PORTABLE IRON HOUSES FOR CALIFORNIA.

THE Galvanized Iron Houses constructed by me for California, having met with so much approval, I am thus induced to call the attention of those going to California to an examination of them. The iron is grooved in such a manner, that all parts of the house, roof and sides, glide together, and a house 20x15 can be put up in less than a day. They are far cheaper than wood, are fire-proof, and much more comfortable than tents. A house of the above size can be shipped in two boxes, 12 feet long, and 2 feet wide, and 8 inches deep, the freight on which would be about $14 to San Francisco. There will also be no trouble in removing from one part of the country to another as the house can, in a few hours be taken down and put up. NOVEL AND THRILLING SIGHT AT THE MORAL Centre of the Intellectual World, 146 Nassau street—80,000 volumes of books now selling off at half price, embracing every subject that ever engaged the human intellect, from the rudiments of knowledge in the penny primer to the most extensive encyclopædia. The literary public, and book buyers of every kind, will learn with astonishment and gratification that the subscriber, after having just replenished his stock by the addition of 18,000 new volumes is disposing of the whole at less than half the usual prices. Every author in existence can now be had at this unique establishment, from the earliest mesmerizer to the most profound philosopher, together with many of the holy fathers, and likewise all the enthusiasts who have broached heresies in every age, regularly downward from Simon Magus to Joanna Southcott, Joe Smith and old Miller. The religious public, therefore, will be especially interested; whilst those dissatisfied with present arrangements can procure works giving valuable hints for the getting up of new society, by the revival of old heresies. In truth, there is no subject which cannot be found in the Moral Centre of the Intellectual World, which is the great point of attraction for all the men of letters who visit New York. Come, then, the whole army of book buyers; come on, men of science, clergymen, editors, lawyers, doctors, merchants, farmers savans and bibliomaniacs, and refresh your souls with at least a view of the rare and valuable books contained in this vestibule of the Muses.
