WASHINGTON, D. C., OCTOBER 22, 1890.

THE ALLIANCE AND THE BOYCOTT.

The Farmers' Alliance has, it is alleged, gone into the boycotting business. The word comes from North Carolina that a secret circular has been sent out from the Alliance headquarters in this city, signed by L. L. POLK, president; C. W. MACUNE, editor of the National Economist, the Alliance organ, and chairman of the executive committee, and two others, ordering a boycott of all papers which oppose the Alliance. The dispatch says that in two instances the order has been obeyed in that State. Two of the paragraphs of the secret circular are said to read as follows:

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend and urge the brotherhood throughout the country to note carefully and constantly the attitude of the press toward us, and when any paper, by vicious and malicious misrepresentation of any officer of whatever rank, from the lowest to the highest in our order, or any member of the same, or, by unfair methods against our order, shall seek to impair our strength and unity, that any and all such papers shall no longer receive in any manner countenance or support of members of our order.

Resolved further, That when anybody of our order shall decide to withdraw or withhold its support from any such papers, it should, by proper methods, notify any and all advertisers, who seek their patronage through the advertising columns of said paper, that they will withdraw and withhold their patronage from all such advertisers.

We advise the Alliance to withdraw this circular and repudiate the boycott. It is an un-American weapon, and is under the ban of the law. It is at once illegal and unmanly. It cannot be carried out except by entering into a conspiracy to injure one's neighbor. If established in the Alliance will find the boycott a very uncomfortable boomerang.

EPITHALAMIAL.

There was no funny column in the Post yesterday. Many a man as he opened that invaluable sheet at the breakfast table, hurriedly swallowed his mouthful of hot roll or buckwheat cake and adjusted his jaws to their customary grin, only to drop them in blank dismay, "quite chop fallen," at the discovery that his beloved "Postscripts" was conspicuous by its absence. There was no funny column for the good and sufficient reason that the funny editor was more seriously engaged. That is to say, he has been most seriously engaged for some time past and yesterday he was getting seriously married. Mr. PHILANDER CHASE JOHNSON is the name of the cofferino-haired young soloist of the "Postscript" harmonicon, who, succeeding that quaint and seasoned humorist, Mr. WILLIS HAWKINS, in the manipulation of that difficult instrument, almost immediately reconciled an admiring public to the retirement of the elder maestro of pure and unadulterated American humor, with the ear harmonic stop played wide open. Mr. JOHNSON's work has a perfectly distinct and original flavor of its own and has been as deservedly as widely copied. The lady of his choice is Miss LOUISE COVERT, a very pretty and piquant little journaliste who has been doing exceptionally excellent reportorial and editorial work on the Post, and the history of their courtship forms quite a radiant little oasis of poetry and romance in the arid desert of Washington newspaper work.

UNDER THE nom de theatre of ALMA FAIR, who is cleverly portrays the role of the Latchke, Ethel Miley, in the military drama of "The Paymaster" at Harris' Bijou Theatre this week, many Washingtonians will have no difficulty in recognizing Miss ALLIE BARCOCK, a young lady of this city, whose rare type of brunette beauty and many social and artistic accomplishments made her so little of a favorite in Washington society several seasons ago. Miss SYMONE has had several years of invaluable stage training as a member of MAURICE MITCHELL's company, and brings to her exacting role in "The Paymaster" the aplomb and experience of a thoroughly equipped artist; beside which, as she happens to be a most graceful and fearless swimmer, her nightly plunge into the tank of "real water" (with the chill taken off) has for her none of the terrors it inspires in her audience.

"LAND CURRENCY" is the title of a handsome well printed pamphlet which has reached us. It is "a brief treatise on the subject of no tax," by STARKES MAYNELL, author of "Civilization Civilized." MR. MAYNELL is a Californian, is an eloquent orator and forcible writer. His system of land currency appears to be the same as that of Senator STANFORD. While we believe the theory to be fallacious and one that would, if put in practice, end in disaster, yet as Mr. MAYNELL has presented it so attractively and forcibly as it seems possible to do it is worth while to read what he has to say. We may return to the subject at another time and examine into the merits and demerits of the land currency plan more closely.

