Tournament and Ball. Correspondence of the Beacon.

The tournament and ball held at the residence of Mr. Walter Hebb, near Valley Lee, on August 23rd, under the management of the Ladies' Guild of Poplar Hill Church, was socially and financially more successful than any that has been given by that organization, for some time. The day was an ideal one and the large crowd present enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Many thanks are due to the ladies of the congregation and many of the gentlemen also who may well feel proud that their efforts were crowned with such success. The amount realized was in the neighborhood of $125.00.

The Misses Emily and Edna Freeman, with their guest, Mrs. Ellis of Washington, enjoyed an oyster roast Friday morning on the beach at their island home. The ladies picked up the oysters, built the fire and cooked the oysters unassisted by the stronger sex, and had a thoroughly delightful time. The affair was so successful that they intend to repeat it at an early date, when they will prepare the feast for the benefit of some of their gentlemen friends, who may care to partake of it. Don't all speak at once. H. K.

Personal. Hayden & Bullock, the new Leonardtown merchants invite one and all to examine their new stock of shoes that has just been received from Baltimore.

At high noon Tuesday, August 30, in Charlotte Hall, at Dent Memorial Church, Miss Jane Turner Petherbridge was married to Captain Horace Milton Bell, of Haskell, N. J., the officiating clergyman being Rev. J. W. Chesley, rector of the parish and Rev. L. H. Jackson, of Philadelphia, uncle of the bride.

The church had been tastefully decorated by the young people of the village. Promptly at noon the wedding party arrived. At the opening strains of the Loehner Wedding March, rendered by Miss Anna L. Marshall, of Washington, D. C., the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Mattie E. Harrison, of the bridesmaids, Misses Ethel M. Canter, Lillian S. Harrison and Lucy B. Chesley and the ushers, Messrs. Edward W. Petherbridge, brother of the bride, Earle T. Harrison, of College Park, and T. K. Harrison, of Beaumont, Texas. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Captain William B. Martin, of Elizabeth, New Jersey. The bride was handsomely gowned in crepe-de-chine of the new champagne suit, with a picture hat of the same shade, and carried bride's roses. She looked especially sweet, pretty and happy. The maid-of-honor wore a handsome gown of white silk mulle, with yoke of satin ribbon faggoted over tucked chiffon, with similar trimming on skirt and carried bridesmaid's roses. The bridesmaids wore dainty dresses of Paris mulle, the entire yoke being narrow satin ribbon faggoted and hand worked with similar trimming on skirt. Each carried bouquets of pink and white China Asters.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaids wore picture hats of black chiffon and made very charming pictures. The groom and best man were attired in gray trousers, white vest, and black sack coat, the ushers being similarly attired.

An especially pretty feature of the ceremony was the four ribbon carriers, Messrs. Stanley, Edward, Spencer and Theo. Harrison, cousins of the bride, two of whom remained at the door and two preceded the bridal party, stretching the ribbon from door to chancel steps. This was reversed as the bridal party left the altar, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, releasing the congregation from their temporary imprisonment.

While awaiting the arrival of the bride the organist rendered selections from Mendelssohn's 'Athalia' and 'Tannhauser' and during the ceremony softly played 'Oh, Promise Me.' After the church ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride to the wedding party and a few immediate relatives, followed by a reception.

Capt. and Mrs. Bell left on the afternoon train for Washington, where they took the boat for Boston and other points North. After their tour, they will reside at Haskell, N. J., where their new home is awaiting them.

Mrs. Bell is the only daughter of Dr. G. Weems and Mrs. Lucy Y. Petherbridge, has been one of the most popular young ladies of this section, and has a wide circle of friends in Washington, Baltimore, Annapolis and other places. The groom is the only son of Major James A. E. Bell, of Washington.

Capt. Bell served during the Spanish war and participated in the attack on Santiago. He is now Assistant Superintendent and Chemist in the Laffin & Rand Powder Company and is also Inspector of Rifle Practice of the 2nd Regiment of the N. J. National Guard, with the rank of Captain. About a year ago he was sent to England as one of the competitors in the International Rifle contest.

