GOOD TIME

Ladies of the Maccabees Will Celebrate May Day

The coming of the May will be celebrated under the auspices of the Ladies of the Maccabees at the Maccabee hall next Tuesday evening with a May basket social. All the people of Skagway have been invited to join in the celebration.

The ladies attending the social, including both the members of the order and others, will furnish May baskets, and the men will be required to pay 50 cents each for them.

The evening will be spent in the rollicking games that usually attend May parties. There will be a May pole and a "Queen 'o the May."

The good of the order committee, Mrs. E. Feero, Mrs. F. M. Lucavish and Mrs. C. E. Jones, have charge of the affair.

Next Tuesday is the regular meeting night of the order, but the meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. and will adjourn before 8:30, at which time the social will begin.

Sk gway Girl Marries

Cards were received in Skagway yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frank, formerly of this city, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Wilhelmena Edna Frank, to Fred Richmond Bunker, at Tacoma, April 19, Mr. and Mrs Bunker will be at home at 5635 Warner street, Tacoma, after May 15. The bride, as Miss Minnie Frank, was one of the most popular members of Skagway's younger society set.

DOWNING COMES WITH MERCHANDISE

Ben S. Downing, the Fairbanks merchant and freighter, known to fame as a lower Yukon mail carrier, arrived on the Humboldt with a large bunch of stock and left on the train this morning for Whitehorse. In addition to the goods which accompanied Mr. Downing he was preceded by a large outfit which is now below Labarge.

Mr. Downing brought six big St. Louis mules with him and he will freight some of his goods to Yukon Crossing from which place he will take the river.

GOOD PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT

One of the best programs ever arranged for the Skagway Literary and Debating Society will be rendered tonight at the Presbyterian church. It will be the last meeting of this society for the season. The feature of the program tonight will be the lecture by E. J. Shaw on the life of Napoleon. A good list of literary and musical numbers will be given.

Gui d Names Officers

At the meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Saviour's church yesterday afternoon the following officers were elected: Mrs. John Beckman, president; Mrs. J. E. Barragar, vice president; Miss Langdon, secretary, and Mrs. I. N. Wilcoxen, treasurer.

Geese Go North

A large flock of geese passed northward today shortly after the noon hour. Even the geese prefer this to the Valdez route.—Whitehorse Star.

Cottage City Had a Narrow Escape

The steamship Cottage City, of the Pacific Coast Steamshsp Company, nearly came to an untimely end on her last trip from Skagway to Seattle. While passing through Seymour Narrows her steering gear broke and she smashed into a hidden reef. The same that caused the destruction of a British man-of-war some years ago.

The force of the collission was so severe that the Cottage City careened until she took water over her side. In an instant everything on board was thrown into a wild state of confusion. Passengers hastily gathered on deck and a panic might have ensued but for the demeanor of the captain, crew and officers. The ship quickly drifted off and proceeded on her way.

The Cottage City was put on the dry dock upon reaching Seattle. She will sail for Skagway tomorrow.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Troubles—No Family Can Afford To Be Without It

"I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as one of the very best remedies for bowel troubles," says Mr. J. W. Hanlon, editor of the Despatch, Ocilla, Georgia. "I make this statement after having used the medicine in my family for several years. I am never without it." No family can afford to be without a bottle of this remedy in the house. It is certain to be needed sooner or later. For sale by Kelly Drug Co.

MODES OF SPRING.

A New Skirt Model—Some Leading Ideas In Waists.

The newest spring skirt is a resurrection of one that was a novelty a dozen years ago—the bell or umbrella skirt. It is very slightly eased in at the waist, with the fullness set into plaits behind and falling in folds at the feet, where the skirt measures about eight yards.

In waists there are three leading ideas—the carefully draped bodice which is tucked across the upper part of the figure, the crossover blouse bodice above a well boned high corselet belt and the jacket, by which the Frenchwoman means any of the highly decorative variations of the Louis XV. coat.

These Louis coats are very useful, as they permit the wearing of one jacket with different skirts, provided there is an affinity between the two.

The Louis coat may be of brocade, voile, taffeta or lace. It may be close fitting, with shaped basque, or it may be blouse, with a deep belt and full basque.

Sleeves have reversed the order of arrangement. The puff has mounted from wrist to shoulder, all fullness coming once more from the armhole. This fullness in some instances is so great that wholebone epaulets are used to support the fullness. Elbow sleeves are used for all except tailor made and morning gowns.

The gown in the picture is of chine silk of a pale mode color, flowered over with thistles. The skirt is gathered three times down its length and falls full at the feet in a deep ruffle. The attractive little coat is laid in folds about the figure and skirts across the shoulders, forming a ruffle over the tucked sleeves. About the neck and down the front is a trimming of embroidery motifs edged with lace. These are mounted over pale green velvet, which also forms the girdle and cuff, both of which are fastened with large jade buttons.

ATTRACTIVE STYLES.

Fashions For the Wee Folk—How to Make a Lawn Skirt.

Pongee coats for the little tots are made up in the quaintest kind of fashion and are both practical and smart. They are cool and clean.

Smocking done in three points is an inexpensive trimming for a two-year-old infant's morning dress.

Tucks on the skirts of grownup gowns are larger and in groups of two or three. A simple way to make a white lawn skirt is in three ruffles. Each ruffle has at the bottom two rather large tucks. The depth of the deepness are regulated by the height of the wearer.

Corset covers with several lace trimmed ruffles hold out the thin waists wonderfully.

Amethysts are in vogue now and one in all sorts of attractive settings.

ANGLAISE BRODERIE WAIST.

Very stunning are belt buckle and necklace carried out in amethysts in a dull silver design.

All over anglaise broderie makes the fetching waist seen in the cut. A ruffle of the broderie put on to form a vest effect in front widens out over the shoulders into a pretty shoulder ruffle. The sleeves puff to the elbow and there meet a deep cuff made on the cross of the all over.
