LOCAL NEWS.

FOUR MILE RACE ON THE NATIONAL COURSE.—Despite the heavy wind and dust of Saturday afternoon, as large a crowd as has yet been assembled on the above course was gathered together to witness the great four mile race (best two in three) for $2,000 between the noted horses—Thunder, Panic, and Blackbird. Before the start, Panic was the favorite, at 100 to 60, although Thunder had a number of friends, who were around taking up all bets to be had. All the horses looked in fine condition. About 3 o'clock, they got the go, Panic a little ahead with the Blackbird track, Thunder in the middle, and Blackbird last.

Away they went for the first three miles, with about a length or two between each. At the last half-mile pole, Thunder, who had evidently been held in all along, shot ahead of Panic and won the heat in 7m. Those who had not seen the gray run before, expressed surprise that he should have shot past so quickly, when every one was almost certain the bay horse would come in ahead. Bets were now freely taken by Thunder's friends that he would win the next heat, and with 15 the race.

After the customary breathing spell, the horses were got ready for the second heat.

They got the start with about the same position as on the first heat, only that Blackbird kept right along with the gray, both following Panic. As they passed the judges' stand on the third mile, the gray closed up with the bay, the black immediately behind; as they kept along the black gradually creeping up, and as they passed the half-mile pole it was a neck-and-neck affair. But very shortly the gray, as usual, shot ahead, coming in first, winning the heat and race in 7 58¾.

Upon the conclusion of the above, a number of "scrub" races took place, in some of which some very fast time was shown.

FAST DRIVING.—The reports of the Ninth precinct of the Metropolitan Police, which were formerly blank or meagre from the scantiness of offences and paucity of arrests, have become of late replete with misdemeanors. Drunkenness, rapid riding, and fast driving are the special offences. Last Saturday evening James Wormley, a colored hackman, whilst coming from the race course, was arrested by Officer Harbin, and fined $5 50 by Justice Cull, for fast driving.

George Nelson, a white hackman, was also arrested by the same officer, for the same offence, and fined $5 by Justice Cull.

Yesterday afternoon Charles McCarthy, an Irishman, was arrested by Officer Wailing, for fast driving, and fined $3.50.

Peter Fagan and Edmund Fitzgerald, two sailmakers, had been at the Course, and upon their return drank some ardents too excessively, and became very disorderly, having engaged in a scuffle, thereby creating considerable tumult. They were both arrested by Officer Bealle. The former was fined $5, and the latter was locked up eight hours, by Justice Cull.

CHILD RUN OVER.—Last Friday, at noon, a little girl about 11 years of age, a daughter of Mrs. Scoggins, on Four-and-a-Half street east, was run over by a cavalry soldier, on Eighth street, near the Navy Yard. She was severely hurt and for some time insensible. Officer Duvall had her immediately removed to the residence of M. J. Pope. She received prompt medical attendance from Dr. Coombs. The horse's hoof struck her in the back part of the head—the occiput.

SMUGGLING LIQUOR.—Pat. McBryant, Mrs. Marlbrough, and Mrs. M. O'Brien were committed to the Guardhouse yesterday, on the charge of smuggling liquor across the river. They were held for orders.

THEFT.—A. Butterlich and Charles Ward, two privates of the 107th Pennsylvania, were committed to the Guardhouse, on the charge of theft They are held for examination.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—About 10 o'clock on Saturday night, Sergeant Cronin and special policeman Charley Harrigan, heard a great outcry and call for the police issuing from the residence of Mr. Fant, the basker. Hastening to the spot, they ascertained that some one had effected an entrance into the house, but a thorough and vigilant search discovered no intruder—the would-be robber having made his escape without effecting the object of his visit. It may well be supposed that the inmates were not a little frightened, Mr. Fant being absent from home.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Lieut. Goldsborough, of the Marine Corps, took place yesterday. The corpse was taken to the Church of the Ascension, H street, where the funeral ceremonies of the Episcopal Church were performed by the Rector of Ascension, Rev. Dr. Pinkney. The body was then brought out, placed in the hearse, and, attended by a full company of marines with the full Marine Band, was carried to its last resting place in the Congressional Cemetery. A very large number of carriages were in the line of procession

Amusements.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—This ever favorite drama of East Lynne is announced for to-night, with Miss Lucille Western in her unequalled character of Lady Isabel. This announcement is sufficient to fill Mr. Grover's spacious theatre to overflowing as it has heretofore done in nearly every case. The interest in this great drama notwithstanding its many representations here, does not abate one particle as is very evident from the number of seats that have been secured for to-night.

FORD'S NEW THEATRE. — The "Marble Heart," one of the most popular as it is one of the best of the "sensational" dramas, is announced for performance to-night, with J. Wilkes Booth as Raphael, and Mr. Charles Wheatleigh and Harry Pearson in very effective characters. In his personation of the romantic young sculptor, Mr. Booth concentrates many of his best qualities as an artist. The part is exceedingly picturesque and engaging, but Mr. Booth, by his earnestness, his vigorous grasp of genius, and his fervor of style, invests it with an interest beyond the author's ideal, and claims in the result the most brilliant honors of his art. The role is peculiarly well fitted to Booth, and it is not to be wondered at that he has achieved in its embodiment his richest distinctions.