IF ANYONE HAS BELIEVED a bit of gossip that ex-Governor SPRAGUE possessed any manly or estimable qualities, it must now be abandoned. His exhibition of brutality and meanness at the funeral of his son yesterday shows SPRAGUE to be utterly and irretrievably bad and contemptible. When a man has become so completely lost to all sense of manhood and decency as to deprive a mother of a last look at the face of her dead son, that man has forfeited all right to consideration at the hands of his fellow-men and should be driven from their society. The only thing left for SPRAGUE to do is to follow his unfortunate son.

THE INDIANAPOLIS Journal says that the Democrats would rather carry Indiana than any other State in the Union this year. Well, all the States are in the Union this year, but according to Treasurer BURTON Democratic success in Indiana means President HARRISON's renomination. Maybe that is the reason the Democrats want to carry the State. But, if BURTON knows what he is talking about, why should the Journal believe that it behooves every individual Republican to see to it that the Democrats are disappointed? Surely the Journal wants HARRISON renominated.

ROBERT GARRETT is at his home near Baltimore, and appears to have entirely recovered his health. He was in that city yesterday, passing some time at the banking house founded by his grandfather and in which he is largely interested. He was heartily congratulated by his friends on his very healthy appearance.

THE STROKE OAR of the Bradford Boat Club of Cambridge, Mass., shoved a Boston reporter from the club-house float into the water and was sentenced to six months in the house of correction. This was a stroke of justice the stroke oar was not expecting, and he has appealed for a correction.

THERE IS NO doubt now but TOM WINN, the Democratic Alliance candidate for Congress in the Ninth Alabama district, will win. He has just nailed a campaign lie and licked the liar. Such striking qualifications for Congress can't be ignored.

SECRETARY WINDOM has approved the salary list of the World's Fair officers, but he has done it with great reluctance. These salaries have been built up on the plan of the Chicago girl's feet, and are of generous size.

IT IS ODD THAT ONE of the defenses of the McKINLEY act is that it does not protect so many articles as the MILLS bill. The protectionists will soon be posing as the only genuine free traders if they keep on at this gait.

GENERAL GREELY'S Weather Bureau said yesterday it would be slightly warmer last night. Really, it was decidedly cooler, with a heavy frost and ice formed in exposed places.

NOW PHILADELPHIA'S Mayor wants a recount. He estimates that 100,000 denizens of the City of Brotherly Love have not been enumerated. Why not count the whole country over again?

THE COUNT OF PARIS has developed a weakness for mint juleps. He should take warning from the fate of the old Virginia gentleman who died from too much grass in his whisky.

SPEAKER REED is going to seek the bubble reputation even at the CANNON's mouth. At least he is going into JOSEPH's bailiwick to speak.

THE CHICAGO PRESS CLUB wants ex-President CLEVELAND to make a tariff speech for the club's benefit. This is a tariff for revenue movement.

THE PRESIDENT is going duck shooting. Ever since his inauguration he has displayed a certain fondness for lame and dead ducks.

CHICAGO SUSPECTS that she has about 25,000 fraudulent names on her registry list. Chicago is a very progressive community.

THE DECISIONS of the courts out in Iowa and Kansas appear to be done up in original packages.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE of Architects is in session in this city. They are designing men.

THAT EXTRA SESSION of Congress appears to be without a quorum.

AMUSEMENTS.

Rhea in "Josephine."

A number of our theatre goers will doubtless be pleased to learn that Mlle Rhea is to be with us again next week. She will present that beautiful historical play, "Josephine, Empress of the French." The assurance given by Mlle Rhea's representatives that the piece has been strengthened materially since it was seen here last season. A stronger company, it is said, than any that has ever supported the handsome star now surrounds her, and an entirely new costume and scenery will be put on the stage for the first time this season during the coming engagement. It is safe to anticipate a really grand production. Mr. William Harris, whose impersonation of Napoleon Bonaparte was so liberally praised last season, is still Rhea's leading support.

