NANCY WYNNE TALKS OF MORE CHARITY AFFAIRS THIS MONTH

Big Benefit Out at Latham Park Next Wednesday, to Be Called the Fete of Nations—Affair Is Given for Hahnemann Hospital

AS SOON as one charity affair is over another one is on. Now all our efforts are directed toward the big affair which will be given next Wednesday afternoon and evening out at Latham Park, on the Elkins estate, Old York road and City line. This fete is being arranged under the auspices of the Board of Women Managers of the Hahnemann Hospital, and has attracted the support of many of the women prominent in social and charitable circles.

The amusement section for children will be under the charge of Mrs. Howard C. Potts, and will include riding and driving ponies, a roller coaster and a museum.

A most interesting feature of the fete will be the exhibition by two star athletes of the University of Pennsylvania, Michael Dorizas and Howard Berry. The athletic program includes races, wrestling, throwing the discus, hurling the javelin and "the race for the golden apple."

Teas and ices will be served in Japanese gardens which will be decorated in an attractive Oriental manner, and supper will be served on the lawn from 6 until 8 o'clock. The music will be furnished by a Hungarian orchestra and there will be a display of national and folk dances by pupils of the Newman Ballet School.

Among the women who are interested and have undertaken to have charge of the booths are Mrs. Dorothy Potter, Mrs. Scott Fowler, Mrs. James P. E. Scott, Mrs. W. M. Bains, Mrs. M. P. Livezey, Mrs. John Shoemaker, Mrs. M. R. Williams, Mrs. John H. Whittaker, the Baroness von Hiller, Mrs. Dudley Saul, Mrs. Herbert Leopold, Mrs. John Gribbel, Mrs. Walter Herring, Mrs. Joseph S. McCulloch, Mrs. Joseph M. Steele, Mrs. I. Harrison O'Harra, Mrs. Jay Gates, Mrs. Bernard Wolff, Mrs. W. P. Scott, Mrs. Ernest L. Tustin, Mrs. Biddle R. Marsden, Mrs. George C. Thomas, Jr., Mrs. Gideon Boericke, Mrs. A. B. Hubard and Mrs. Henry M. Watts. Mrs. Clarence Bartlett is chairman of the Entertainment Committee. In case of rain the fete will be postponed until the first clear day thereafter.

The fete at the Ogontz school was a great success, and it is interesting to learn who won what in the various contests and who did special stunts at the "shindig." About the greatest success of the evening and the most popular with the men was the paddle wheel. At least $100 must have been taken in. All the men were winning silk stockings, if you please, for their wives or best girls. "They should worry" if said hosiery cost $5 or even more per pair, when they won them for 15 cents.

The auto was won by Joe Widener. Imagine the consternation when one who already owned many cars annexed another. Not that we grudged it; oh, no! But it would have been nice to have a small car for one plunk, don't you think? Mrs. Fitz-Eugene Dixon carried home the lamb, which she won for a quarter, and Mrs. Ben Rowland acquired the small pup, which was on chances for 25 cents also. Mrs. Rowland looked very cute carrying him home under her arm; but her joy had alloy in the thought of the Airedale at home who might not like his new brother. Mrs. Henry Kasselman won the cigarette case and Sarah Rengier the gold safety razor; so all of Sarah's best beaux had best be on their good behavior and see who will be the lucky man to whom she will present it. It was almost impossible to get into the room where Tom Daly was telling stories. Tom is such a winner with the "ladies" with his true Irish wit. He has a taking way, you know, and certainly can make people come across. Altogether it was a wonderful affair and I'm glad I went.
