WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

Weekly devotional services this evening in the churches.

Liliuokalani Educational Society meets at three this afternoon.

Hon. W. C. Parke has our thanks for the latest sugar market report.

Mr. Bedolfe, purser of the Australia, has our thanks for full files of San Francisco papers.

Mr. E. B. Thomas, contractor, has one hand bandaged from a hurt received on Monday.

Moonlight, pleasant air and band music almost emptied the usual places of resort last evening.

The work of renovating the outside of the Custom House, provided for at the last session of the Assembly, has begun with the painting of the iron shutters.

A large mail received by the Australia at half-past 12 yesterday was all sorted by sundown. The P. N. Co.'s steamer Surprise was detained a short time, and all the foreign mail for the island of Maui was dispatched by her.

Mr. E. C. Macfarlane, who returned home from the Coast yesterday, is reported in interviews published by the Call and Examiner, also in a letter to the San Francisco Bulletin, as emphatically contradicting reports that the Hawaiian loan in London had fallen through.

Mr. George Lucas is erecting a fence of neat design, composed of bent iron uprights on wooden supports, in front of the Roman Catholic Cathedral. The new structure replaces the old-fashioned stone wall hitherto standing there, and will be a notable improvement to the premises.

Mr. Swain was about to mount his horse last evening, to ride to his home near Waikiki, after his hard day's work in the Post Office, when the animal got away and galloped riderless homeward through the streets. Rather shabby trick for the noble animal!

Patrons of the Beaver had band music with chicken fricassee at lunch yesterday. The treat was explained by the fact that it was Mr. Nolte's silver wedding day, and the Royal Hawaiian band boys had been gathered by Prof. Berger in the yard to give mine host a surprise serenade. Some handsome silver presents were bestowed on the happy couple during the day.

Death from Accident.

Mr. Wong Kim, a Chinese carpenter, much respected by people of all nationalities, died on Monday from injuries sustained in being thrown from a horse. He was foreman of Chinese Company No. 5, H. F. D., and the city firemen are summoned to attend his funeral from the house where he lived on Maunakea street, at 2 o'clock to-day.

Police Court.

Two sixes from Lukala and Solomona Keanui; a remand to the 6th of Ah Hing for larceny of a bottle of wine, and the commitment of Henry Kaneauhii to the Supreme Court for trial on the charge of gross cheat by obtaining $250 from Alexander Robertson by false pretences on the 15th January, was the business put through yesterday.

Hotel Arrivals.

Eagle House, April 5—Henry Vanken, San Francisco; Major T. S. Parrott, Australia; Dr. Wel. G. Nagel, Germany; Albert Cron, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Lidwigun, San Francisco.

Royal Hawaiian Hotel, April 4—C. S. Cox, Micronesia; 5th, Edward Kerstens, Denver, Col.; J. W. G. Cofran, J. S. Martin, San Francisco; E. P. Borden, E. Shirley Borden, Philadelphia; S. B. Wilson, London; P. S. Howe, Boston; M. H. Bedolfe, S. S. Australia.

Sugar and Rice.

The latest changes in prices at the San Francisco refineries were the following: On 4th March all grades refined reduced ⅛c. per lb., and on the 19th yellows advanced ¼c. per lb. The American Refinery was shipping most of their second grade raw sugars East, but the Interstate Commerce Act going into effect this month would put a stop to rail shipments.

That Refinery has accordingly chartered the American ship G. B. Sutton, of 1,758 tons register, to take a full cargo of raw sugar to New York. Cuba basis had improved from 5 1-32c. March 3rd to 5 3-16 for 96 per cent test March 25th, with market strong and advancing. Beet had advanced and the London market was stronger. Island rice has had a sharp advance, owing to railroad freight shutting out Carolina.

SUPREME COURT.

April Term.

Judge McCully presiding. The foreign jury, yesterday, brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of the King vs. Woolham, for horse-stealing. Attorney-General for the Crown, Neumann for defendant.

The King vs. Alisiu, adultery, and the King vs. Thomas and Harrigan, malicious injury, were closed by nol. pros.

The King vs. Ah Wing, possession of opium. Plea of guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and to hard labor for six hours.

The King vs. Vance, assault with a pistol. Attorney-General for the Crown, A. C. Smith for defendant. Verdict, guilty, one juror dissenting. Sentence reserved.

AT CHAMBERS.