Specialty at the New National.

The Boston Howard Athenæum Star Specialty Company will be the attraction at the New National Theatre next week. This is one of the best aggregations of variety talent now on the road. Some of the members of the company have been with it several seasons, and the new ones are equal to the company they find themselves in. Cinquevalli is incomparable in his juggling line and as perfect as a piece of mechanism. Our own Bob Slavin is with this troupe making good bills. Other American favorites are "Dutch" Daly, the Harlow brothers, Kate Davis and Conroe and Fox, the laughing Irishmen from Ireland.

The European contingent is made up of Belle Black, the London singer; Arthur Forrest, comique and singer; the Polaski contortionists, and the Boleset troupe, who play mandolins and give a horizontal bar performance.

It is a parlor variety performance, and its freedom from anything rough will make it particularly welcome to the patrons of the New National.

"An Irish Arab."

"An Irish Arab," with the well-known comedian Bobby Gaylor in the title role, will make its first appearance in this city at Harris' Bijou Theatre next week. The play is itself is a splendid one, being adapted by Mr. William A. Brady from Lester Wallack's "The Veteran," which was such a grand success a few years ago. Mr. Gaylor's style is entirely his own, and everything he does is original and funny. He introduces the specialties which made him famous on the variety stage, and the success of the play has been phenomenal.

The company supporting him is a very good one, among whom are such good actors as Mr. Clarence Handyside, Mr. James Ward, Mr. Wilson C. Deal. Miss Marie Rene is a splendid actress and a very pretty woman. Her dressing of the part is decidedly pretty. Miss Jessie Story is a charming soubrette, and plays her part with vim and vivacity. The play is put on the stage most gorgeously and can be classed as a spectacular production. The scenic effects are very good, the bombardment scene being particularly well done.

Hyde's Star Specialty Company.

Hyde's Star Specialty Company, under the personal management of James Hyde, and direct from Hyde & Behman's Theatre, Brooklyn, N. Y., will open at Kernan's Theatre next Monday for one week only. This is acknowledged the leading specialty show. It is headed by Yank Hoe, the celebrated Japanese fantabist, from the Crystal Palace, London. This artist is one of the wonders of the Orient, a worker of miracles and a consumate master of sleight-of-hand. His assistant, Mlle. Omene, is a Circassian of rare beauty and unequaled grace. Le Petit Freddie, Helene Mora, Lillie Western and many other noted artists are on the bill. The beautiful St. Felix Sisters deserve special mention. Their skirt dances are unsurpassed. Seats now on sale.

The popular Night Owls' Company, with Pauline Markham and other cards, is meeting with a cordial reception this week. Ladies' matinee to-morrow.

PERSONAL.

The CZAR's silver wedding will be celebrated November 9.

George Vanderbilt's ambition is to collect the finest library in America.

Colonel Frederick A. Bee, Chinese Consul to San Francisco, is said to be the only American, with the exception of Anson Burlingame, who held a diplomatic office under that government.

William K. and Cornelius Vanderbilt are both slim, tall and athletic men. Their faces are ruddy with the hue of health, their eyes are clear, and they are quick and rather nervous in their movements.

King William of Holland, who is now tottering on the brink of the grave, is 73 years old. It is said of him that no monarch of the present century has given rise to so much scandal as William, although his public life has been above reproach.

General Lew Wallace, the author of "Ben Hur," writes a small and neat hand, which is as clear and legible as a copper plate.

Mrs Jacob Brenton of Lancaster, N. H., has learned five languages while a hopeless invalid these seven years past, including Volapuk.

