MOBILE FIRE CHIEF DIES SUDDENLY

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 28.—Capt. Thomas F. Price, chief of the Mobile fire department, and a former officer in the International Fire Chief Association, died here very suddenly late last night from acute indigestion.

He returned on Monday from New Orleans, where he attended the National Convention of the Fire Chiefs and was apparently in the best of health.

Chief Price, thirteen years ago, succeeded Chief Matthew Sloan, who also died suddenly.
