FAIRBANKS IS AWAKENING.

Just as a plant that has been suffering from drought begins to show signs of new life when refreshing rains come to its aid, so Fairbanks is beginning to revive from the dullest season in its history. This change is a result of the beginning of the railroad surveys and the restoration of confidence in the future of the district.

Although the passage of the railroad bill by congress aroused much local enthusiasm, the people here did not seem to realize their good fortune until the railroad engineers arrived and began work. Since then there has been a noticeable revival in the demand for real estate and a new atmosphere of prosperity is evident.

Another thing that is boosting local conditions is the way local quartz prospects are attracting the interest of the people on the Outside. Everybody feels that here in the Fairbanks district there are hidden valuable quartz ledges that can be developed into mines of vast possibilities. But to develop the prospects now being worked on a small scale will take more capital than is available here for that purpose, and thus the awakening interest of Outside capitalists in the mining situation here is as much a cause of optimism as is the construction of the railroad, though without the railroad the other would probably not be realized.—Fairbanks Citizen.

FRANK YOUNGS SLUICING IN GOOD GRAVEL

J. P. Kalning, who arrived from Cooper creek Wednesday evening, says that Frank E. Youngs has been sluicing since last Friday and that he is in very good ground. He has not yet cleaned up but the gold can be seen in several places on the bedrock. One young lady picked up several coarse pieces from the gravel. The gold is coarser than shot. — Seward Gateway.

WAR EFFECTS RUBBER.

The European war has caused rubber goods to take a decided advance which will mean that in the near future we will feel the advance on our local market. Mr. Britt, of Britt's Pharmacy, has forseen this increase and has laid in a big supply of hot water bottles and fountain syringes which may be had for the same old price and they are all guaranteed for two years. Remember this: Always buy the best; we do. 8-20-tf.

PROPHETIC VISION.

(By S. J. Weitzman, Haines, Alaska.)

I see the form of a woman, floating upon the sea of human fate. She carries aloft, three torches of universal corruption. One representing war, one bigotry and hypocrisy, and the third, law, all dangerous foundations. I see the great conflagration which started about 1913 in southeastern Europe, and we also hear the lamentations of huge battle fields. We also see Europe in flames, and bleeding. But in the year 1915, which will start September 21st, 1914, according to the Hebrew Calendar, I see a change as predicted in the prophesy of Count Tolstoy, (see the American Theosophist, May, 1913). A strange figure enters the stage of the bloody drama, and this is our Beloved President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, with his cabinet. Though he is a man of little military training, he will hold most of Europe in his grip until the above mentioned three torches of universal corruption will be repealed to the satisfaction of the old and new world; as a mission is assigned to him by a Superior Power, to make a new political era for the whole world. No Empires and Kingdoms, but the whole world will form a Federation of the U. S. of Nations.

RATTLING GOOD PROGRAM AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

There will be a rattling good program at the Grand theatre tonight to include the following:

"Her Innocent Marriage"—The wife marries again, believing her worthless husband dead, only to find that the grave gives up its dead. It is a powerful dramatic story.

"They Were Sweethearts"—A Western America film feature.

"Bueystres Home"—An amateur detective attempts to solve a problem and gets a lot of people into trouble.

"The Sea Dog"—two reels. A child tells the sailor to bring back his father.

"Just Rube"—A comedy that would make a grouchy husband laugh before breakfast was served.
