mens would be frozen. If the temperature of the apartment is likely to fluctuate, then it is important to pack them in some substance which will prevent sudden changes from externally affecting the fruit, as cotton batting, dry leaves, baked saw-dust &c.

WINTER PEARS.—As already remarked, winter pears, as well as apples, keep much longer if left in a cool outhouse till the arrival of freezing weather. After placing in the cellar, they require special care. Unlike apples, they must be accessible to frequent examination, as most sorts will remain without rotting but a few days after they are ripe enough to eat. They may, therefore, be placed upon shelves; and, as they do best in the dark, it will be useful to keep them covered with blankets. Still better is it to place them in drawers, if only small quantities are to be kept. Pears, generally, are less liable to shrivel and more apt to rot, than apples, and, for this reason, a drier cellar should be chosen for them, or one which has the bottom and sides plastered with water lime cement. We find no difficulty in having a good supply of Anjou, Winter Nelis and Lawrence throughout December and into the middle of January, and sometimes into February, while Josephine de Malines and Alengon keep through the last named month. It is necessary, however, to watch them, and remove those which are in danger of decay, and to keep the apartment cold without freezing, with the assistance of thermometers. All this care is more than repaid by a regular supply of juicy and delicious pears in the depth of winter.

Harris's Carpet.

Mrs. Harris told hubby that she must have a carpet for the front room, and she thought that a fifty dollar one would suit.

Mr. Harris called in at the auction-room the next day.

He didn't know a velvet from a rag carpet, but he bid as if he had been in the business from childhood.

The auctioneer put up a beautiful ingrain, worth about five cents a mile, and asked how much he heard.

Mr. Harris bid fifty cents a yard.

Mr. Beales, who was in another part of the store, had been indulging very freely, and he said, "Five."

Mr. Harris wanted the carpet and he bid sixty. Mr. Beales said, "Five."

"Seventy!" shouted Mr. Harris.

"Five!" came from Beales' corner.

Mr. Harris became angry, and determined to have that carpet if he never laid up a cent; so he yelled, "One dollar!"

Mr. Beales never moved an eyelash, but he said, "Five!"

By the time that the two had run the carpet up to four dollars a yard, both were red in the face. Mr. Beales' "five" came regularly, and all other bidders gave up in despair. Beales gave the people in his neighborhood to understand that "that was his carpet."

Mr. Harris winked at his friends with a wink that said "If I don't get that carpet you can put me down for a horse thief."

Before the auctioneer was over Harris had bid eleven dollars, and Beales said, "Five."

The carpet was finally knocked down to Beales; but when it was ascertained that he only had five cents, the auctioneer's trusty assistant showed Mr. Beales the hole the carpenter had left in the front of the building.

Mr. Harris finally got the carpet for nine dollars a yard, and when he got it home, having neglected to measure the room, he found that it wouldn't fit the first floor of a corn-crib.

Mrs. Harris informed H. confidentially that he was a "darned fool," and that he didn't know enough to go in the house when it rained. She uses the carpet for a table cloth, and Harris buys his carpets at a regularly organized store now.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

An Effectual Specific for all diseases of the Liver Stomach and spleen.

Regulate the Liver and prevent CHILLS AND FEVER, MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COMPLAINTS, BILIOUSNESS, JAUNDICE and NAUSEA.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

BAD BREATH!

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take Simmons' Liver Regulator. Do not neglect so sure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your Appetite, Complexion, and General Health.

PILES.

How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure owing to the secret suffering from Piles. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. Simmons' Liver Regulator, is no drastic violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION.

SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a costive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE.

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache.

CAUTION. Buy no powders or Prepared SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR unless in our engraved wrapper with trade mark, stamp and signature unbroken. None other is genuine.
