A Card.—Mlle. Lola Montes has the satisfaction to inform her friends and the public that she is to receive a benefit on Thursday evening, the 8th of July, at the Bowery theatre where she is at present playing an engagement. This is the first real benefit that has been given her since she reached the United States, as all those so-called benefits during her engagement, and while performing at the theatres in New York, Philadelphia, Washington, &c., under the control of the Marshalls, were humbugs, and Mlle. Lola Montes received no more benefit from them than from any other night of her performance. The entertainment will consist of the new drama of "Lola Montes in Bavaria," after which she will dance one of the most popular Spanish dances. The price of admission to the Bowery on Thursday evening will be the same as heretofore.

R. G. GRAHAM, 162½ Ann street.

All Nonsense! Nonsense! Nonsense!—So said a gentleman, when told that his gray hair could be changed back to its original color, without dyeing it. He was, however, persuaded to try DAVIS' Rahvene and found that it reproduced the original natural color. This is done by calling to action the laws of animal chemistry, by acting upon the roots, and particularly on that portion of the roots which is the natural coloring gland. Warranted. Price, 50 cents per bottle. For sale at the general depot, No. 206 Grand street, and at Nos. 192 Broadway, 279 Washington street, 352 Hudson street, 127 Bowery, N.