It is a rumor in the court circles of Europe that the recent voyage of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria to Austria was not merely to recover his health at Carlsbad, but chiefly to demand the hand of Archduchess Marie Dorothea, the eldest daughter of Archduke Joseph. His suit is said to have been declined. The Vienna papers deny the literal correctness of this bit of court gossip, and assert that although there was a project of marriage, no formal demand has been made, and that the opposition to the marriage came neither from Archduke Joseph nor from his wife, but from the Emperor himself. The Austrian kaiser made his assent conditional on the recognition of Prince Ferdinand as sovereign of Bulgaria.

Meeting of Bishops.

The semi-annual meeting of the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at which the assignment of bishops to preside over the spring conference will be made, will be held on Thursday, the 30th instant, at the Metropolitan M. E. Church. The board will continue in session for a week, and will discuss the state of the church and its government, and other topics of interest to the church. The bishops are eighteen in number, including the bishop of India and Africa, and quarters have been provided for them during their brief stay in this city.

The President to Go Ducking.

The President received callers yesterday in the Cabinet Room on account of improvements being made in his office. While the workmen are converting the new office room with other portions of the White House, the President will go duck shooting on the Georgetown River. He will be accompanied by Attorney General Miller. It presents Anderson of Kansas, ex-Senator Sewell of New Jersey and Private Secretary Halford. They will leave Saturday and remain at the ducking shore until Monday.

MURDEROUS MAFIA.

WHAT IS SAID IN ITALY ABOUT CHIEF HENNESSEY'S ASSASSINATION.

Field & Co.'s Failure—That Whoever's Jewish Conversion—The Damaged Warships—Other News and Gossip from Across the Sea.

LONDON, OCT. 22.—The murder of Chief of Police Hennessey in New Orleans has caused a good deal of discussion in Italy in regard to the much talked of secret society of Mafia. Many people deny the existence of such an organization, and declare that while there are many small cliques among Italians, and murder is frequently resorted to from their private motives, yet there is no such world-wide association with common aims as the Mafia is described to be. On the other hand, several leading Italian journals state that there is no doubt that Italian secret societies have branches in America, and that persons who incur their enmity cannot escape by changing their place of residence. The victims, however, are generally fellow-Italians, and the killing of an American police officer has caused great surprise.

THE DEFAULTING AMERICAN BANKERS.

The creditors of Field & Co., the defaulting American bankers, met to-day to hear the report of the receiver in the bankruptcy. The receiver announced that the sale of the firm's effects had realized £129, and that there were no other assets in England. The creditors adopted a suggestion made by the receiver that they subscribe to a fund to prosecute the proving of their title to the £7,000 now on deposit in the United States, payment of which has been ordered stopped by the British bankruptcy court.

THE DAMAGED ENGLISH WARSHIPS.

Admiral Seymour has left Scarborough on board of the warship Camperdown for Portsmouth. The Camperdown takes with her the sailors injured on the various vessels of the fleet during the recent heavy gale. The men will be placed in the receiving hospital at Portsmouth. The other war vessels of Admiral Seymour's fleet will remain at Scarborough until such time as the divers shall have recovered the anchors which were lost by parting of cables. When this work has been accomplished the ships will probably join the Admiral at Portsmouth, where necessary repairs will be made.

WILL GET ALL THEY DEMANDED.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: "It was through the mediation of Deputy Pernerstorfer that it was agreed that the striking tramway employes should resume work to-morrow. Nobody is to be dismissed. All the concessions that the company has promised will be faithfully performed under a government guarantee of a practical concession of all the men demanded."

THE CZAR PUZZLED.

The Czar's advisers are said to be nonplussed by the wholesale conversion to Christianity of Jewish students at Odessa, who took the step in order to be permitted to remain in the university. No confidence is felt in the sincerity of the conversion. Another problem for Russia is what to do with the numbers of foreigners, mostly Germans and Austrians, who have taken up their residence without authority in Western Russia, many of them being fugitive criminals. A proposition to deport them to Siberia is being considered.

WON BY ALICANTE.

