

News Notes.

Hiram Cronk, the last surviving participant in the War of 1812, died at the age of 105 years in Arva, N. Y.

During services in a Baptist church at Atlee, Va., the church was struck by lightning and several persons injured.

Lightning attending the storm Sunday destroyed a barn in Montgomery and shattered a dwelling near Cridsfield, Somerset county.

The Republicans carried the day in Cumberland, electing four of six City Councilmen, but are sore over a revolt of negro voters in one ward.

Mr. John P. Pos, of Baltimore, delivered the address at the unveiling of the Maryland memorial window in the Confederate Museum at Richmond.

The effect of the disfranchisement campaign on the election of a successor to Senator Gorman by the Legislature of 1907 is attracting attention in political circles.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., May 15, 1905.

The announcement from Mississippi that the Hon. John Sharp Williams, the able and erudite floor leader of the Democracy in the national House of Representatives, would be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Hernando D. Money, has been the fruitful source of considerable gossip here in Washington, where both men are so well known and so well liked by all who know them.

The great common people are coming to understand him and his methods, and they are going to follow him. He is the best hated man in some sections that there is in the country, simply because he is the most thoroughly misunderstood man.

He now is defying the corporators in New York and they are gnashing their teeth in impotent rage because they cannot either buy him or scare him. Party lines are absolutely obliterated in this municipal ownership fight over there, and the party that gets in the way is going to get run over and hurt.

CHAS. A. EDWARDS.

DIED.

Departed this life April 9, 1905, at the residence of his uncle, Walter Cole, in the 8th district, EDDIE COLE, grandson of Conrad Cole, who had gone, I trust, to receive the reward due to his patient sufferings, for who like him would have endured the intervals of pain as he did? He was a true Christian and death has been his gain.

Farewell, dear Eddie, with whom I have spent so many hours of sweet content. Ah! words of mine can never tell How sad I felt to say farewell.

Yet again I hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tears are shed.

There is no doubt that Mr. Williams can be elected to the Senate when the time comes, for he is beloved in his home State, and the question is whether he would want to be Speaker and make a fight for it when he has a cinch on the Senatorship.

The whole question will hinge on the result of the next Congressional election.

The defeat of the Stevens Committee bill before the New York Legislature, which precludes the possibility of the people of the city New York getting cheaper gas in the opening gun in the fight in that great municipality for the public ownership of public utilities, and it will go a great way toward winning the battle for public ownership.

The people are getting sick and tired of the way the gas and other monopolies are daily robbing them, and they are going to have something to say in the next municipal election about taking over these utilities and owning them so that they can regulate the price they are compelled to pay.

Dissolution.

The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned is dissolved by mutual consent on the 1st day of July, 1905. The old stock will be sold off cheap for cash.
