NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

Just before 5 o'clock yesterday morning the home of P. M. Smith, at Armour Villa Park, a suburb of Yonkers, was discovered on fire. The building caught in the cellar about the furnace, and was totally destroyed, with its furniture, valued at $4,000. The house was valued at $7,500 and was insured for $4,000. There was an insurance of $1,500 on the furniture. . . . On Tuesday evening, Terrace City Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, held its annual convocation and chose the following officers: Joseph M. Tomkine, high priest; Isaac H. Venn, king; Julius Tackman, scribe; John G. Hatfield, treasurer; Henry Stengel, secretary; Samuel D. Berrian, trustee. The High Priest made the following appointments: J. P. Freeman, captain of the host; Lyman Cobb, jr., principal sojourner; William A. Bate, royal arch captain; Alfred Emery, master of the third veil; John P. Sherman, master of the second veil; Jacob Wolff, master of the first veil; John Dagg, tyler. The newly elected officers were installed by Lyman Cobb, jr., acting as Excellent Deputy High Priest and Moses D. Getty acting as Grand Captain of the Host. . . . The Yonkers branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers has elected the following officers: George P. Newhall, president; John Lages, vice-president; George O. McLean, recording secretary; Joseph Bealrsto, financial secretary; George W. Hull, treasurer, and George F. Cunningham, delegate to the national convention to be held at Philadelphia next year. . . . On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Van O. Linda gave a progressive euchre party at their home in Hawthorne-ave. Prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Radcliff, Mrs. J. J. Potter and J. Frank Curran. . . . At the meeting of the Board of Trade on Tuesday evening, James B. Ludlow was elected to membership, and Frederick B. Mee, William McAdoo and James D. McIntyre were proposed for membership. Philip Verplank, John Bellows and George Rayner were appointed a committee to nominate officers to be voted for at the annual meeting which will be held on the third Tuesday in January next. . . . Last night the Leo Association gave a minstrel performance at St. Mary's Hall for the benefit of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. This evening, the Old Hick'ry Dramatic Company will present "Comrades" at Teutonia Hall, under the auspices of Kitching Post, No. 60, G. A. R. . . . On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Freethy celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Their son Frank attained his majority at the same time, and the two incidents were celebrated as one. There was instrumental music by Miss Kott, Miss Webb and John Meehan; Mrs. Lawrence Green, Miss Bertha Sheppard and Miss Maggie Monroe sang and Miss Anna Rothing recited.

WHITE PLAINS.

The Weschester County Board of Supervisors yesterday fixed the salary of Addison Johnson, the incoming Republican Sheriff-elect, at $10,000 a year, the highest sum allowed by the special law passed last winter governing the regulations of the Sheriff's office. . . . Wilson Brown, jr., the lawyer who was assaulted by "footpads" in Hamilton-ave. on Monday evening, is not yet out of danger, the attending physicians fearing the setting in of inflammation at the base of the brain.

NEW-JERSEY.

HOBOKEN.

Alexander C. Young, a prominent lawyer of Hoboken, supposed until Tuesday that he had $800 to his credit in the Second National Bank of Hoboken. Then he was disagreeably surprised to receive notice to the effect that his account had been overdrawn. When he denied the statement checks were shown that had been paid to Charles O. Bernitt, a former confidential clerk of Mr. Young. He had been discharged on October 13, but the bank officers did not know it, and his imitation of Mr. Young's signature was perfect. Bernitt, who is only seventeen years old, was dismissed for getting married, his employer thinking that neither his age nor his salary warranted his taking a wife. Bernitt is believed to be in New-York. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

Richard Stevens, an accountant of Newark, and Rutherford Coleman, a lawyer, of Trenton, commissioners appointed by Chief Justice Mercer Beasley, to make a summary investigation into the affairs of Middlesex County, began their duties at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, in the courthouse in New-Brunswick, before a large crowd. Roderick Byington, of Newark, was present as counsel of the City Club of New-Brunswick, at whose instance the investigation was ordered. The Board of Freeholders was represented by Frank Runyon and William Hofman. The Commissioners started an examination into the accounts of County Collector David Serviss, to see if the legal allowance of expenditures, which is three-fourths of 1 per cent of the value of the taxable property of the county, each year had been exceeded. It was found that for the year ending with May, 1894, this legal allowance had been exceeded nearly $5,000. The counsel of the Freeholders said they could explain this at the next sitting, which will be on Friday.

