THE TARIFF

The Amended Bill in Full

Mr. Schenck, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported the following bill to the House yesterday:

A BILL to amend existing laws relating to the duty on imports, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That on and after the first day of January, 1870, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter enumerated or provided for, imported from foreign countries, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, the following duties and rates of duties, that is to say: On teas of all kinds, 20 cents per pound; on coffee of all kinds, 4 cents per pound; on chicory, succory, dandelion root, and acorn coffee, raw, ground, or prepared, and on all substitutes for coffee, 5 cents per pound; on cocoa or cocoa, 2 cents per pound; on cocoa leaves or shells, 1 cent per pound; on ground cocoa or cocoa, 5 cents per pound; on prepared cocoa or cocoa and chocolate, 7 cents per pound; on all raw or muscovado sugar, 2 cents per pound; on clarified sugar, 3 cents per pound; on refined, stove-dried, in loaf, lump, crushed, powdered, or granulated sugar, 4 cents per pound: Provided, That all sugar other than refined stove-dried, which has in the process of manufacture been advanced in quality above No. 12 Dutch standard, in color, by being boiled or crystallized in a vacuum pan, or clayed, or liquored in molds, or purged in centrifugal machines, or by any vacuum process, or filtered through bone black or its equivalent, shall be regarded as clarified sugar: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall, by regulations, prescribe and cause to be taken such samples by inspectors shall be from the middle of the package, so as to get a true average quality, and that the weight of sugar imported in casks or boxes shall be marked distinctly by the customs officers, after scoring the figures indelibly on each package.

On molasses from sugar-cane, 5 cents per gallon; on tank bottoms syrup of sugar-cane juice, melada, concentrated melada or concentrated molasses, 1½ cent per pound: Provided, That all syrup of sugar, syrup of sugar-cane juice, melada, concentrated melada or concentrated molasses entered under the name of molasses, shall be forfeited to the United States; on pimento, and on black, white, and red or Cayenne pepper, 3 cents per pound; on ground pimento, and on ground pepper of all kinds, 10 cents per pound; on ginger root, 3 cents per pound; on ground ginger, ground, 5 cents per pound; on cinnamon and nutmegs, 20 cents per pound; on mace, 25 cents per pound; on cloves, 5 cents per pound; on clove stems, 3 cents per pound; on cassia and cassia vera, 10 cents per pound; on cassia buds, ground or prepared, 25 cents per pound; on all other spices, 20 cents per pound; ground or prepared, 30 cents per pound; on wines of all kinds, imported in casks, 40 cents per gallon; on wines of all kinds, imported in bottles, and otherwise provided for, $2 per dozen bottles, containing each not more than one quart and more than one pint; and $1 per dozen bottles containing not more than one pint each; and on wines in bottles containing more than one quart each shall pay, in addition to $2 per dozen bottles, 40 cents per gallon on the quantity in excess of one quart in each bottle. On champagne and all other sparkling wines, in bottles, $4 per dozen bottles containing not more than one quart and more than one pint; and $3 per dozen bottles containing not more than one pint each; and in bottles containing more than one quart each shall pay, in addition to $3 per dozen bottles, $1 per gallon on the quantity in excess of one quart: Provided, That any liquors containing more than 24 per centum of alcohol, which shall be entered under the name of wine, shall be forfeited to the United States: And provided further, That wines, brandy, and other spirituous liquors imported in bottles shall be packed in packages containing not less than one dozen bottles in each package, and all such bottles shall pay an additional duty of 2 cents for each bottle; no allowance shall be made for breakage unless such breakage is actually ascertained by count and certified by a customs-house appraiser and appraiser of section 59 of an act entitled "An act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," approved March 2, 1799, as provided for allowance for leakage, and breakage is hereby allowed.

On brandy and on other spirits manufactured or distilled from grain or other materials, and not otherwise provided for, $2 per proof gallon: Provided, That each and every gauge of wine gallon of measurement shall be counted as at least one proof gallon; and the standard for determining the proof of brandy and other distilled spirits of wine or liquors of any kind imported, shall be the same as that which is defined in the second section of the "Act imposing taxes on distilled spirits and fermented liquors, and for other purposes," approved July 20, 1868. On cordials, liqueurs, arrack, absynthe, kirsch-wasser, vermuth, ratafia and other similar spirituous beverages, or bitters containing spirits, and not otherwise provided for, $3 per proof gallon: Provided, That any brandy or other spirituous liquors imported in cases of less than 14 gallons shall be forfeited to the United States. On bay rum or bay-water containing not more than 25 per centum of alcohol, $2 per gallon; containing more than 25 per centum of alcohol, $2 per gallon. On coloring for brandy, 60 per centum ad valorem. On mineral or medicinal waters, or waters from springs impregnated with minerals, 40 cents per dozen bottles or jugs containing each more than one pint, and not over one quart; and $1 50 per two dozen bottles or jugs, each containing not more than one pint; on mineral or medicinal waters in casks, 40 cents per gallon. On cigars, cigarettes or cheroots of all descriptions made of tobacco or any substitute for tobacco, and on paper, cigars and cigarettes, including wrappers, 40 per pound, and in addition thereto 35 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That all cigars, cigarettes, cheroots and all paper cigars and cigarettes, in addition to the duty aforesaid, shall be subject to the same internal revenue tax as is imposed on manufactured articles of the United States; and when imported or landed shall be placed in public store or bonded warehouse, and not removed therefrom until the same shall have been inspected, stamped and branded, as provided for cigars, cigarettes and roots manufactured within the United States.

On all cloths manufactured of cotton, and all other articles manufactured of cotton, the quantity or value of which is usually estimated or sold by the square yard or square yards, and not otherwise provided for, if unbleached, 5 cents per square yard; if bleached, 5 cents per square yard, and in addition thereto 10 per cent. ad valorem; if colored, printed, stained or painted, in whole or in part, 8 cents per square yard, and in addition thereto, 20 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That if the duties imposed by this section upon the manufacturer of cotton shall amount to less than 25 per centum ad valorem, then the duty shall be assessed at the rate of 25 per centum ad valorem. On spool thread of cotton, 12 cents per dozen spools, containing on each spool not more than 200 yards of thread, and for every additional 100 yards or fractional part thereof in excess of 200 yards on each spool, 6 cents per dozen spools; and 30 per centum ad valorem in addition to the above rates. On cotton thread, yarn, warps or warp yarn, not wound upon spools, whether single or advanced beyond the condition of single by twisting two or more single yarns together, whether on beams, or in bundles, skeins, or cops, or in any other form, 40 per centum ad valorem.