Mr. Wheatleigh fills on the occasion his original character of Volage, the editor, in which he so famously sustained Miss Laura Keene, when the play was first presented at her theatre, and by his skill and dash added largely to its memorable success. It will be put upon the stage, it is promised, in the best style which the ample resources of the establishment will permit, and with nearly all the members of Mr. Ford's delightful company in the cast. To morrow night Mr. Booth essays the part of Hamlet, and the general curiosity to see him in that noblest ideal of the mimic world is certain to attract another crowded audience. The characters of the tragedy have been promisingly distributed. Briefly thus: Hamlet to Mr. Booth; Laertes, Mr. De Vere; Ghost, Mr. Wheatleigh; Polonius, Mr. Harry Pearson; Grave-digger, Mr. Fawcett, &c.

CANTERBURY HALL.—Quite a novelty is announced by Mr. Sinn for to night, in the appearance of Mr. J. H. Childers, an original member of Ellsworth's Chicago Zouaves, and pronounced by high authority to be the best drilled Zouave in America. His exercises with the musket are of the most astonishing character, and his performances have created much excitement wherever he has appeared. Miss Kathleen O'Neil will appear in some of her irresistible original Irishism; Miss Ernestine De Faiber in both songs and dances. A new ballet, entitled "The Village Belle," will be presented; and the thrilling drama of "Black Connor, or the White Boys of Ireland." To-morrow afternoon and evening. Mr. Geo. R. Edeson takes a benefit.

VARIETIES.—Mirth, wit, and gaiety is the card at this ever-popular establishment; the large and talented company presenting nightly, to large and appreciative audiences, the rare gems of minstrelsy, pantomime and farce. The management, still unrivaled in its desire to sustain a first class Concert Hall, announces the engagement, at a very great expense, of Miss Cherry Petrie, the celebrated American Prima Donna and Danseuse, who has lately created such intense excitement in all the Northern cities. Due notice will be given of her first appearance.

SKIFF'S ARMOR-PLATED ETHIOPIAN GUNBOATS is the formidable name attending the Minstrel Troupe who are to play at the Washington Theatre on Wednesday next. We see by their advertisement that the two champion dancers of England and America, Mr. Tim Hayes and Sam Hague, are with them. That fact alone ought to be sufficient to fill every seat in the house, so we advise our readers to go early and secure good seats.

WHO WILL BE CURED?—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the celebrated Dr. Yelin, which appears in another column. The Doctor's fame and his skill are world-wide, whole hosts of victims of certain infirmities can testify that the unfortunate victim of certain infirmities can with confidence intrust his case in his hands. Let young men be warned in time, and seek the best means of relief

A WORD OR ADVICE.—Those who have been disappointed for months and even years in not obtaining relief, should immediately call on Dr. Fitzgerald, whose office is at No. 411 E street, nearly opposite Brady's Gallery, and be radically cured. Dr. Fitzgerald has been established in Washington for years, and is a physician. Recent cases cured in from one to five days. Charges moderate. DR. FITZGERALD'S, of the unprecedentedly successful engagement of that brightest of American Stars,

SEVENTH NIGHT
MISS LUCILLE WESTERN,
MISS LUCILLE WESTERN,
MISS LUCILLE WESTERN,
Grand reproduction for this night of the people's favorite drama of
EAST LYNNE; EAST LYNNE;
EAST LYNNE; EAST LYNNE;
EAST LYNNE; EAST LYNNE; OR,
THE ELOPEMENT.
No play of modern times has ever achieved the genuine success that this thrilling drama has in the hands of Miss Western. Within the past year she has produced it with like successful results in the leading theatres of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington. During several different engagements of unusual length in each of those cities this great drama has been kept upon the stage night after night for many weeks, never failing in any instance since its first production to attract crowded audiences of the most intellectual character, and never failing to create the same deep impression upon its auditors. Many performances have been interrupted by the audible sobs of sympathetic auditors, called from the hearts of even the most stoical, and the piece has, upon every occasion, evoked
AVALANCHES OF INVOLUNTARY APPLAUSE, totally eclipsing any demonstration of enthusiasm that has ever attended the production of any other play in this country, and all this great success is, without doubt, due to Miss Lucille Western's unapproachable impersonation of the passion-crushed but pure-hearted Lady Isabel.
The powerful cast of characters in this great drama employs the larger and better portion of Mr. Grover's excellent dramatic company, which embraces a talented assemblage of

CONFECTIONERY.

JOSEPH SHAFFIELD'S
BALTIMORE CONFECTIONERY,
306 SIXTH STREET, BETWEEN G AND H.
Mr. SHAFFIELD has just returned from Europe where he has made most extensive purchases of Foreign Confectionery and Fruits. He is now prepared to furnish Parties, Balls, Weddings and Suppers, with the choicest delicacies of this country as well as of other lands.
His arrangements for supplying ice-cream and water-ices are superior to any other in this city—manufacturing these things, as he does, by steam power.
He is also serving up, in his saloon, OYSTERS in every style. Families can be supplied with them at the shortest notice.
To all who may favor him with their patronage he promises punctuality and satisfaction.