The bride was the recipient of very many handsome and valuable presents. Among those present from a distance were: Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Jackson, of Phila.; Miss Bertha Petherbridge, of Duncirk, Md.; W. B. Petherbridge and Miss Annie Petherbridge, of Nutwell, Md.; Mrs. Ellen Chapman, Mrs. M. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Farr, Major and Mrs. Jas. E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moss, Miss Rebecca Milburn, of Washington, Mrs. R. W. Silvester, College Park; Miss Nellie Florence Bowen, of Aquasco; Miss Nellie Bateman, of Belair; Mrs. Richard Gough and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Wicomico; Miss Bessie Reeves, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McPherson, of Bryantown, Md.

A Leap-Year Masquerade. On Friday last the young ladies of the village, assisted by Mrs. F. O. Morgan and Mrs. H. B. de Waal, gave at Wise's Hotel a leap-year masquerade, which proved to be a success in every respect. Promptly at 8, as Carter's band gave the signal, those who had masked marched through the grape arbor into the dining-room, where they were met by a large crowd which had gathered to join them and see whom they could recognize. Those who masked were: Misses—

Eileen Combs, College Girl; Juliet Miles, French Lady; Catharine Morgan, Gipsy; Louise Cammaller, Sailor Girl; Annie Morgan, Little Girl; Addie Lynch, Old-fashioned Lady; Nancy Combs, Martha Washington; Edith Evans, Fairy Godmother; Marguerite Duke, Boo Boo; Marguerite Abell, Cinderella; Bessie Abell and Ruth Cammaller, Scotch Lassie; Madeline Cammaller, Grecian Goddess; Mavis Lynch, Cigarette Girl; Mary Waters, Flower Girl; Eleanor Cammaller, Quaker Maid; Messrs—

Cammaller, Butler Brown; Henry Loker, Hubert Kennedy; Abell, Six Hope King; Joe Morgan, Prince; Tom Roby, Gold Maid; Claude Lynch, Old Girl; Aloysius King, Old Black Joe.

While quite a number of dances have been given here this summer, yet possibly no one of these has been either so pleasant or memorable, for this was the closing one of the season. Every detail was carefully observed and boys danced only when they were asked. At midnight refreshments, consisting of ice-cream and cake were served, and dancing was again resumed until 2:30—then came "Home, Sweet Home"—which meant farewell to "The Good Old Summer Time."

Personal. Everybody knows that sick headache, biliousness, sallowness and constipation are caused by a disordered liver. But everybody doesn't know that laziness, that tired feeling, dizziness, the blues, irritability and sleeplessness are also due to the same cause. If your liver is acting well, your skin will be clear, eyes bright, spirits buoyant, appetite good, health good. Rydale's Liver Tablets will make your liver act right and they will do it in such a pleasant way that you will hardly realize that you are taking medicine. Rydale's Liver Tablets are guaranteed to cure chronic constipation and all liver diseases and disorders. Your money refunded if these tablets do not give satisfaction. Loker & deWaal.

ST. INIGO'S ITEMS. [From Our Regular Correspondent.]

No idleness of consequence. The majority of citizens, white and colored, knowing that exercise gives health, vigor, cheerfulness, sound sleep and a keen appetite, prefer to work. The forge in which iron is softened in order to take again a new existence is kept more or less heated; and the file which is used to sharpen the saw and prepares the instrument and delivers it useful into the hands of the carpenter seldom rusts.

Roads are in excellent condition and there certainly is no occasion for engaging the tongue in an unfriendly way. Young folks to whom life seems but a paroxysm of pleasure may travel to and from parties with considerable velocity, as the springs of their vehicles which have a decidedly beneficial effect in relieving the abruptness of irregularities upon the road's surface are not forced to yield as formerly. Road Supervisor Wm. B. Pembroke knowing something of the theory of wheel carriages, gauges his work accordingly. He is the right man in the right place.

Merchants are kept tolerably busy. So far as we know they give fair weight and measure. How thankful we should be that standard measures of modern times, not only of length but of capacity, are made with great accuracy—length and divisions being adjusted by microscopic observation.

We notice that some fodder has been pulled and purchasers pay 75 cents a hundred bundles.

Old corn is scarce and commands $3.50 a barrel delivered.

Some sickness and Mr. Edwin Ridgel is ill with asthma.

Cupid, well he is rampant. We have heard it said that marriages are made in heaven. Maybe so. We think that a marriage should only be entered into when both of the parties are morally certain that they are necessary to each others existence—that life would be a dreary waste without the oasis of the loved one. Variability of temper is most unfortunate. Oh! what a temper Mrs. so-and-so has at times, says Mrs. Gossip. It goes up like a rocket and comes down like an avalanche; a miracle of smiles or weeping Nibs, a driving tempest or a flashing sunbeam.