PASSAIC.

Three years ago John F. Kilgour, of Passaic, turned over all his bluestone quarries in Pennsylvania, together with the summer resorts known as Shohola and Parker's Glens, to the First National Bank of Port Jervis. The bank had discounted a large number of his notes, which he was unable to meet, and the agreement was that it should hold the property until its accumulated profits paid off the indebtedness. Yesterday the property was given back to him, and it is said he gets $25,000 in cash as well. He took possession to-day of a line of stone quarries, over thirty miles along the Erie Railroad, above Port Jervis. The bank has sold this in spite of the clause in the deed of trust that it should sell nothing without his consent. It is charged that the bluestone lands were mismanaged. Kilgour will carry both these matters into the courts. Prosecutor William B. Gourley, of Paterson, and ex-Postmaster John Kennell, of Passaic, were Mr. Kilgour's trustees. Mr. Kennell said to a Tribune reporter yesterday that Shohola ought never to have been sold. It was worth $50,000, and was making money, and the mortgage was only $10,000. He prophesies that Kilgour will recover it soon. He also says that the deal will be consummated within sixty days, and that then the full terms will be made public.

NEWARK.

The Board of Health, through its Sanitary Committee, will establish a bacteriological laboratory to make diphtheria anti-toxine.

The jury in the case of Patrolman John Smith, of the Third Precinct, indicted for manslaughter in causing the death of John Curley, a prisoner, by clubbing him, gave a verdict yesterday of not guilty. The jury was out three hours.

The special committee of the Common Council on the payment of city bills for a period of ten years has ended its inquiry. It has been shown by the facts elicited that during nearly the entire period the city paid extravagant prices for articles and supplies furnished. This was especially so for the last three years, when the Democrats had control of the Council and the Mayor was a Democrat. Extraordinary prices were paid for supplies on almshouse account. Committees having some slight duty to perform charged up expensive restaurant bills to the city. The greatest extravagance was in the purchase of furniture. The committee held a private meeting yesterday. It will probably take up the bills of the Board of Education.

ELIZABETH.

The New-Jersey Dock and Bridge Building Company has been organized in this city and will carry on the business of the late Eli A. Young, the noted dock and bridge builder of Elizabeth. All his chattels and interests have been purchased by the new company of which ex-Freeholder Charles H. Moore is president; General George H. Rhodes, is vice-president and manager, and County Engineer Louis Quien is secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Rhodes for many years was principal foreman for Mr. Young. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the company with the clerk of Union County.

LONG ISLAND.

THE RESERVOIR LEAKING.

The Brooklyn city reservoir in Milburn is leaking very badly since Monday. Acres of land in the immediate vicinity of the reservoir are flooded with water. The reservoir was constructed at an expense to Brooklyn of over $1,000,000. As soon as the leak was discovered the Brooklyn authorities were informed, and they are there now trying to find the leak. Contractor Freel says the reservoir was constructed under the supervision of an engineer of the Brooklyn City Water Works Department. Thousands of gallons of water have been lost by the leak.

MORE TROUBLE ON THE NEW-ORLEANS LEVEE.

