COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, NOVEMBER 20, 1873.

The long expected mail arrived on Tuesday morning, by our old and favorite packet the bark Comet, which has resumed her place in the Regular Packet Line. By her commercial dates from San Francisco are to the 8th inst. She brings a partial cargo of assorted merchandise, and some forty passengers.

To market quotations for our staple products we can find no improvement, unless it be in coffee, a product which is now admitted duty free, and ought to receive the attention of native and foreign producers throughout the group. Our coffee is a favorite wherever its reputation is known, and sales are readily effected to any amount that may be raised. We quote from the Commercial Herald of Nov. 4:

"Freeds.—Imports of all descriptions keep down. The Hawaiian bark brought a small lot of sugar, their products, are shipping, freely of their surplus to the Australian Colonies. Their total exports for nine months, to all parts, 20,000,000 lbs, a large crop, prices realized not very remunerative. The march of Intellect, Sugar is now valued very low here, the Sandwich Islands, brought about this agreeable state of mind. We have no stock of magnitude to report. The California Refinery is on full time, while all others are doing a commercial business. We quote Hawaiian grocery grades at 9 @9½, according to quality.

"Coffee.—The Hawaiian, from Honolulu, brought 20 bags and 100 cases Kona, Kilauea. We quote at Hawaiian.

"Tobacco.—Imports are light from all quarters. The Hawaiian, from Honolulu, brought 207 bags, which will find a good market, being a good favorite, by many preferred to O. Cuban. The stock is mostly of Central American Grades, with a few cases Havana. Choice Costa Rica is held at 25; Guatemala at 22@25, according to quality. The market is bare of all other Grades, which the stock of Java is inconsiderable, and price altogether nominal.

"Rice.—Stock nearly out; sales of Hawaiian dull at 6@7c.

"Fish.—No change. Sales at 7@8.

"Rum in New York is being quoted at 100@[illegible].

"The bark Hesperus sailed from Barrett's Inlet about Oct. 25, and is fully due here with a cargo of lumber.

"Ship Flyaway was to move San Francisco for Honolulu, Nov. 10, on course for Bay of Islands.

"The bark B. C. Worthy had not arrived even up to Nov. 8, 15 days out from here.