Cooks are scarce, and the old fashioned ones are things of the past. Search for them and they are like the meteor, "all ways fall in the next county."

Mrs. Essie Cecil, Mrs. W. S. Yates and Miss Florence Cecil, of Charles county, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jarboe, Ridge.

Mrs. M. E. Clark, of St. Jerome's Neck, is visiting relatives, Baltimore, Md.

Wheat, lambs and calves are the principal consignments made from Miller's Wharf.

That man is an omnivorous and herbivorous animal no sane person will deny. Hog and hominy, his principal diet in many sections, measurably verify this assertion. We are pleased to state that barring disease, etc., there will be a fairly large killing of hogs in the district the ensuing cold season, and despite the recent drought corn will yield well in some localities. We have the assertions of reliable farmers for our assertions: Is it not cheering? Thanks to Him who doeth all things well.

Copious showers visited this section 2nd instant.

Miss Pearl Clarke, daughter of Judge S. Clarke, after visiting relatives in Washington and New York city, returned home a few days ago. Mrs. Clarence Townsend, of the latter city, accompanied her.

Our sympathy goes out to farmers. They find it impossible to employ laborers to help them to secure their crops. Little boys, minus their and sinews and muscles of men, are compelled to attempt to do men's work.

Recently the colored Catholics gave an entertainment for the benefit of St. Ignatius', St. Michael's and St. Peter Claver's Churches and realized $150 net. The white members of the churches named gave two entertainments for a similar purpose and realized $175 net. The Methodists gave an entertainment for the benefit of Friendship M. E. Church, Tall Pine, recently, and realized a considerable amount.

It is pleasing to know that ministers of the Gospel make their way by the point of their piety and with the wedge of religious sentiment.

Mrs. Lewis Stone has returned home after spending a week or so with her son Eddie in Cearis county.

Mrs. Willie Tenney, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in the county.

There was a very enjoyable entertainment given at the home of Mrs. Eugene Lyon on Wednesday evening last. Ice-cream and confectioneries of all kinds were in abundance. Dancing was kept up until about one. The ladies present were Misses Agnes and Lucy Russell, Lucy Herbert, the Misses Maggie and Pearl Hayden, Misses Wood, Julia Stone; Messrs. J. D. Hurry, Peter Hancock, Willie Hayden, G. Stone, Ludwell Herbert, Frank Hayden.

Mr. J. D. Hurry having purchased a fine motor is prepared to meet any of his friends on the road. He says he is tired of people driving by him. Brother Clem you had better look out.

It is reported that we will have a new store open up at Hurry in the near future.

Judging from the appearance of our colored neighbors around and about Hurry they are the happiest people in the world. They seem to think it is time enough for everything and never worry. One of the most popular of them has just finished siding corn, and has quite a large crop. Another very industrious one having planted quite a large crop of tobacco about August 2 now waits for a rain so that he can replant. Everything comes to the man who sits and waits.

T. C. Suffer given for the benefit of the St. Thomas Benevolent Society was a grand success. Politics seem to be booming up some in this neighborhood, as you can often see small gatherings discussing the situation. J. B. P.

St. George's Island. [Correspondence of the Beacon.]

On Sunday, August 23, fifteen members of St. Francis Xavier's Church, of St. George, received their first Holy Communion. Father Fullerton, S. J., the pastor, made an address very appropriate to the joyous occasion. The music and choir were under the direction of Miss Annie Lobrecht, organist.

The St. George Hotel, under the management of Messrs. Hobbs, Chooser & Trice will close about the 15th after a very successful season. A party of 25 young men from Washington will come to the hotel next Sunday to spend a week's fishing in the surrounding waters.

Miss Nora Duke, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Hobbs.

Budd's Creek Items. [Correspondence of the Beacon.]

Mr. U. Lee Maguire made a flying trip to Baltimore last week.

Crops in this neighborhood, considering the lack of rain, are looking very good.

R. A. P'Anson is clerking for Mr. U. Lee Maguire, this place.

Mr. W. B. Burroughs, we are pleased to say, is fast recovering from the severe wound he received in his wrist some days ago.

Mr. Arthur Reaney, who has been the guest of Mr. Gwynn Gough, of Budd's Creek, has, we are sorry to say, returned to his home at Oakley.

The stores of Budd's Creek seem to do the r's share of business. A. H.

Consumption. The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption." People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.
