AGENCY OF
Moet & Chandon,
CHANDON & CO., Successors, EPERNAY,
40 BROAD ST.,
New York, November, 1882.
I beg to call the attention of the friends and patrons of the celebrated MOET & CHANDON CHAMPAGNE to the fact that the wines now coming to the United States are of the VINTAGE OF 1878, which connoisseurs will find to be equal in quality to any of the first-class Champagne wines shipped to any part of the world.
Messrs. Chandon & Co., Successors to Moet & Chandon, are the largest wine growers in the Champagne trade, and, by reason of their immense reserves, can furnish their superior wines at a less cost than any of their competitors.
I therefore take pleasure in informing you that, notwithstanding the failure of this year's vintage, no advance in price is at present contemplated by Messrs. Chandon & Co., and that their ENTIRE CUVEE of CREAM-COLOR WHITE SEAL will be reserved for this country.
Some idea of the immense resources of the house, which was founded in the year 1743, may be gained by the perusal of the following facts:
It possesses IN FEE 1,017 acres of vineyards, located in the most renowned districts—such as Ay, Bouzy, Cramant, Mareuil, Verzenay, Sillery, and the abbaye de Hautvillers, where sparkling wine was first produced by the monk Dom Perignon. In addition to these, the firm controls, by contract with the proprietors, some 500 acres of other vineyards in the same districts. Besides the wine kept in very large quantities in Wood for a reserve, which is used for blending and to replace the loss of one year and sales, there are constantly on hand in the cellars of the firm TEN TO TWELVE MILLION (10 to 12,000,000) bottles of wine, none of which is sold until it has been in bottle about four years, during which time it undergoes the manipulation necessary to clear and prepare it for consumption.
The total length of the cellars belonging to the house is over TEN MILES, and their superficial area ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-NINE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED AND NINE (169,509) square yards.
The yearly shipments of the house are larger by several hundred thousand bottles than those of any other establishment in the trade, their sales in England alone, for the two years ending in 1881, amounting to ONE MILLION TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY-SEVEN THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIX (1,257,806) CASES, a yearly average of ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY (125,780) CASES, or ONE MILLION FIVE HUNDRED AND NINE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY (1,509,360) BOTTLES, while, for the same period, according to Bonfort's Circular, the total importation of ALL the brands shipped to the United States reached only ONE MILLION SEVEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-THREE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINE (1,783,529) CASES.
The total sales of Messrs. Moet & Chandon during the same period amounted to 28,561,464 bottles.
The wines shipped to the United States by Messrs. Chandon & Co. are
The GREEN SEAL, or Sillery Mousseux, superior,
The WHITE SEAL, or Cremant d'Ay Blanc, and
The GOLD SEAL, or Grand Crémant Impérial, which are for sale by all first-class grocers, and will be found to supply the needs and requirements of the educated American taste at prices graduated to meet the means of all true lovers of a glass of genuine Champagne.
Respectfully yours, C. F. MILLET,
Sole Agent for the United States.

Advice worth Heeding

If you are in need of a stylish and serviceable suit or overcoat for winter wear, it will occupy but little of your time to call and examine our goods and prices before buying elsewhere. We advise this course because we are certain of securing your patronage as a result of your visit. Style and quality, for price, speak for themselves. With overcoats for adults ranging from $5 to $50, and suits from $8 to $50, there can scarcely be a possibility on our part of failing to satisfy every taste and accommodate every purse. The apparel requirements of boys and children are nowhere as liberally provided for as here, an entire section of our vast establishment being devoted to the display of juvenile dress in all the attractive and various designs known to the tailoring art.

Out-of-town dwellers are invited to write for our Fashion Catalogue, showing styles and prices, with instructions how to order.

EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

SUCCESS.
Having made my "Thompson Patent Wave" a very great success all over the United States, as thousands of ladies can testify to its merits, it has made for itself a world-wide reputation so much so that unscrupulous dealers now have the impudence to use my name in connection with their very inferior articles. Ladies will please examine other waves and then examine mine, and please take notice I do not sell my goods to the trade, neither will I allow any dealer to sell my Patent Waves. Every wave is warranted. Gray Hair and fine Switches a specialty. Also fine stock of Shell Goods and Cosmetics. I have no agents or canvassers selling my goods.
Mrs. C. THOMPSON, 32 East 14th st., and Cooperative Dress Association, 31 and 33 West 23d st.

Lost and Found.

A LIBERAL REWARD.—Strayed away from 1624 1-2 and Mott av. West Morrisania, Wednesday evening, a Alderney cow, sun fawn color, large size, 1 small size (brown), short horns; 1 small size thrown, 1 horn broken off and the other bent down over forehead. Apply to Mr. WEEKS, or Mrs. L. SIMPSON, 1624 st. and Mott av.