At the New Market Houghton meeting to day the race for the Cambridgeshire Stakes was won by Alicante, with Belmont second and Tastig third.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND NEGOTIATING.

The Paris correspondent of the Standard is convinced that there has been a renewal of negotiations between France and England for the surrender by the former country of its rights on the Newfoundland shore. As the matter stands at the present time, France demands a concession of the territory in West Africa in addition to the pecuniary indemnity which England is willing to concede.

ACTIVE CATHOLIC MISSIONARIES.

Advices from Uganda state that the Roman Catholic missionaries at Uganda are showing remarkable activity and have obtained almost complete influence in the African kingdom.

COUNT AND COUNTESS.

It is announced from Berlin that Count Herbert Bismarck is engaged to a Russian countess residing at Mitau, in Courland.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

A terrific explosion occurred in the government powder mills at Waltham to-day. No one was killed, but a number of persons were more or less injured, and the damage to property was considerable. The explosion caused much alarm in the neighborhood.

TENNYSON WILL GO TO SEA.

TENNYSON contemplates taking a sea voyage for the benefit of his health.

PROTESTING AGAINST TYRANNY.

Indignation meetings are being held in Bavaria to protest against the many cases of petty tyranny inaugurated in by the Minister of the Interior. The enemies of this functionary allege that it was because of the annoyance suffered at his hands that the unfortunate King Ludwig committed suicide.

VON MOLTKE'S BIRTHDAY.

There will be a grand parade at Berlin Saturday on the occasion of Field Marshal von Moltke's 90th birthday. Ten thousand torch bearers will march in the procession.

CARDINAL AND KING.

Cardinal Schorhorn of Prague, who is charged with a special mission on behalf of the Vatican, dined with Emperor William to day.

GLADSTONE'S MOVEMENTS.

Mr. Gladstone will speak again in Edinburgh on the 27 inst. at Music Hall. Meantime he will deliver addresses at West Calder and Dalkeith.

EXEMPTED IN ENGLAND.

Tom Mann, the president of the Dockers' Union, declares that the unemployed in England is not less than 700,000 and that an eight hour law is the only remedy, as it would require the employment of more hands. He does not think very highly of General Booth's plan of relieving the poor by furnishing them with work on co-operative farms, etc.

DISCONTENTED FRENCHMEN.

Much discontent is expressed at Marseilles the headquarters of French West African trade, regarding the terms of peace with Dahomey, at not including the return of Whydah to France, as the treaty hoped.

Orphans' Court Business.

In the Orphans' Court to day letters testamentary on the estate of the late Henry B. Merrill were granted to Mary H. Merrill; letters testamentary on the estate of Ainsworth J. Clarke to Charles F. Blackmar; letters of administration c. t. a. on the estate of Louis W. Jewell, to Ann G. Andes.

JOHNSON-COVERT.

An Unusually Pretty Wedding of Two Well-Known Writers.

Mr. Philander Chase Johnson of this city was last night united in marriage to Miss Louise Covert of Aurora, Ill., at the residence of Mrs. Annie Louise Powell, No. 1313 Rhode Island avenue. The handsome parlors were beautifully decorated with potted plants and autumn flowers.

Mr. Kelso Murdock of Cincinnati acted as best man, and Miss Annie Powell was bridesmaid. Miss Covert was attired in a costume of white china silk, the lace drapery of which was the bridal veil of her great great-grandmother. She carried a bouquet of white roses, tied with broad white satin ribbon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. At its conclusion, after receiving the congratulations of their friends, the happy couple left on a bridal trip to Cincinnati.

