We invite attention to the advertisement of vacant scholarship in Washington College, Chestertown, Md.

On and after September 1st, the morning and evening trains on the W. P. & C. railroad from Mechanicsville, will be discontinued and the usual Fall and Winter schedule go into effect.

Richard C. Moore and wife and daughter, of Washington, are guests of Moore's Hotel, Leonardtown. Mr. Moore and daughter have just returned from a trip to the World's Fair, St. Louis.

We are in receipt of the initial numbers of the Baltimore Evening Herald, and can certify that it is a first-class paper in every respect. We wish it great success, because we believe it will deserve it.

Levin Morris, of "Jutland", this county, made 5000 bushels of wheat this year. On some of his land over 40 bushels per acre was realized. What Southern Maryland farmer can beat this.

Reports from all sections of the county indicate that the corn and tobacco crops have been materially damaged by the drought. A conservative estimate is that these crops have been shortened at least a 1/2.

Saturday last Lewis Vallandigham, of Clements, told us that from one bushel of "patent" oats seeded by him he had realized nearly 60 bushels, and that because of an unfavorable spell of weather the oats didn't come up well.

Mr. Harry Fenwick, of Leonardtown, is spending his Summer vacation with relatives in Baltimore. Harry is one of the most popular young men who ever lived in our town and his many friends here wish him a pleasant outing.

St. Mary's Academy, Leonardtown, will reopen for the scholastic year 1904-5, on Monday, September 12, instead of the 6th, as at first announced. We hope that the school will attend as it is certainly one of the best schools in the State.

Tuesday last, Sheriff Freeman brought to Leonardtown and lodged in jail George Matthews, colored, sentenced by Justice Jarboe to the House of Correction on conviction of disorderly conduct. The Sheriff took the prisoner away the same evening.

Saturday last, Edwin Burton, colored, was brought to Leonardtown by Constable W. B. Long and, on warrant of Justice James J. Stone, lodged in jail charged on the oath of Agnes Burton, his wife, with brutally assaulting her. Sunday last Burton gave bail and was released for a hearing at the coming September term of Court.

Saturday night last, Philip Herman's storehouse at Hermanville was robbed of about 3 dozen pairs of shoes, several packages of ready-made pants and about 50 bottles of whiskey. It is supposed that some one concealed himself in the store when it was locked at night and opened it for outside confederates to come in and loot it. No arrests have as yet been made.

In this issue we print the levy list for St. Mary's County. All taxpayers ought to read it carefully and see how the taxes they contribute are expended. There are some typographical errors in the statement, the most important being the being the addition of a 2 in the amount subject to State tax which should read $3,257,329, and the amount in the Recapitulation levied for Hospitals for the Insane which should read $2000 and not $1200.

At the recent Tournament at Prince Frederick, Calvert county, the Charge to the Knights was delivered by B. Harris Cannell, of this town, and the Coronation Address by Derby A. ### ST. INIGO'S ITEMS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
A man may judge of the tree, by the circulation, the texture of the wood, the foliage, and the flowers, but he cannot speak with fullest confidence, till he sees the fruit. We have seen the fruit of field and garden. The ears of corn are large, the leaves of tobacco are well developed, the vines of tomatoes are prolific, potatoes of different species—sweet and Irish—yield well, and cabbage, onions, beets, egg plants, etc., are up to the standard. There is an abundance of fruit, and with few exceptions, it is finely flavored. Both canneries are at work, and $6.00 a ton is paid for tomatoes, which, it is said, is a remunerative price. Raisers have to do their own picking as it is impossible to get laborers. Men, women and very young children are employed at the canneries. Farmers may lose much of their fodder on account of the scarcity of laborers. We saw a farmer a few days ago scratching his head and making use of a few curse words, because several persons failed to put in an appearance in his corn field according to the most solemn promises. We cautioned him to be patient. He viewed us with eyes similar to those of the trainer of animals that cannot change their spots, and passed by. Few men, we suppose, have the genius of being patient, of loving those who repeatedly disappoint them. A sinner could not pass over a lily without marring it.

While making for domestic purposes will begin at an early day. All wine presumably is intoxicating, similar to the wine by which Noah was dishonored, by which Lot was defiled, wine, which is alluded to by one who is greater than Solomon, as a symbol of wrath.

Schools, public and private, will be opened at an early day for the reception of pupils. Some children have an indomitable love of learning. It secures an inborn passion, which no difficulties can restrain—a conatural flame which no waters of adversity can quench. Children of this type possess characters rimmed with a stern and all-constraining sense of duty. Their characters are their advance in age may become a rare combination of incorruptible honesty, inflexible integrity, an immovable firmness, with the most unaffected modesty, the most unartificial simplicity, and the most unblemished purity. Teachers have no occasion to present to pupils of this type a vocabulary of rules, for they have an exact appreciation for them.

Cigarette smoking appears to be decreasing. This certainly is pleasing as it is the most dangerous form of smoking. Cigarettes contain more nicotine and often opium. It is said that smoking cigars strong with nicotine caused the death of General U. S. Grant. It is certainly very poisonous. Boys should keep the following vividly in their minds: Cigarette smoking—a little pleasure, disease, and death.

Hard crabs are in demand and command from $1.50 to $2 a barrel net. Money just now is handled in tolerably large rolls by some persons. The dollar mark ($) is always pleasing to the eye.

