

Saint Mary's Beacon.

COUNTY NEWS.

Localwise and Otherwise.

Dont fail to attend the sale at Ellersborough next Saturday, June 23, instant.

The death of the locals in this week's Beacon is due to the absence of Mr. King.

The annual Festival will be held at Sacred Heart Church, on Wednesday, August 1st, 1906.

Indications point to a great number of rabbits this year, as many are seen along the roadsides about sundown.

Mrs. Philo Abell, who has been visiting her son, Dr. Roach Abell, Washington, has returned to Leonardtown.

There will be a meeting of the members of the St. Mary's Racing Association, in Leonardtown, on Saturday June 23rd, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Representative Mudd interviewed the President, June 13th, and found out that Secretary Bonaparte was the man to see about the Federal offices.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barker Ballegger have issued cards announcing the marriage of their sister, Miss Lillian May Ballegger to Derby Alexander Lynch.

The Board of Shellfish Commissioners will begin the survey of the natural beds and bars and of the barren bottoms of the State in Somerset County.

The chery call "Bob White" is heard in every direction and the outlook is good for many "Birds" this Fall. We hope the expectation will be realized.

According to the United States Board of Geographic Names we are hereafter to write St. George Island, not St. George's Island; St. Marys County, City and Creek; not St. Mary's. Well, well!

Mr. and Mrs. Francis V. King, of Leonardtown have gone to Emmitsburg to attend the commencement exercises of St. Mary's College, where their son, Aloysius F. King, graduates this year.

The United States Senate and House of Representatives have passed a bill providing for the co-operation of the Federal Government with that of Maryland for the survey of the oyster lands of the State.

In this week's issue we complete the questions asked in the examination of pupils in our county public schools in the written examinations just passed. A perusal of these questions will indicate the work of the school for the year just ended.

Chairman Hanna, of the State Republican Central Committee prints in his paper the statement that the utterances of Hon. Sydney Mudd, of the Fifth Congressional District, are unqualifiedly and absolutely false. We bet Chairman Hanna wouldn't print what Mudd says about him, for its too hot stuff for printing.

In the distribution of the Public School Funds of the State payable on and after July 1, proximo St. Mary's County will receive $5,320.77. The total amount of State School Tax for this County being $1,517.55 less than last year, will materially embarrass the school officials in their contemplated plans for replacing some of their old buildings, and repairing others during the summer.

On Monday at 10 o'clock A. M. Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. John's Church, Holywood, for the repose of the Soul of Mrs. Elizabeth Greenwell, mother of Messrs. William, Benjamin and Alexander, Hebb of this county; and Mrs. J. Warren Jarboe of Washington. In spite of the severe storm, quite a large number of friends attended the funeral in order to show the high regard in which they hold this most estimable lady. May she rest in peace.

On Monday evening a yoke of oxen hitched to a cart loaded with guano and furniture, belonging to Mr. Chas. J. Russell, started from town and attempted to forge the plank bridge run just above the bridge. The bridge run just above the bridge. The current swept them down the run where they struggled for a considerable time. The mail carrier passing reported the fact and a large party from town went out and did noble work in rescuing them. The cart has not yet been found. To Mr. Walter Abell, who twice swam to the oxen is mainly due the credit of saving them.

We have received all the humidity predicted by Hicks for the first half of June, and according to the same prophet, we are to have a repetition of the same and more of it during the remainder of the month. Heavy rains, from about Saturday, the 23rd to Wednesday, the 27th, is to be a period of general if not violent and dangerous disturbances. On Friday and Saturday the 29th and 30th, energetic thunder, rain and hail are probable. In the Central, Western and North-western States a Summer drought is to succeed the deluge and will shorten the corn crop.

Sandgates.

The public school at this place closed on Friday June 15th, to the delight of the pupils, who are always ready to welcome vacation. After the pupils were treated to music from the graphophone of Mr. E. Ripple, and being served to ice cream and other dainties, they manifested signs of sadness in parting with their teacher.

The principal of this school, Miss Mary L. Dent, has been a faithful energetic worker in the school during the year, and her methods of teaching and training the children have been highly appreciated by the patrons who wish her a pleasant vacation.

Exercises of St. Marys Academy.

