Last Out.

WE will in a few days commence receiving our new and extensive stock of merchandize, direct from the Eastern cities, which was selected with great care by our Mr. Nunnally, with an eye expressly for this trade. We would il entry merchants and others c n as good terms at wholesale or retail as New Orleans houses. Our stock is entirely new and very complete, which consists in part of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gents clothing of all kinds and qualities, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Hardware, Cutlery, Queensware, Chinas, Glassware, Wood and Willow ware, etc., etc. In short we have every article ever offered in this market, besides a great many new ones, never before brought here. To Cash customers, we would particularly request, as well as good punctual ones to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. We have taken the second store above the Post Office, in Mr. O'Donnell' new brick row. In a few days we will have up for our conspicuous sign, a very large gilded eagle, which will more distinctly cenote our place of business. NUNNALLY & CO
