FATAL MISTAKE.—Mrs. Nixon, of Medina, Orleans County, who was riding to Albion with her husband, last Thursday, called at the drug store for morphine to relieve a toothache. The lad gave her strychnine, a fatal poison. She died almost immediately after applying it.

☞ A telegraphic dispatch from Cincinnati says a powder mill near Xenia exploded on Saturday, killing two men.

Law Courts.

SUPREME COURT—General Term—Before Judges Mason, Hoffman and Edwards—An appeal in relation to an assignment made three or four years ago by Mr. Silas Smith, was argued by Mr. Hoffman for appeal, and Mr. Brewster and Mr. O'Conor for respondent.

Special Term—Before Judge Hardin.—In the case of John Mason, filed the late Mr. J. M. on application made on his behalf to be released, Mr. James Mason, to charge the Committee having charge of the person of the said John M. was argued. Mr. Mason appeared in person, and Mr. Edward Sandford for the Committee. Mr. M. was attacked with a paralytic shock in 1847 or 1848, is an invalid, and we believe also declared incapable of taking care of his person or estate. Mr. Isaac Jones (who married his sister Mary) and his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Jones, are his guardians. The petitioner, Mr. Mason, alleges in the statement that the appointment of the guardians of Mr. M. would be greatly benefited by a change of the Committee and of his residence, &c. He at present resides in the house of Mr. Isaac Jones, his room is at the end of the house in the third story, in which he sleeps and eats. There is a door to his room outside, which is kept fastened. The subject was referred, some time since, to Mr. Murray Hoffman, who reported that his condition had been made comfortable, but suggesting certain improvements. It is now complained that the testimony of Mr. James Mason, brother of said John, was improperly excluded. The referee in the report of his evidence says he was asked to argue the petition against the application. There appears to be a variance in the testimony. Mr. Adams, valet of Mr. M. said Mr. James Mason came again since with three witnesses in law, Messrs. Jones, and their sisters, Mrs. J. S. It appeared that Mr. John Mason was taken by Mr. Jones and lady, to Kingston, for the purpose of his health, but he was brought back in the night and put from room, but seldom does so when any of the family are there—and, generally, it is said, on behalf of the petition, that his presence would be increased by his being placed elsewhere. The difficulty between Mr. James M. and Mrs. Jones, and her husband, is in relation to a certain bond and mortgage, and it is contended that no due diligence was exercised by Messrs. J. and their lawyer, near the late Mr. M. in regard to his will. The argument on the present application will be continued this forenoon.

In Chambers—Before Judge Edmonds.—Cassidy and Mary Mason, the young woman related yesterday as being charged in Dr. T. J. Cronamus with grand larceny, in taking from his drawer $40 in gold, were again brought up on habeas corpus, it being contended that they are innocent, and demanding that testimony shall be taken. Mr. Cassidy, the prisoner, appeared to have been in the employ of Mr. B. Warden, A. Nash and J. P. Hoff appear in their behalf, and Messrs. McKeown and Sedgwick appear for the complainant. Mr. Nash, counsel for the prisoner, said that Dr. C. had been used by Mary Ann Martin, mother of the young woman in question, for $1,000—he having agreed to pay that sum to be legal friends to her three daughters including Elizabeth, the late confidential servant of Mrs. Astor. Elizabeth, said the counsel, has presented a claim that Dr. C. induced the young ladies to come to the north in Broadway, to teach him, and the mother refused to allow it, and the agreement was that he was to come to the house and receive lessons from the daughters, as he understood the French language, in presence of their mother, and he in return was to pay the mother $1,000 for the services. Dr. C. said otherwise, and as no contract be entered the present complaint, but the amount, in fact, was $40, which was paid to one of the daughters on account of the contract. As to the arrest a warrant was issued by Justice Lathrop and put into the hands of Prince John Davis, who the prisoner was in his room, and he was asked and he gave up his watch, and was taken to a police station, and two officers went with it to the house of Mrs. M. in Spring street and arrested the girls towards night. They were taken to the Police Office, where Justice Lathrop adjourned the case until this morning, when the girls were discharged by the Recorder. It is contended that the arrest was illegal, two warrants being issued, and in force at the same time, on the same complaint. They were surrendered by their bail, so that the present writ of habeas corpus might be issued. A question arose whether Judge E. has power to take testimony in chambers, which was argued by Mr. Nash and Mr. Sedgwick. Argument is to be heard on the subject on Saturday next, at 12 o'clock.

The General Term of the Supreme Court will adjourn this afternoon for the term. No decision beyond, perhaps, those on a motion or two will probably be given till next term.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—Before Judge Betts.—The Grand Jury came into court, having acted upon a number of bills. The complaint against Capt. Wm. H. Dunham, of the bark Cruises Fernino (relative to about $4,000 worth of distilleries introduced to him, but which he alleges to have been subsequently stolen) the matter was left over for further examination. Mr. Wm. Wood was then called for, as was that against Francis Young, charged with endeavoring to make a revolt on board the ship Liverpool.

