Quick Work on the Laws.

After the adjournment of the legislature the governor has fifteen days within which to act upon bills. This time expired on the 18th. On the 20th the Bismarck Tribune had its "Popular Edition" of the laws out—a book of 133 pages of clear print and exhaustive index. There were many more acts passed by the recent legislature than usual and a great many important amendments made to laws affecting all classes. The Popular Edition" should find its way at once into every store, office and farm house in the state. Many of the acts have the emergency clause and are now in operation. Knowledge of the law may save much trouble and litigation. This "Popular Edition" can be ordered through this paper—price 75 cents

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ade E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. our doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottle free at H. H. Bateman & Co's., Drug Store Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

GALLATIN.

Rier Norhaim has been on the sick list the past week.

Nellie Chalmers is now staying with Mrs. Jones on the Newell farm.

Fred McInnes came up for his brother A. J. McInnes Friday evening.

Rev. Smithers will hold a series of meetings around Gallatin this week.

Many alterations this winter especially in name. Who is next?

Lewis Larson, with the help of John Atcheson took five steers to town Monday.

The friends of Riely Lee are glad to note that he is improving after his serious accident.

John Johnson and Rev. Berg from west of town, were in the neighborhood Monday making arrangements for holding a meeting this week.

The show Friday evening in Gallatin schoolhouse was well attended. It must have been good for the audience, they all did not get a chance to fall asleep.

GITANO.

LENORA.

LENORA, Mar. 8, '99.

EDITOR GRIGGS COURIER:

As I promised to come again. I believe it is now time to come. After one year, election has come around again. It was very quiet owing no doubt to the weather. We have again elected mostly all of the old officers, which goes to show that they are doing what is right. Supervisors, Ole Groff, chairman, A. P. Ruston, Albert Odegard; Clerk, John Miller; Assessor, Joseph Miller; Treasurer, R. H. Belden; Justices, Ole Groff and Joseph Miller; Constables, N. O. Westman, A. Wells.

I don't suppose that there are many in Griggs county that knows where Lenora township is. Well, it is situated at the northeast corner of Griggs county, and all that have been through here say it is as fine a tract of land as there is in the county. We have had a hard pull, owing to drought a few years ago and living too far from market. Now we have a market close at hand and it has caused farmers to make more improvements. All vacant land has been bought up and most of it will be broke this summer. We are getting some good buildings and more to follow, which goes to show prosperity. There will be twice the amount put into crop this year to what there was in 1898.
