

Saint Mary's Beacon

"Domine, Non Sum Dignus" Grant me, oh Lord, the Roman captain's faith; Grant me belief in all Thou saith. From doubt, oh Lord, keep me aloof, I pray— Thou art the Truth, the Life, the Way. My soul alas, is sore beset by sin; I'm too unworthy to ask Thee in. Still heed, I plead, Thy erring child's appeal; One word from Thee my soul shall heal. Speak, I beseech, as to the beggar blind Who touched Thy heart that's ever kind. Say, Domine, unto my sickly soul: Arise! Thy faith has made the whole!

Receipt for a Good Whitewash. The receipt for whitewash sent out by the Lighthouse Board of the Treasury Department has been found by experience to answer on wood, brick and stone nearly as well as oil paint and is much cheaper. Slack one-half bushel of unslacked lime with boiling water, keeping it covered during the process. Strain it and add a peck of salt dissolved in warm water; five pounds of ground rice put in boiling water and boiled to a thin paste, one-half pound of powdered Spanish whiting and a pound of clear glue, dissolved in warm water; mix these well together and let the mixture stand for several days. Keep the wash thoroughly stirred in a kettle or portable tub and when used put it on as hot as possible with painters or white-wash brushes.

Rheumatism Makes Life Miserable. A happy home is the most valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering from rheumatism. You throw aside business cares when you enter your home and you can be relieved from those rheumatic pains also by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by Tippet, Johnson & Foxwell.

Who Are Our Superiors? A good rule for every one is to "talk every day with some person whom you know to be your superior." In the first place, the recognition of superiors is a good thing, and in the second place, there is a personal advantage gained by contact with those who are better than ourselves. Where shall we find this superior being every day? Emerson tells us. He said, "every man I meet is my superior at some point." If anyone were to accept this as a working rule we would acquire the habit of looking for that which is good in anyone we meet, and then there would be less finding fault, less harsh criticism, fewer unkind judgments, and less gossiping. Would not that be a decided gain?—Gist.

Twentieth Century Proverbs. Time never hangs heavily on the hands of a clock. When you want to bet, put up something stronger than a bluff. Live up to your good intentions and put the devil out of business. A man is never too old to learn, but he may be too young to realize it. Some people seem to take fiendish delight in always being on the wrong side.—Bohemian Magazine.

Human Blood Marks. A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bao, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Scattered Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by all Druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Sound Reason. Robert, aged five was, irritated by the crying of Clara, aged two. "Sister," he said, with great seriousness, "why don't you stop crying? You must be sick. You don't look well, and you don't sound well.—Lippincott's.

George—"Rather than remain single, would you marry the biggest fool on earth if he asked you?" Clara—"On, George, this is so sudden!"—Chicago News.

Mrs. Housekeeper: "Bridget, what do you mean?" Bridget: "Shure, it ain't me, ma'am, it's Miss Ethel." Mrs. Housekeeper: "O, has she got back from cooking school?" Bridget: "Yes, ma'am, and she's gattin' ready to thry an' please egg, ma'am."—Philadelphia Press.

Charles: "Your uncle is a very religious man, I understand?" Henry: "O, yes, indeed! He positively hates everybody who belongs to any other church than his own."—Boston Transcript.

FIFTY CENTS

IN some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.