The daily papers invariably contain statements that divorcees are sued for. Recently a woman wanted a divorce because her husband prayed too often. We suppose some badly treated husband in the not distant future will pray for a separation from the woman he has sworn to love and protect, because she would not help him to pay his last year's tailor bill out of her scanty earnings realized by selling eggs at 15 cents a dozen. If some married persons only knew how to live intelligently divorce lawyers would have anything to do, and many a fashionable one would be looking for another job. They would belong to the small fry—minnows.

Work is being pushed on the light house at Point-n-Point, and Mr. B. M. Dunbar, of St. Jerome's Neck, informs us that the contractor intend to complete it (d. v.) the current year.

Ruth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith, died recently of cholera infantum.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ford Yates have returned to Baltimore. Mr. Yates is an expert fisherman, and just before his return he caught the largest trout that has been seen hereabouts this season. The Potomac near Point Lookout is the principal fishing grounds of our anglers.

Mr. Irving L. Evans, son of J. Dallas Evans, Esq., has resigned his position as second officer of the steamship Gloucester, Merchants and Miners Transportation Company, to accept a position with the U. S. Engineer Department. After a short visit to his parents he will go in U. S. Steamer General Gillispie.

Gentle showers and the atmosphere is much cooler.

COMMUNICATED.
MILL HILL, Md., August 27, 1904.
Editors Beacon: Not being able at the present time to give you specially the exact amount realized at the several tables, gate money, &c., we can say the Dinner and Tournament given for the benefit of St. Nicholas Church on the 24th instant, was, financially, a success, something over $200 being taken in. The day was all that could be desired. The knights were marshalled by Dr. Henry Richardson and addressed by our popular school examiner, Prof. Geo. W. Joy. The coronation address was delivered by the doctor in his usual happy vein. The successful knights were Bennie Readmond, who crowned the lovely Miss Josie Swan, Queen, Robert McKay, who crowned his wife, Mrs. Mamie McKay, 1st Maid, Bertie Fish, who crowned Miss Eugie Wise, 2nd Maid, and Sammy Dyson, who crowned Miss Florence and 3rd Maid. The affair wound up with dancing, but as your correspondent left early in the evening, cannot give you particulars concerning it.

Farmers are busily engaged in securing their fodder and tobacco which is suffering somewhat now for rain.

Mr. Jeff B. Jarboe raised in his garden a tomatoe weighing one pound and eleven ounces. How many men can beat it.

Hurry Items.

Miss Grace Hall, of Washington, and Miss Irene Long, of Oakley, are visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hayden.

It has been whispered around that I have nothing to do but rather the news of the neighborhood for the Church of the Ascension, at eight o'clock of the evening of the twenty-third, Rev. Father Tighe officiating. The bride has been away from the county about four years; she attended college in Washington city for two years and the past two years she has been in New York city with her brother J. C. Edwards, filling a position as stenographer. Mr. Kinsey is the son of Mr. John W. Kinsey, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, and has for some years, been connected with the New York Central Railroad Company. The young couple will make their future home in New York city.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting.

Wears and covers like gold.
Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.

8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix six gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M., and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

Made to Order Clothing.
L. A. Jones & Son have their new Spring samples and can have you a spring suit made to fit you. We have a fine stock of Boys' suits which we are going to sell regardless of cost.

Get Your Money's Worth
You get your money's worth when you buy Elliott's Emulsified Oil Liniment. A half pint bottle costs you but 25 cents, and you get your money back if not satisfied with results. Use it in your family and on your stock. You'll not be disappointed. Loker & deWaal.

There is something both inspiring and uplifting in the thought that the soul is a physical and simple essence, and as no simple essence can perish its immortality arises not only from the co-essentiality of its properties and substance, but from the apparent impossibility of its being otherwise than what it is. What a soothing thought! The simplicity of the soul's nature insures the perpetuity of its existence and stamps immortality upon its character! Although moral evil has sunk the soul beneath its primitive rank in the scale of created excellency, there is no cause for despair that it will never be restored to its primitive dignity and native grandeur; for if the soul while imprisoned in its house of clay seeks pardon by faith in the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, already it is freed from the curse of the law, and it will walk before Him, even on earth, in the newness of life. This is sin blotted out; the life of holiness is begun; sickness is sanctified; and death is made the gateway of life. What a change is this! It is glory below! The Lord Jesus Christ is God and man. God in human nature has become a high priest, touched with the feeling of our infirmities, has entered the domain of the law, and has become the end of law for righteousness to every man who believeth. How consoling to the writer that his departed friend, John F. Combs, was an unwavering and humble believer in the great God-Man, and kept in his mind—went to God daily with his soul on his lips and in his heart: "I am a lost sinner; but I believe that, for me, Christ died; I accept His mercy, and trust in His blood." He had the spirit of the good Samaritan. Any person, irrespective of nationality or religion, he knew or heard of, or passed by, was his neighbor and was entitled to his sympathy and aid, if in need or distress. He regarded it his duty to his fellow-man—not meriting anything by so doing. He believed he would be saved by grace. There are two ports beyond, and we indulge the hope that our departed friend has entered the harbor of rest and is forever at home with the pure and blessed.

"Hark! it is the Bridegroom's voice—
"Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest!
Now, within the gate rejoice,
Safe, and sealed, and bought and blessed."

Young Plants
Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Edwards, of Chaptico, announce the marriage of their daughter Josephine Mary, to Mr. Charles Kinsey, of New York City.