New-Orleans, Dec. 19.—The cotton commerce of the city was again practically paralyzed to-day. The cut rate of the negroes for loading cotton was to have gone into effect this morning, and there was reason to believe that a large number of ship agents would give work to the colored men on the score that they are compelled to handle the freights with the least possible cost. Few of the negroes turned up this morning, however, even to fulfil engagements they were said to have made, and along the entire front there were hardly more than two or three ships at work. Notice had been officially printed in the papers that a large number of stevedores' firms had accepted the cut-rate terms of the negroes, and in consequence the white laborers generally did not apply for work this morning. There has thus far been no violence.

THE HOLIDAYS BEGIN AT YALE.

New-Haven, Conn., Dec. 19.—The fall term of Yale University closed this noon, and work in all the departments will be suspended until after January 1. For ten days the semi-annual examinations have been in progress, and about half of the members of the Academic and Scientific departments finished their last papers and left for home last night.

The Yale Glee and Banjo clubs left here this noon for their annual Western trip. They will leave New-York to-morrow morning, sing successively in Albany, Rochester, Buffalo and Chicago, giving their customary concert in that city on Christmas Eve. They will then proceed to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Kansas City, Cincinnati, Louisville and Harrisburg, Penn., arriving in New-Haven on January 6, at the opening of the winter term. Forty men have been taken along.

FLED FROM THE TAXPAYERS.

Morganfield, Ky., Dec. 19.—Tax Collector Blackwell and his son arrived here at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, to hold a special sale, and people from all over the tax district began to pour into the town early. Blackwell became alarmed and he and John Feland, attorney for the bondholders, hurriedly boarded the train for Uniontown, much to the disappointment of the people. The sale therefore did not come off. Blackwell has advertised a sale of personal property and land, to recover taxes due the railroad. There will be trouble if he attempts to hold the sale. Mass-meetings were held last night in the threatened precinct and resolutions were adopted by the business men of Morganfield denouncing L. C. Blackwell. The amount of tax is about $250,000, and the railroad for which it was voted was never built. That was twenty-five years ago, and the bondholders are now trying to collect principal and interest.

A PORTRAIT OF GOVERNOR FLOWER.

Albany, Dec. 19.—A full-length oil-painting of Governor Flower reached the Executive Chamber to-day. It will be added to the Gallery of Governors, which Governor Flower wishes to see adorn the Executive Chamber. Many of the paintings now hung in the Executive Chamber were formerly in the Executive Mansion, and a few months ago were removed to the Capitol at Governor Flower's request.

FOR

THE HEART

CARDINE EXTRACT OF THE HEART OF THE OX.

A prominent medical practitioner recently said that during the last fifteen years he has noted no less than seventy-three cases of deaths of elderly persons resulting from running after street cars.

No elderly person should ever run or exercise with unusual violence. Whoever does so takes their life in their hands, since no one can tell the exact condition of the walls of the heart. When past fifty years of age the cardiac structure is liable to give way any hour by reason of unusual exertion. The trouble is that the walls of the heart become friable, and subject to rupture with age. The cartilagenous structure especially approximates ossification, and even the purely muscular cardial fibre loses much of its elasticity as old age creeps on. Cardine (Hammond), the extract of the heart of the ox, retards this decay of the tissues of the human heart, and strengthens and makes elastic again the walls of this vital organ. It has never failed to strengthen a weak heart, to correct irregular action and functional derangement caused by excessive use of tobacco, dyspepsia, nervous prostration and general debility. An impoverished condition of the blood is cured, and dropsy, as well as Bright's disease of the kidneys, is alleviated by this organic extract.

Cardine is the sterilized extract of the heart of the ox, and one of the famous

Animal Extracts

Prepared under the formula of

Dr. Wm. A. Hammond.

It contains the substance, both nervous and muscular, required by the HUMAN heart for its nutrition and normal action. It exerts its influence within a few minutes after administration.

Its use strengthens the pulse and lessens its frequency in those cases in which the heart's action is feeble and frequent, causes the disappearance of intermissions and other irregularities in the strength and force of the heart-beat, and materially increases the blood pressure so that it acts upon the kidneys as a diuretic.