The annual commencement Exercises of the St. Mary's Academy at Leonardtown, took place on Tuesday night and was largely attended, the hall being filled to overflowing. Time and space will not permit us in this issue to give a detailed account of the exercises which were of a superior order and were warmly applauded. Miss Grace Floyd daughter of Wm. G. Floyd Esq., of this district, was the only graduate, who received distinguished honors of the Academy. Father M. J. McNamara addressed the school in a very able and scholarly manner which elicited great applause. Sister Rose the Superior and the other Sisters in charge are to be congratulated upon the great success of the institution.

A Great Show.

La Petite Alma, the greatest child toe dancer and contortionist in the world, heads the bill of Leonard & Rowler's Vaudevilleans who will be seen at Leonardtown, on Monday and Tuesday, June 25 & 26; Chesapeake, June 27; Hughesville, June 28, and La Plata, June 29 & 30. This is the greatest all-star aggregation of theatrical talent which ever toured Southern Maryland, and the star of this star troupe is the little girl whose wonderful feats of contortion and remarkable grace as a dancer have advanced her to the top of her profession and will undoubtedly prove the most interesting entertainer who has ever visited this county. There will be a special matinee for the children at Leonardtown on June 26.

Religious Notice.

About seven hundred persons attended the late Mass at St. John's Church, Holywood, on last Sunday to take part in the celebration in honor of the feast of Corpus Christi. The Pastor preached on the Holy Eucharist, and also explained the Origin of the special feast of Corpus Christi's, with the solemn procession as a public profession of faith in the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

After the Mass, the boys and girls neatly dressed and carrying pretty little banners, marched through the aisles of the church, followed by two graceful little Acolytes, dressed in white cassocks, lace surplices, and crimson sashes, who swung the burning censor, incensing the Blessed Sacrament as it was carried through the church. After the Procession, Benediction was given, and this closed one of the most edifying ceremonies ever held at St. John's. The music under the direction of Mrs. M. C. Thompson was, as usual, sweet and devotional. Quite a number of visitors were present and were greatly impressed by what they saw.

Des Garrens—Readmond.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Ida L. Readmond, daughter of Mrs. M. S. and late J. J. Readmond, of St. Mary's county, was married to Mr. Henri Poulin des Garrens, son of Professor des Garrens, of the Naval Academy.

The ceremony was performed according to the French custom. The groom was escorted to the altar by his mother, who gave him away, and the bride was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Mr. P. H. J. Readmond. Another singularity was the use of two rings—one for the bride and one for the groom.

About 75 persons were present, and low nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. Louis O'Donovan. The bride wore a white radium gown veil, caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Edith Readmond, the sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and wore a gown of white net and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas. The best man was Mr. Noko Ignatius Magill, a nephew of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Readmond Guy, F. A. Guy, and C. Seitz.

The organist was Mr. Chenoweth and a quartet of friends of the couple including Mr. John Barrett, Mr. Robert, Miss Mattie Snyder, and Miss Maud Ferguson, sang the psalm "Faithful and True." After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. des Garrens left for a visit to sister of the groom at Notre Dame convent, after which they will take an extended trip South. On their return they will reside in Annapolis.

St. Mary's Female Seminary.

To your correspondent whose first attendance upon the Annual Exercises of this institution dates from the present, it was evident that no school in this State is better managed and its curriculum more thorough and up-to-date than this, under the guardianship of Mrs. Lucy V. Maddox, principal, and her able and zealous assistants.

The Annual Commencement exercises took place at the Seminary on Wednesday 13th, inst., in the presence of a large assemblage notwithstanding the rainy and inclement day. The exercises were of a very high order of merit both as to the literary and the musical part of the programme.

There were ten graduates, as follows: Misses Emily Hall Armstrong, of Cecil County; Lucile Rice Galleher, of Montgomery; Bessie Louise Gough, of Charles; Mary Avis Halbert, of Baltimore; Henrietta Knapp; Hughson, of Talbot; Cora Beale Key, of St. Mary's; Mattie Igle Lueby, of Calvert; Pearl Lancaster Maddox, of St. Mary's; Susie Fussenbough Street, of Harford; and Ethelinda Strayer Thompson, of Baltimore City.

