Archbishop's Religious Dog.

The famous St. Bernard dog trained to a show of religious practices by a Benedictine monk has a rival in a collie owned by Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia. The collie struck up an acquaintance with the Archbishop one day while he was taking his customary walk in Fairmount Park, and thereafter stuck close to the heels of the prelate, even to the doors of the episcopal residence.

"Begone!" commanded the Archbishop, who was afraid that some one might think he was trying to smuggle the handsome animal into the house. The dog went sheepishly down the steps, but, catching sight of the Archbishop's kindly look, bounded up again, wagging his tail.

"Well, come in," said the prelate, and the collie obeyed with a bound.

Since that day, a year ago, he has been an attaché of the Archbishop's household. He knows how to put his paws together in an attitude of prayer, he "sings," thumps the piano with his big paws and exhibits penitence for misbehavior. The students around the archiepiscopal residence have taken the greatest pains with his religious education and the collie would no more think of barking during religious service than he would of trying to pick a quarrel with the sculptured hound on the lawn. During religious processions he assumes of his own accord an attitude of respect, sitting on his hind legs and remaining motionless until the procession passes.

The dog had not been long in the possession of the Archbishop before Mr. Ryan discovered that he belonged to another man who was much chagrined at his loss. This real owner approached the Archbishop as he and the collie were strolling in the park one day.

"I beg your pardon, sir," said the man, "but that's my dog."

"Maybe it is," said his excellency, laughing. "I never was sure he was mine; he followed me home."

The stranger called to the animal, which seemed delighted to see him. Then he showed the Archbishop that the collie had a pedigree which would arouse the envy of half the blue-blooded dogs in the city.

"I've spent weeks hunting for him," resumed the stranger, "and now that I've found him you can have him."

The Archbishop offered to buy the dog, but the man insisted that he accept the collie as a gift, and he did. Every morning now the collie accompanies Mr. Ryan on his walk through the park. He knows the hours of the services in the cathedral and can be usually seen at the side door waiting for the Archbishop to come out. Whether there is service or not he never tries to enter the church.

The dog's value is rated at about $500, but five times that amount could not buy him from the Archbishop.

A Twice Told Tale.

We wish to repeat what he has said once before in these columns that Elliott's Emulsified Oil Liniment is the best Liniment ever produced for use in the family and on animals. Best for rheumatism, lameness, stiffness and soreness of joints or muscles. Best for bruises, contusions, sprains and swellings. You get a full half pint for 25c and get your money back if it does not do all it is recommended to do. Loker & deWaal.

"I'm afraid Johnny," said the Sunday school teacher rather sadly "that I shall never meet you in the better land." "Why? What have you been doing now?"

Every daughter, no matter in what class she is born, ought to be taught all household duties to make her capable of household command. Marriage is too generally looked upon as woman's sole profession. Every girl should be taught an industry of some sort, according to the bent of her inclinations, which will render her independent of matrimony.

Mr. Kirksey's Recommendation.

Mr. Kirksey writes:—I give a positive guarantee with every box of Rydale's Stomach Tablets and Liver Tablets I sell, and have never been asked to refund the money in a single instance. I have used these tablets in my family with best results. W. L. Kirksey, Morgantown, N. C. Rydale's Tablets are prepared by The Radical Remedy Company, Hickory, N. C. who authorize every dealer in their preparations to guarantee every box or bottle of their medicine, they sell. Loker & deWaal.

Jealousy is always looking for something it does not want to find.

It Scared Him.

A Virginian was showing a company of Northern men over a battle-field, when one of them said: "I am reminded of an incident which occurred here. I had charge of a gun over there near Fort Morton. One Sunday, while there was no firing going on and we were all loafing about, I saw a man come over that hill by the cemetery and down across this slope toward the rear of the Confederate lines. His comfortable and serene manner irritated me. I determined to see how close I could come to him and we all chuckled at the idea of scaring the life out of him. I took good aim and landed a shot about six feet from him. You ought to have seen him jump! He was the most demoralized Johnny Reb you ever saw. How did he run! and how we laughed to see him!"

"So you are the man who fired that shot, are you?" said the Virginian.

"Yes; do you know anything about it?" "Well, I think I do," was the reply; "I was the fellow you shot at. I was a lad coming with something for my father, who was in the works. I didn't suppose there was a Yankee fool enough or mean enough to shoot a cannon at one little fellow carrying grub to his father. But you don't exaggerate the scare. I didn't grow another inch in a year."—Ex.

A Cold, a Cough—Consumption.

A brief told history, but true, Rydale's Cough Elixir will prevent this happening to you. It will check the progress of a cold at once, prevent the cough becoming deep seated, and thus ward off consumption. This modern scientific remedy kills the germs that cause throat and lung diseases, and by its stimulating and tonic effect upon the respiratory organs help nature speedily restore these organs to robust health. RYDALE'S TONIC

A REAL CURE FOR MALARIA. It has recently been discovered that the germs that produce Malaria breed and multiply in the blood vessels, and are carried throughout the system by means of the blood. This fact explains why Malaria is hard to cure by the use of quinine, iron, etc., as it is not the blood that is the seat of the disease, but the blood vessels. Rydale's Tonic has a specific effect upon the blood vessels and cures them from all disease-bearing microbes. It also kills the germs that infect the blood vessels, and thus prevents a relapse of the disease. Rydale's Tonic is a powerful tonic and a most valuable remedy for all cases of Malaria. It will not disappoint you.
