BRYANT'S NEW VOLUME OF TRAVEL.—D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 Broadway, Publish on Thursday:
LETTERS FROM SPAIN AND OTHER COUNTRIES. By WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.
1 vol. 12mo., cloth. $1 25.
These Letters, sent home to the United States from recent journeys in several countries of the European continent, are laid before the public just as they were written on the spot, without additions, and with no material corrections. Of their imperfections, none can be more sensible than the author; their merit, if they have any, consists in their being a record of observations committed to paper, while the impression they made was yet clear and distinct.

D. A. & Co. HAVE JUST PUBLISHED:
THE FOSTER BROTHERS. Being the History of the School and College Life of Two Young Men. 1 vol. 12mo., cloth, 465 pages; $1.

"This volume brims with sense, cleverness, and humor. A lively and entertaining collection of great men's thoughts and quick woman's observations; a book to be read now for amusement, and to be sought hereafter for reference."—[London Athenæum.
ONWARD; Or, The MOUNTAIN CLAMBERERS. A Tale of Progress. By JANE ANNE WINSCOM. One Vol., 12mo. 75 cents.
"This volume is intended for the encouragement of those who are endeavoring to fulfil life's great end—to glorify their God on earth, and to be rendered meet for His eternal kingdom. It is for those who are wishing, and for those who are striving; for the dwellers in the valley, who look wistfully on the hills above—for the clamberers on the mountain side, who are going from strength to strength, trusting to appear before their God in Zion."—[Extract from Preface.

FROM THE N. Y. COURIER & ENQUIRER:
"THE EMPIRE OF AUSTRIA; ITS RISE AND PRESENT POWER. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.
"The history of Austria embraces a wide period, and the materials at the disposal of her historians are abundant. As the country was either nearly or remotely connected with the great events which have taken place throughout Continental Europe, Mr. Abbott has availed himself of the vast field which was spread before him, and has produced a volume which is admirably adapted for popular reading. Those who have read his History of Napoleon know that he possesses the peculiar faculty of presenting historical facts in a manner which at once arrests the attention of the majority of readers. Close students, and those whose literary tastes are highly cultivated, may find that his histories are not up to the standard by which they think historical compositions should be judged. To readers generally his works will be acceptable; and so long as he performs his labors faithfully, so long as he adheres to facts and does not indulge in fancies, he can do much toward cultivating among our people a taste for reading what are termed solid works. The present history is certainly a most interesting one, and the publishers have issued it in a neat manner. It will be followed by a History of the Empire of Russia, written by Mr. Abbott."