Judge J. Farran Crane the President of the board of trustees delivered the diplomas to the young ladies in very neat and appropriate words. The two young ladies, graduates from your county, Misses Cora Beale Key and Pearl Lancaster Maddox, both read well prepared and highly appreciated papers, and both mixed gold crosses.

In the absence of Genl. L. Victor Baughman of Frederick County, who was expected to deliver the address to the young ladies, Hon. B. Harris Camaller, of your county, was selected to take the General's place, which he did in one of the most eloquent, impressive and practical addresses we have ever heard. Among other things, Mr. Camaller said that there was great need at this time for higher education such as can be and is acquired to an eminent degree, at educational institutions in the confines of his own county and paid an eloquent tribute to Charlotte Hall, St. Mary's Academy at Leonardtown, and to the St. Mary's Female Seminary, as affording this great boon. He said that whilst it was true that other sections of the State were richer in railroads, manufacturing establishments, and other things that go to make up wealth, yet his people in old historic St. Mary's, could boast with feeling of unbounded pride and pleasure that these other sections had "to bow to her" and concede greater wealth within the very walls of these well-known and honored institutions. He also spoke of the liberality extended to his County by the State's representatives, in encouraging and materially aiding her to maintain and foster these "untold riches" to his people.

He spoke of the beautiful marble shaft erected by the State, in front of the Seminary, to the memory of Leonard Calvert the first Proprietary Governor of Maryland, and told his hearers that they should never forget that it was here the doors of Church and State were first opened wide to all alike, and as he gazed upon that shaft and then thought of these noble institutions of learning, his heart beat with indescribable joy and gratitude to the people of his State, and for the honor of his native County. Mr. Camaller then turned to the young ladies and urged them to be true to their alma mater and to the teachings and warnings instilled into their youthful minds here. If you do this, he said, that he would have no fear that all will not be well with them, since their minds have been founded upon a rock here against which the contaminating influences of the world can never prevail. In conclusion he indulged the hope that as the poet had said "into each life some rain must fall," that the only rain which would fall into their lives would be that which was then falling just as they were about going from under the protecting roof of their alma mater.

We trust, it will be our good fortune again to be present and enjoy other commencement exercises of the St. Mary's Female Seminary in the new hall which we learn is to be erected during the year.

ST. INIGO'S ITEMS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Frequent timely rains. Corn and tobacco are growing well, vegetables of the pulse kind and esculents roots are plentiful; and a circuitous route to neighbors houses to borrow, a mess of French beans for dinner is a trip not taken now-a-days.

We notice that well constructed ditches carry the water from low places, and bicycles are used soon after heavy rains.

Soft crabs do not form a dainty dish—something reserved as a special gratification—down here in this land "flowing with milk and honey." They are large and well flavored. The appetites of epicures could be satisfied as to flavor etc.

Soon harvest will be in full blast, and fair yields are anticipated. Rye and oats are cereals not raised for market.

Mail contractors and postmasters perform their respective duties well. Mr. G. L. Smith has good horses, and he is always on time.

It is to be hoped that the telephone line will be completed during the current Summer. It will be a real letter day for the district.

Summer brooders from Washington, D. C. will soon put in their appearance. The Dunbar resort on Smith's Creek is commodious. Excellent accommodations, fine bathing, and the scenery is picturesque.

Politicians are tacit. Really we do not know of any just now of the type of Metetrnich whom Talleyrand contemptuously styled a politician who changed his aims etc. frequently, that is, by the week.

Carpenters are kept busy building and repairing.

Mr. Pembroke Smith and family have moved to Baltimore. Mr. Smith, with the assistance of friends, will keep a small grocery.

Poultry raisers are having bad luck with their turkeys. Powders and tinctures do not arrest the grim messenger. Few incubators are used.

Mrs. Gough P. Edelen, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Flora Miles near St. Mary's City.

Ministers of the gospel essay to get their hearers to be thoughtful, etc., and in doing so to rise out of moral inanity to spiritual activity.

ARMANA.

Special to Delinquent Taxpayers.

Delinquent Taxpayers for 1904 and 1905 are urgently requested to settle their taxes, due and in arrears, on or before July 1st, as I shall be compelled to advertise all delinquents' property at that time, which means an additional cost of $2.65 to each delinquent.

County Treasurer.
