M. at my office, No. 67 Wall street, in the city and state of New York, a hearing will be had before me for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not it is necessary for the proper protection and conservation of the property of the defendant Third Avenue Railroad Company that obligations or indebtedness of the Receiver should be created, or receiver's certificates issued, and to what amount and for what purpose or purposes, and as to the proper terms and provisions of any such certificates, and the most advantageous method of disposing thereof.

Dated New York, March 21st, 1900.

ARTHUR G. MASTEN, Master in Chancery, U. S. Circuit Court, Southern District of New York.

Registered Trade Mark.

Union Linen Zephyrs.

This charming wash fabric with its firm weave, and rich, almost silk-like lustre, resembles in a marked degree the fine corded silk fabrics now so prominently used.

Thoroughly washable, and very serviceable, it is one of the best materials for waists and gowns.

The colors are old rose, grey, helio, pink and several blues—all peculiarly soft and beautiful.

Width, 24 inches, 30 cents; 32 inches, 50 cents a yard.

Our display of washable dress fabrics, thin and heavy, white and colored, is unusually complete.
