos. 14, 16 and 18 Selden street, between Columbia street and the river, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. The premises were occupied by Mr. William L. Terry. The fire was discovered near the main entrance about 1 o'clock. All the stock and machinery was either destroyed or greatly damaged. The building was of brick, three stories in height, with basement, 15 feet front by [illegible] feet deep. It was owned by Mr. Charles Kelsey, Jr. Books, papers, and all the contents were destroyed. The loss of stock and machinery was about $20,000, on which there was an insurance of $10,000 in several New York and Brooklyn offices. The value of the building was $6,000; fully covered by insurance. The fire, it is supposed, was caused by accident.

NEW JERSEY.

DEDICATION OF THE PASSIONIST FATHERS AT WEST HOBOKEN.—The ceremony of dedicating the new monastery of the Passionist Fathers at West Hoboken, took place yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of people. At present, the main building only is erected, situated on Montgomery avenue, near West Hoboken, on a high eminence of ground overlooking New York, Long Island, the Bay, and far up the North River. The object of this religious institution is for forming missionary societies for preaching the gospel, and to promote elevation to the passion of our Divine Saviour. The main building is built of granite rock, in the Normal style of architecture, 102 feet front by 57 feet deep, four stories and basement in height. The basement is designed for a dining-room, kitchen, carpenter shop, stateroom, bathroom, &c. On the first floor are two parlors, porter's room, community room, public chapel, community chapel, tailor's room, &c. On the second floor are sixteen rooms, to be occupied chiefly by the superiors of the institution and priests. On the third floor are sixteen rooms for the accommodation of the professors and students and on the fourth floor the same number of rooms to be occupied by the "community." There are also to be erected two wings, one to be 100 feet in length by 60 feet deep for a chapel, and the other 100 feet by 40 for the use of gentlemen wishing to retire for a longer or shorter period.

The dedicatory services commenced yesterday afternoon, at half-past 3 o'clock, and the following was the order of the ceremony: Vespers; Celebrant, Very Rev. Father Dominick Surlatini, Provincial Superior; Deacon, Rev. Addonis Magno, Pastor; Sub-Deacon, Rev. John Bandinelli, from Dunkirk, N. Y.; Master of Ceremony, Rev. Thomas O'Connor. After vespers at St. Mary's Chapel, the procession formed in the following order, and marched to the monastery: Sunday-school children; Guild of the Sacred Passion; members of the Passionist community, 78 in number; chalices. On arriving at the new monastery, an address was presented to the Provincial Superior by the President of the Guild, Mr. Patrick Welldon, in the name of St. Mary's congregation. The new monastery was then blessed without and within, and the service closed with a benediction. Those present were then invited to visit the edifice.

Services will be held in the new chapel attached to the monastery today, (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at half-past 5 o'clock P. M., and on Friday for the feast of St. Michael on Tuesday, 29th, when high mass will be sung in the new chapel, at 10 A. M.; vespers with benediction, at 5 P. M.

MEDICINES.

A TESTIMONIAL TO THE INDIAN HERB DOCTOR.
Ladies with broken-down and delicate constitutions, suffering from pain in the back, loss of debility, pain, hazard countenance, lassitude of the muscular system, diseases of the heart, &c., &c., should call on the Indian Herb Doctor, who has cured me.
MRS. W. M. AITKEN,
118 Eighth st., N.Y.

We use such Balms as have no strife,
With Nature or the Laws of Life
With blood our hands we never stain,
Nor poison men to ease their pain.

Our Father—whom all goodness fills,
Provides the means to cure all ills;
The simple Herbs beneath our feet,
Well used, relieve our pains complete.

A simple Herb, a simple Flower,
Culled from the dewy Lea,—
These, these shall speak with touching power
Of change and health to thee.