An indictment was found against John Quinn, second mate on board the ship Liverpool, for cruel and unusual punishment of Young. An indictment against Benjamin Jenkins, charged with the theft of a Panama hat, and against Robert Gordon, charged with larceny at sea, in relation to some wearing apparel, on board the ship St. George; and against Henry of the ship Cambridge, for endeavoring to make a revolt.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—James Lynch was on yesterday at 4 by Wm. Monaghan, keeper of a boarding house in Washington st. charging him with opening two letters belonging to said M. It appears that Mr. Lynch bought a load warrant of a man named Meighan, who resided in the house of Mr. Monaghan, and delivered the warrant to Mr. Monaghan, who opened and read the letters addressed to the person of Mr. M. who claims a lien upon it, and the letters were sent, as we understand it, through the carrier, by request of the agent who sold to Mr. L. to Mr. L. who delivered them to Mr. Monaghan, for safe keeping, in order to satisfy himself, that enclosed them again, with contents (one of them having a load warrant in) and put them back in the Post Office, writing on the back, "Opened by mistake—James Lynch." One of the letters was a mere announcement that the writer would be expected on other business, and it is held that for Meighan. The letters were directed to Wm. Monaghan.—Examination continued this forenoon.

POLICE COURT—A girl by the name of Catherine Davis was arrested last evening on a charge of having stolen a watch and key, valued at $30, the property of Archibald McKenny, of 32 Orange street on the 1st of November last. The accused was taken up by officer ..... A young man named William Thompson was taken into custody on a charge of receiving the watch stolen from McKenny, knowing the same to be stolen, after an examination before Justice Paine yesterday, was held to bail in the sum of $500, to answer for the offence.

COMMERCIAL AND MONEY MATTERS.

For Sales of Stocks, &c. see Fourth Page.

THURSDAY, November 30—P. M.

The Stock market has again been active to day and prices of nearly all descriptions advanced. At the First Board, Treasury Notes improved ¼c; Sixes of '68, ¼; Erie Railroad shares ¼; Canton, ¼; Harlem, ¼, and Reading and Long Island, ¼c. There was a very general demand for Government Stocks and Treasuries, and at the close 109¼ was offered for some of the Loan of '68. Some of the time sellers seem to find a scarcity of stock, the deliveries of which are falling due. The books of transfer of all the United States stocks closed to day for the January payment of interest, consequently after to-day the sales will be quoted, and made January interest off. The United States Five per cents are wanted at 99 by the same parties who have been free purchasers of this Loan for some days past. Some of the Fancies, Harlem, Norwich and Worcester, &c. have grown scarce of late, and some of the sellers are borrowing. The Albany and Schenectady (formerly Mohawk,) Railroad stock sold to day at 78, a rise of 1 per cent. This stock is gradually coming up to a value based upon 7 per cent. per annum, which it now pays regularly. At the Second Board, Treasuries declined ¼c. while the New Loan maintained the quotations current at the First Board.

Operators in Freights are generally waiting for the steamer. We hear of a vessel for Belfast to load with Corn at 7d. 1,500 bbls Flour for Liverpool at 3s.; Corn in bulk, 7d.; Beef, 4s. and Cotton 5-32d. To Havre, Cotton was engaged at ⅞c.

In Exchanges there is but little movement. We quote on London 8¼@8¾; Paris 5.25@5.22½; do, short sight 5.17½@5.18; Bremen 78½@79, and Hamburg 35@35½.

It was generally understood in Wall-st. to-day that the Secretary of the Treasury had purchased largely of Government stocks, using the surplus funds of the Government for that purpose.

The Portsmouth, Saco, and Portland Railroad Co. have declared a semi-annual dividend of $3 per share.....The Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, 3½ per cent for the last six months.

At New-Orleans, on the 21st, Exchange on London, 60 days, was selling at 7 a 8¼ per cent premium; on Paris, France, 5.20 a 5.25. New York, ¼ a ⅜ per cent discount, and at sight ¼ a ½ per cent premium. U. S. Treasuries, various descriptions, were selling at 2 a 3 per cent premium.

The following preamble and resolution in relation to the closing of the Canals was adopted at a meeting of the Board of Canal Commissioners, held at Albany, Nov. 27:

Whereas, The large amount of work now under contract upon the Canals of this State, which must be completed in the spring of the ensuing year, in order that navigation may be opened at the usual time, and the water will be drawn from the Canals, that the contractors may be prepared with the requisite force to prosecute with the work vigorously, and it being well understood that the navigation of the Canals will be closed, at a period when transportation upon them will have only commenced, and to remove that evil there must be a work of destruction, which is a benefit both to the boat owner and the worker. Therefore

Resolved, That the Canals will be considered as closed for navigation on the 20 day of December next, and that the water be drawn from them immediately after that day, wherever it is necessary for the navigable repair or improvement of the same.