Before Judge Preston. In the matter of the estate of George J. Emmes, of Honolulu. Petition for allowance of final accounts of administrators, Messrs. Samuel C. Allen and J. O. Carter. The report of the Master, Mr. Henry Smith, filed on Monday, was submitted, examined and found correct. The period covered by the accounts is from June 13th, 1884, to February 19th, 1887. The schedules of receipts and expenditures show sums of $19,390.32, and $18,312.19 respectively, leaving a balance for distribution of $1,078.13. The principal item under the head of receipts is life insurance policies and premiums, $15,230.84. The main items among expenditures are: Estate of James Robinson, principal and interest of mortgage and three notes, $6,489.75; payments to the widow, $3,565; loan on note, due after the filing of accounts herein, $2,500; contract for new cottage, $2,720; the remainder being to sundry creditors and for other payments. Mr. S. C. Allen was present for the administrators. The Master's report was approved. The administrators filed a supplementary account with receipts for payments since filing the former account, and paid into Court the cash balance on hand, $1,196.45. The Court approved the supplementary account, and ordered that the administrators be discharged, and their bond cancelled, and further that the clerk, after paying the costs of Court out of the balance, pay the remainder and deliver the papers and documents abovementioned to whoever may apply being entitled to them.

The Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock.

By the Australia arrived Mr. R. H. Hendershot, the "Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock." He was received on the steamer by Mr. J. F. Noble, Adjutant of Geo. W. DeLong Post, G. A. R., who took him and his son who accompanies him to his house. Mr. Hendershot is a pleasant spoken American of thirty-seven. Three wounds attest to his having been in the thick of battle during the late war, one leaving a scar now pretty well diminished close to the right eye, the second being in the side and the third in the right leg. A pleasant disposition was evinced by the "Drummer Boy," in a brief conversation with our representative yesterday, when he enthusiastically spoke of the pleasure afforded him in giving a free entertainment to thousands of children in Portland, Maine. Mr. Hendershot and son will take part in an entertainment to be given at the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday and Monday evenings next. The box plan will open at the office of Messrs. J. E. Brown & Co. Thursday morning at nine o'clock. At the same place there will be exhibited to-day the handsome drum presented to Mr. Hendershot by Horace Greeley in 1865, with the gold-mounted drum-sticks given him by the elder James Gordon Bennett.

Mr. Hendershot, accompanied by his son on the fife, beat a rally on his drum at the band concert on Emma Square last night. He was introduced in a brief sketch of his career by Mr. R. W. Laine, P. C. of the George W. De Long Post. The performance produced a vociferous encore, and had to be repeated. Three cheers were added to the loud applause for the brave and dexterous drummer and his son.

Kaumakapili Chimes.

Honolulu for the first time experienced the pleasure of listening to a tower chime of bells yesterday forenoon. The chimes imported by Messrs. E. O. Hall & Son for Kaumakapili Church (native), having been placed in position, Mr. Wray Taylor, organist of St. Andrew's Cathedral, briefly tested their notes. There were some errors of adjustment discovered, and these being set right Mr. Taylor gave a prolonged performance on the bells last evening, dispensing their sweet notes in many popular tunes over the city. One or two of them seemed to be out of tune, but if so the faults can be remedied by scraping or filling as required. The large tower bell was also rung at intervals, proving it to have a deep, rich tone and to be a welcome addition to the "bells, bells, bells," of Honolulu.

RETURN OF HON. S. G. WILDER.

With a Large Scheme in Hand—Projected Railway on Hawaii—His London Experience.

Among the expected passengers who arrived by the steamship Australia yesterday was the Hon. S. G. Wilder, returning home from a business trip to London. The HERALD representative meant to have intruded upon the hon. gentleman at his home, after giving him time for a rest after his long journey, but in the course of the regular daily visit to the office of the Wilder Steamship Company found the returned President of that corporation already immersed in business. Having greeted Mr. Wilder before he ianded from the steamer, the interviewer was ready to come to the point at once, as circumstances demanded.

"It is said that you are prepared to go right on with the Hamakua railroad, Mr. Wilder?"

"Well, I believe that the railroad will be built. I can tell you more a little later."

"You have brought a civil engineer with you?"

"Yes; two of them. You may say that the survey will begin next week. There are the instruments," said Mr. Wilder, pointing to a large assortment of traps such as always identify the presence of an engineering party.

"This railroad will run from Hamakua into Hilo?"

"From Hilo to Waipio Valley."

"About what distance?"

"Seventy miles."

"The idea is to have the sugar raised in that section all shipped at Hilo?"

"That is it."

In response to other enquiries, Mr. Wilder stated that he had enjoyed the journey very much all the way round; that the fog was so thick in London that he could hardly see his hand before him, and that to our visitor from this tropic clime it was bitterly cold.

"Did you witness any of the political excitement in England?"

"Yes; I was in London at the opening of Parliament."

"Did you see Mr. Gladstone?"

"No; it is very difficult to see him. I was at his house, but he was not there at the time."

"Or the Queen?"

"No; she is rarely to be seen by anybody in London. She is traveling about most of the time."

Mr. Wilder looks hale and hearty after his prolonged exposure to all sorts of strange climates and weathers. It may be proper to explain that the above purports to be only the substance of the necessarily brief interview, precipitated as it was on both sides in the midst of other pressing duties.