The invited guests included only the friends of the bride and groom, and were received by Mrs. Powell, assisted by Mrs. H. L. West. There were present Colonel and Mrs. S. E. Johnson, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Beriah Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Guthridge, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. West, Mr. W. J. Lampton, Mr. J. D. Morton of Cincinnati, the Misses Heaven, Mr. John W. Thompson, Miss Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Richards, Dr. and Mrs. Talbott, Miss Anna Hazleton, Dr. and Mrs. Wolfhaupter, Major William H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mr. Lewis D. Wine, Miss Lulie Hanna, Mrs. Burnham and Miss Burnham, Mrs. J. J. Shedd, Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Hamlin, Mr. Augustus W. Francis, Mr. Oskar Krausch, Mrs. M. Benedict and daughter, Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Scott C. Bone, Dr. Reginald Munson and Miss Katharine Taylor.

Mr. Johnson is connected with the editorial staff of the Post, and his wife was also a writer for that paper.

Must Not Play in the Street.

Frank Sims, a colored driver for Charles F. Wilkins, was on trial to day for driving over the child of Mrs. Betts, near the corner of C and Tenth streets southwest, about two weeks ago. Mrs. Betts testified that the child, with others, was playing in the street, and her daughter ran into the horse and fell, and the hind wheel passed over the child. Sims was driving slowly at the time and testified that he was trying to avoid other children playing in the street, and did not know until he heard some one scream that he had run over a child. There was no evidence of a criminal assault and the defendant was dismissed.

Shot Her Husband.

Some time ago Lucy Edelin shot her husband while he was trying to remove some furniture from her house, which she had purchased on the installment plan. She had threatened that she would do it if he attempted to remove it. To day she was brought into Police Court on a warrant charging her with an assault with intent to kill. The night her attorneys, Barker and Webb, she waived preliminary examination and furnished a $500 bond for appearance before the grand jury.

Fined an Old Market Woman.

Margaret A. Riley, who has been selling produce in the Washington Market for fifteen years, was tried to-day for selling produce without a license. Mrs. Riley produced an affidavit to show that she was selling produce for J. P. Dodge, a farmer of Montgomery County, Md. Officer Proctor, however, saw her purchase chestnuts and then offer them for sale. The Judge said she would have to pay a $25 fine or procure a license.

Charged With Assault.

In the Criminal Court to-day William Wall, a cab driver, was placed on trial, charged with indecent assault upon a colored woman named Annie Ward. It appeared that on Thanksgiving Day last, the woman, who was going to Arlington, met Wall at the Baltimore and Potomac depot, who offered to take her out for a dollar. The assault, as alleged, was made on the Long Bridge at an early hour in the evening.

Should Get Better Witnesses.

George Thornton, a colored man, who keeps a restaurant on Eleventh street, between B and C streets, was charged in the Police Court to-day with selling liquor without a license. None of the Government witnesses who had been summoned knew anything about the sale of liquor. The Judge remarked, that he thought they knew whether they were alive or not and dismissed the defendant.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued to day to W. E. Sidney Smith of Williamsburg, Va., and Maggie E. Eider of Garner, Iowa; Osborne Cissel and Nellie Frances Swett, Patrick Griffin and Johanna Murphy, Albert Williams and Helen White, Eugene A. Doyle and Katie Blair, William Mercer Spring and Mary Gordon Pratt, all of Washington.

Iron and Steel Convention.

The President will receive the delegates to the Iron and Steel Convention, at the Executive Mansion next Saturday.

Pleaded Not Guilty.

William Walker, charged with violating the policy law, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Scrofula

is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or gums, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, have yielded to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurities from the blood and builds up the weakened system. All who suffer from scrofula in any form should certainly give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial.

The Worst Type.

"MY SON was afflicted with the worst type of scrofula, and on the recommendation of my druggist I gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla. To day he is sound and well, and attributes healing it was said there was not enough medicine in Illinois to effect a cure."—J. CRAIG TAIT, Hillsdale, Ill.

N. B.—If you decide from what you have heard or read, that you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Greatest of All Musical Instruments
Because it performs any music from a waltz or a ballad to an overture or a symphony more beautifully and more nearly perfect than any other single instrument.
The Aeolian is not mechanical, but the manipulation of it is so simple that a person can learn to play it with from one to three weeks' practice. Your visit to see this instrument will be esteemed a favor at