The Philadelphia Ledger gives the annexed items in relation to money matters in that city:

"Money continues in expect demand. The banks have grown wonderfully careful and worry us, we think. It has been the rule, a while there to pay all the checks of the stockbrokers doing business with them, on presentation, paying upon the account being made good. Now we are asked to wait for our money. Last week, one of the banks suffered some four or five thousand dollars to be paid to the broker, who overdrew his account to that amount, and since then several, that all of the brokers are required to have the amount drawn to cover all of their checks, disbanded. A good deal of money is now lying in the hands of the brokers, who are borrowers in the way, most approve of the control course adopted, it will probably be continued."

Markets.....CAREFULLY REPORTED FOR THE TRIBUNE.
THURSDAY, Nov. 30.

ASHES—Remain as before, with sales 100 bbls.

COTTON—The market is extremely dull, the sales not exceeding 400 bales, of which 300 were of the trade. Operators, generally, are waiting for the steamer.

GENERAL NOTICES.

☞ St George's Church on Stuyvesant Square.—The second paragraph which appeared editorially, in the Courier & Enquirer of the 15th inst. headed St. George's Church on Stuyvesant Square, contains a good deal which is calculated to convey wrong impressions though not much which is of sufficient import one to call for notice; there is, however, one thing which it may be even profitable to refer to. Alluding to a difference of opinion which is said to have arisen in the congregation respecting the location of the new church, it is remarked, "At the conversation we understood the Vestry were fully sustained by a large majority of the legal voters of the corporation." It is with respect to this "large majority" that I would say a few words; this assertion is but a repetition of what was published by the respectable clergy of St. George's Church a few months ago, since it is here repeated by gentlemen, and it unanimously so, the authors of it must be themselves beguiled, and to, to be here in the truth of it. It would seem to be highly proper that this mis-statement should be corrected. It is well known (the fact being announced by the Rev. Rector of St. George's the following Sunday in the church) that the whole number of votes cast at the election referred to was but 159, which was less than one-half the number of the legal voters of the corporation; this alone is sufficient to show the above statement to be absolutely false. For "I looked therefore of a "large majority" of the legal voters of the corporation, it was in fact, but a small majority, of the small portion of the congregation who voted on that occasion, so small, even, that a change of twelve votes would have elected the opposing ticket!—But this boasted triumph is chiefly worthy of remark on account of the means which were resorted to to secure it. The proceedings on that memorable occasion were so novel, so perfectly unique, that they ought to be proclaimed from the house tops—but merrily that the Rev. Rector of St. George's who presided on the occasion, and under whose direction everything was done, may have due credit for a display of ingenuity, so freely and altogether original—but that other members of religious corporations who may find themselves in a strait, with respect to the attainment of some object deemed to be of great importance, may in all time to come, should they perceive nothing in it which is objectionable, or nothing which is morally wrong, have the benefit of an example from so high a source, and one which has been found to work well. It had been the custom, Messrs. Editors, from the earliest existence of the Corporation of St. George's Church, up to the time of the last vestry election, to open the Poll immediately after the appointed morning prayers, and close it at 2 P. M. precisely, and this well known custom had been rigidly adhered to by the present Rector of St. George's on all other occasions, but at the last vestry election, which resulted in that "large majority," things were somewhat different straight forward and old fashioned customs were made to give place to such as were new, and before unheard of!! The hour of 2 P. M. having arrived, and the question being asked, when the Poll would be closed? the Rev. Rector answered that he knew of no time for closing it before 12 o'clock at night!! or words to that effect. It should here be particularly noted, that the two opposing tickets were both printed, and that one of them was on paper so much larger than the other, that it was no difficult task to keep an exact account of the state of the Poll; when about half past 3 P. M. or 20 minutes of 4, had arrived, and when some present, were so unchartable, as to suppose it had been satisfactorily ascertained, that there was a majority for the favorite ticket, the Rev. Rector gave notice that the Poll would be closed at 4 P. M.!! Such were the proceedings on the occasion of the last vestry election in St. George's Church, which resulted in that "large majority." They appeared to me at the time so altogether novel and original, that others ought to be made acquainted with them.

BOOK TRADE.

LAMB'S FINAL MEMORIALS.

D. APPLETON & CO. Publish on Saturday, a second edition: Literary Sketches and Letters being the Final Memorials of Charles Lamb, by Talfourd. 1 vol. 12mo 75 cents.

☞ The attractive volume will be sought for with avidity, by lovers of books, to whom the fame of Elia, and the correspondence of Lamb previously published, have been so highly entertaining and instructive. Lamb's letters are the most delightful of epistolary productions, and those now first published, will be found to be of the same character. Lamb's letters are not to be published, in the usual way, with everything, pertinent or not, which can be collected, from every friend, the whole of genuine letters, but he has selected, from the whole of genuine letters, those which are interesting and characteristic, and omitted all the rest. Talfourd's Life of Lamb.
